

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

The masculine contingent came in for a bit of social attention this week, when P. E. Fullerton, for several years actively identified with the Business Men's League, entertained the retiring officials of the Commercial club at a dinner at his residence Friday evening.

pointed for the occasion. A large poinsettia in a cut glass bowl was used as a centerpiece, red candles in crystal holders lighting either end of the board. Holly-decked favor baskets and the place cards bore out the holiday suggestion. The piece de resistance on the menu was the goose, or to be exact, geese, which Mr. Fullerton brought home with him as a trophy of his Eastern Oregon hunting trip.

Many of these "Snaps" we cannot advertise, as they are sold before we could get them in our advertisement. Visit the store often and pick up these money savers. MILLER'S Good Goods.

The following item was featured with a large septa cut in a recent edition of the Des Moines (Iowa), Register, in the Sunday supplement: "A way to keep in golfing form and at the same time drive dull care from the ship's deck, is shown in the accompanying picture of Miss Frances McGrath, a society girl scold fan of Salem, Ore., who plays deck golf and who has devised a machine which registers the strength of a drive without having to lower a life-boat to chase the ball. Now they're all doing it on Pacific liners."

Miss Mary Jane Albert, a Kappa Kappa Gamma girl of the University of Oregon, is among the students home for the two-week vacation, spending the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert.

Miss Christine Bahnsen and Miss Teresa Bahnsen, students at the Portland Art Institute will come home during the week, to remain over the Christmas week-end with their mother, Mrs. Therese Bahnsen of North Winter street.

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Roy Mills and Miss Rose Heine, formed a party motoring to Portland Wednesday, and remaining over until Thursday night.

Mrs. James Nicholson and son, James Jr., returned Thursday night from Portland, where they accompanied Mr. Nicholson who was on a longer trip earlier in the week.

Miss Margaret Goodin is another U. of O. student home for the fortnight holiday. She will spend the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin.

Miss Margaret Griffith arrived Friday night from Eugene, where she is attending the University of Oregon. She was accompanied by Miss Mildred Apperson, another student, who stopped off briefly on her way to spend the holidays with her parents in McMinnville.

Ushering in what may become a series of similar social affairs, was the dancing party sponsored by the employees of the Ladd & Bush bank Wednesday evening in Cottilian hall, which was an informal and delightful addition to the long list of dances given this winter by various organizations and social coteries.

Several beautifully decorated Christmas trees were employed to add to the festive appearance of the big hall, and additional greenery and decorative material used in suggesting the season. Music for the well balanced program was furnished by the Swart orchestra.

Credit for the arrangement of the various details of the affair was given the committee in charge, composed of Roy Burton, John E. Brophy, George H. Richey and L. P. Aldrich.

Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Richey, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. They are playing at the Astor House, a leading English hotel. Mrs. Holman is presented as soloist, and has as her accompanist, the brilliant young pianist, Karlin, a graduate of the Petrograd conservatory, who was a warm personal friend of the great Auer, violinist, when he was an instructor in that place. Mrs. Holman, in writing to friends here, speaks entertainingly of life in China. It is extremely cold in winter, and fur coats are much in evidence, squirrel being quite common place.

A host of U. S. army officers and their wives enliven the place, and there are also a great many Europeans of the better class who give color and brilliancy to the social life of the city. A great variety of the finest fruit is to be had, but it is Mrs. Holman's opinion that a great
