lines. I don't know whether their opposition was inspired by selfish competition or whether it was due to a far-reaching design of the ruling class in the central empires. Sometimes aspiring monarchs think of these things and I believe the ruler of Germany was looking forward to world domination. "What I want for America is that the ten million tons of ship- ping we build during the war shall be turned over to private management under government encouragement. And I want above all that we shall preserve one thing more. We must preserve the majesty of government and of law and these rest on the constitution. And I want the citizens of Virginia to join the citizens of Ohio and the citizens of Maine to join the citizens of California, in one concord of American union and consecration to the service of our common country."

4.—Three persons were killed and one badly hurt late this afternoon when the eastbound Los Angeles Limited of the Salt Lake railroad struck an automobile on a crossing near Hemet, Idaho. The dead: Dr. E. Scott Blair of San Bernardino, Mrs. Blair, his wife, Edwin Blair, aged 14, only son.

MARITIME COMMERCE IS ESSENTIAL

(Continued from page 1) "Neither would I want to be president if I did not feel that I have your help, he continued. "I want a united nation and I want somehow to appeal for that understanding, that will have the people of the old confederacy understand that that's only a memory. "I cannot talk to you today about public policies and proposals because there is yet a proper and respected administration in power, and I would be the last man in America to give offense to the president or his friends by assuming responsibilities before my time. So I can only say that I want to know you and want you to know me, because we are going to work together; and God helping us we are going to preserve representative popular government. "I do not speak criticism of any party or any personality. I believed very much in an essential autocracy for the winning of the war, but now that it's over, I want the restoration of normal government. "A lot of old hide-bound Democrats and a lot of miserable old mugwump Republicans have been utterly blind to the idea of the American nation giving a thought to an adequate merchant marine. If the LaFollette seamen's act represents the conscience of the American people and I believe it does, then the American government ought to step in and share the burden it imposes. "I want to call attention that the chief propagandists against subsidies for American ships were the agents of the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd
