

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Veterans of all Wars.—Now residing in Marion county are hereby notified that the Marion County Veterans' association will hold a convention at McCracken hall, Court and Liberty streets, Thursday, December 2, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., with time for eats. The local W. R. C. is preparing for the reception and entertaining of members from out of town, trusting to the good sense of those living in the city to come without using. While the organization was originally formed by the Civil war veterans and the women of the Relief Corps, it has been enlarged to include the veterans of all wars.

in which Americans have been engaged. A hot basket dinner will be served by the ladies and they do not want to have anything eatable or drinkable left over. The various auxiliaries to the several soldier organizations are expected to accompany their men folks and partake of the festivities. D. Webster, Adjt. Sedgwick Post.

The Great Shirley Co.—Will be presented in a splendid concert followed by a dance, by American Legion Capital post No. 9, in Salem armory, tonight. Admission $1.

Service Rates Increased.—C. A. Bradford's telephone line, operating in and around Prairie City, is allowed an increase in rates by order of the public service commission yesterday. The order is effective today. The utility is required within six months to discontinue the practice of connecting more than four subscribers on a line within the primary rate area and to distribute subscribers to the several classes of service as they may choose under the rates and regulations as set out in the order.

Capital Post No. 9.—American Legion, will present the Great Shirley Co. in a splendid concert and dance in Salem armory tonight. Admission $1.

Pendleton Protest.—A formal protest against any increase in rates of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company as far as Umatilla county is concerned is entered by the city of Pendleton and is on file with the public service commission. It is averred that the financial condition of the community is such that an increase can be ill afforded and that the company's property valuation in Umatilla county does not warrant an increase in rates.

Everybody Welcome.—Concert and dance at armory tonight. The Great Shirley Co., presented by Capital post No. 9, American Legion.

Prosecutor Must Sue.—The district attorney is the proper official to institute action to collect fees under the factory inspection law, says an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle, written for C. H. Gram, state labor commissioner. Gram made the inquiry upon receipt of a letter from J. J. Barrett, district attorney for Clatsop county, asking to be enlightened.

Legal Blanks.—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.

Attorneys Appointed.—The state land board has appointed J. L. Foot of St. Helens as attorney for the land board in Washington county to succeed G. A. Gore, resigned. Foot is also district attorney-elect for the county. The board also has appointed C. H. Marsh of Metolius as attorney for the land board for Jefferson county to succeed N. A. Burdick, who has moved to Redmond.

Rigdon and Son.—Reliable funeral directors.

Phone Hearing Set.—The state public service commission yesterday fixed December 21 as the date for opening a hearing on application of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company for an increase in service rates throughout the state of Oregon. The hearing will be held in the commission's offices in the Multnomah county court house and will begin at 1 o'clock p. m.

Automobile Is Mystery.—A Ford automobile was found yesterday morning turned upside down in the ditch across the Southern Pacific tracks from the Valley Packing company. M. E. Smith, 3075 Portland road, reported finding the auto as he was driving into the city. Officer Moffitt, who investigated the accident, was unable to ascertain the name of the owner save through the automobile records, which show, according to the license number on the machine, which is 24308, that it belongs to the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protection society of 195 Burnside street, Portland. A woman's coat was found beneath the automobile.

work. Certain wage increases are also proposed.

Test Questions Mailed.—The December tests for the Marion county schools are being sent out this week from the office of the county superintendent.

Wanted.—Girl for candy department. Must have references. The Spa.

Traveler Loses Ticket.—Five tickets purchased by W. H. Newfield for Reedman, Cal., Monday night, were reported to the police as being lost. Mr. Newfield thought he had lost the tickets some where on Commercial street. They cost in all $160.60.

Love, Honor and—
You'll see the rest at Ye Liberty Thurs., Fri. and Sat.

Admits He Is Wanted.—A man claiming that he was wanted in Salem, but refusing to state what for, was picked up by a night police officer in Oregon City Monday night. After communicating with the Salem police it was learned that the man was Jules Cottell, an escaped patient of the Oregon state hospital who had been missing for some time. A hospital attendant went to Oregon City yesterday and returned with the patient.

Miss Pearce to Entertain.—Miss Dorothy Pearce will entertain the members of the music department of the Salem Woman's club tonight at 8 o'clock at her home, 267 North Winter street.

Estate Settled.—Papers were filed yesterday in the county court, which included the final decree and discharge of the administratrix, Flora Bishop, in the estate of J. A. Bishop deceased.

Joe Martin.—The original monkey comedian in "A Prohibition Monkey," at Ye Liberty tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Fight on Street.—A call was sent into the police department Monday night from the Bligh hotel that some boys were fighting in front of the place. About this time Chief of Police Welsh appeared on the scene, stopped the fight and sent the boys home.

Wanted.—Girl for candy department. Must have references. The Spa.

Divorce Allowed.—W. Mae Brown was granted a divorce yesterday from Philo Glenn Brown. She was given the care of their minor child, Glenn Baker Brown, and allowed $40 a month toward her support, $300 in cash and $1000 in alimony.

Wear the Concert.—By the Great Shirley Co., presented by Capital post No. 9, American Legion. Big dance after the concert, Salem armory, tonight. Admission $1 to both concert and dance.

Marriage Dissolved.—A decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony was granted the plaintiff in the case of Emilie A.

PERSONAL MENTION
Roy B. Waddock of Grants Pass was a guest at the Bligh hotel yesterday.

Glenn C. Nichols has accepted a position with the Standard Oil Co. at their service station in this city.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, was in Portland yesterday.

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county superintendent, was in Portland yesterday.

W. H. Weeks of route 8 was in the city yesterday and is making an effort to secure an extension of the Salem electric light system to his property.

W. J. Culver, roadmaster, and T. J. Hunt, county commissioner, were at Sidney yesterday making arrangements for the reconstruction of three bridges in road district No. 29.

F. W. Priem of Macleay was in Salem yesterday on business.

There is more in the willingness of our farmers to raise more fiber flax than most people wot of.

Russia, that also most of the world's fiber flax, is out of it. Belgium is out of it for a while; labor troubles. Ireland is out of it at least temporarily; all kinds of troubles. Canada is boosting flax growing to beat the band; but she cannot raise the kind that makes the fine twine and thread.

The Salem district can and does.

So our farmers are going to be called upon, very shortly, and likely next year, to raise all the flax they can possibly grow—

And this is bound to mean great things for Salem and the Salem district and all Oregon. It will mean the building up of an industry that will bring millions annually; that, alone, will justify a city here much larger than Salem is now.

work. Certain wage increases are also proposed.

Immense Task.—Facing another project recently submitted to congress, in which he wishes to increase the responsibilities of the president and his aides, General Obregon declared that the constitution of 1917 delivered too much power to the chief executive without providing sufficient responsibility and that it was the exercise of these almost tyrannical powers by Carranza that led to the revolution against him. The proposed law would make the president subject to trial if he, in any way, restrained the liberties of voters or attempted to prejudice elections, either federal or state; if he exerted pressure upon congress or the supreme court to influence their actions; if he attacked the sovereignty of any state; if he were a party to the formal administration of public funds or concluded treaties with foreign powers without the consent of congress.

The various members of the cabinet would be made equally liable for not opposing the chief executive in such illegalities.

"I take the oath of office tonight with the profound feeling that I have an immense task before me," concluded the president-elect. "I shall strive to administer my office with due regard to justice for all abiding by the law and the constitution. With the co-operation of the country at large, I hope to see unbroken peace and the prosperity of my country."

Discharge Filed.—Neal Jesse Alvro filed a United States navy physical disability discharge yesterday with the county clerk. The discharge was not a result of Alvro's misconduct the papers stated.

Get Your Tickets Early.—A big treat is in store for you if you attend the presentation of the great Shirley Co. by Capital post No. 9, American Legion, in a splendid concert of 20 numbers, followed by a dance at Salem armory, tonight. Admission $1.

Welsh May Be Candidate.—J. T. Welsh, Salem chief of police, who recently was defeated for re-election by Verden M. Moffitt, is said to be a candidate for street commissioner. The commissioner is elected by the city council shortly before the first of the year.

For Good Paying Route.—Carrier boy wanted, at Statesman office. Phone 583.

Phone Rates Raised.—The McMinnville Local & Long Distance Telephone company is allowed to increase its rates by an order of the public service commission issued yesterday. The order is effective today. The company operates in McMinnville and vicinity.

For Your Christmas Photos.—Have sittings made at once. Engagements evenings if desired. Parker-Shrode studio.

Return Is Voluntary.—After two weeks of wandering about the country in search of an attendant on his vacation, Mike Picolo, patient who escaped from the state hospital for the insane a fortnight ago, voluntarily returned yesterday. He said he had enough of wandering. According to Picolo's story, the attendant bade him goodbye as he started away on leave. The patient became lonesome and started out to find his warder. Picolo was committed from Multnomah county.

All Patriotic Orders.—Are invited to Marion County Veterans' meeting for an all-day session Thursday at McCracken hall. Bring well filled baskets.

Hospital Makes Record.—The record mark in the number of patients to be received at the state hospital for the insane in a single day was reached two days ago, when 11 were received, according to Dr. R. E. Lee Steffen, superintendent of the institution.

When You Think of Good Clothes.—Think of Mosher, the tailor.

Cabinet of New President.—According to an announcement made tonight the cabinet of President Obregon will be as follows:

Secretary of government and chief of cabinet—Gen. E. Piutarcu Calles.

Secretary of foreign relations—Dr. Cuthbert Hidalgo.

Secretary of the treasury—Adolfo de la Huerta, the retiring provisional president.

Secretary of war—Gen. Benjamin Hill.

Secretary of agriculture—Gen. Antonio Villareal.

Secretary of industry, commerce and labor—Rafael Zubaran Capmany.

Minister of communications and public works—Pascual Ortiz Rubio.

The cabinet will be sworn in tomorrow.

That's Right.
Miss Elizabeth Marbury, at a tea in New York, said of marriage: "To many married men regard marriage as a contract of 'heads I win, tails you lose.'"

"In Belgium one day I heard two American business men talking about married life."

"Do you think," said the first man, "that a husband should take his wife into his confidence about his business affairs?"

"Yes, if he isn't making any money," said the other man with a cunning look."
