

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton and Mrs. T. A. Livesley motored to Portland to spend the day Saturday.

Small James Dixon White, the two-year-old son of J. F. White celebrated his birthday in appropriate manner Wednesday, when Mrs. William Walton and Miss Elsie White entertained with a party in his honor at the home of his grandfather J. D. White, 1490 Chemeketa street.

Miss Helen West passed through Salem this week on her way to her home in Portland, from Mills college, where she is a student. The holiday interim for this place covers the early part of January, school not to open until the fifteenth. Miss West will spend the time with her parents, Ex-Governor and Mrs. Oswald West.

She was accompanied home by Miss Dorothy Metschen, daughter of Phil Metschen and Miss Ruth Ferguson, of Portland, who are also students at Mills.

Mrs. Harry Hawkins spent the earlier part of the week in Portland with her sister Mrs. Robert McMurray.

A pretty luncheon, with the birthday cake and table displaying lighted pink tapers was the principal feature. Those assisting in the festivities were: Mrs. T. L. Hargrove, Mrs. H. R. White, Mrs. Cook of Portland, Miss Winifred Hargrove, Helen Katherine and James Ogdon White, and J. F. White.

Miss Gertrude Walling returned home this week from New York City where she spent several months. She will remain during the winter with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Walling.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Miss Ila Spaulding and Louis Griffith motored to Portland yesterday, to spend the day.

The election of officers for the coming year for the Senior Guild and Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church filled the hours of the business meeting of the two organizations when they met Friday afternoon. The following were chosen for the guild: Mrs. Russell Catlin, president; Mrs. George G. Bingham, first vice president; Mrs. James Walton, second vice president; Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, secretary, and Mrs. A. M. Vassal treasurer.

For the Woman's auxiliary the result of the election was as follows: Mrs. U. G. Shipley, president; Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, vice president; Mrs. Edward Weller, secretary and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, treasurer.

Members of the Delta Phi sorority were guests at a dinner for which Mrs. Gustav Ebsen was a charming hostess at her apartment in the Kimball building Thursday evening. Holly was used in the artistic decorative scheme, combined with other Christmas motifs. The guests, who were seated at small, prettily appointed tables, included Marie Corner, Margaret Cook, Mildred Strey, Jean Hatton, Maud Holland, Freddy Pratt, Fay Pratt, Genevieve Findley, Mary Malson, Fern Gaiser, Dorothy Lamb, Vivian Eshar, Vesta Dick, Ruby Leadbetter, Grace Brainerd, Mildred Wells, Anna Shanafelt. Guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Miss Lida Fake and Mrs. Pauline Josse.

Mrs. Leland R. Waters (Hazel Blake) has returned from a brief visit to Portland and will be the house guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blake, at their country place "Willow Lake" until after the holidays.

One of the most successful of the annual bazaars was the one given by the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church in Moose hall on Thursday. Throughout the hours of sale matrons and maids swarmed the big room where dozens of beautiful and useful articles found ready purchasers. Members of the guild—Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. Edward Weller and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith—presided as hostesses at the tea which was featured during the afternoon, a dance, under the direction of Mrs.

R. L. White, following in the evening. It was a delightful affair, marked by a number of attractive features, and was largely attended.

Solo and special group dances by pupils of Mrs. White were roundly applauded, as was also the singing by Mrs. William H. Prunk, who gave her numbers during the dances. Clever young solo dancers were Leona Geer, in a "Rainbow" dance; Nancy Thielson, in a Moonbeam dance; Jeanette Sykes, assisted by Faye Wasson, Maxine Glover and Gweneth Edwards, in a Bird dance; Maxine Clark in Tinka Bell dance.

The committee in charge of all arrangements for the affair was composed of Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. George Terwilliger, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. H. C. Powell and the retiring president of the guild, Mrs. L. S. Geer. A larger dance will be given by the guild during the legislature, in the armory, which will be under the supervision of Mrs. William H. Lytle, the newly elected president.

Nearly 300 invitations will be issued tomorrow for the holiday dancing party to be given by the Aloha club in Dreamland auditorium Tuesday night, December 28. The list will include college students and local society folk, each invitation including two people, which will make the affair the largest invitational dance ever given in Salem.

The committee in charge includes Carl Gabrielsen chairman, Bert Ford, Frederick Deckerbach, Oliver Myers, Fred Brock and the executives of the club, Fred E. Mangis, James Marr and James Young.

Yuletide decorations will transform the big interior, and every detail will be in keeping with the spirit of the season.

Aloha men who will act as hosts on this occasion are: Fred Mangis, James Marr, James Poug, James Crawford, Carl Gabrielsen, Albert Egan, Homer Egan, Larry Hofer, Bruce McDaniel, Brazier Small, Clarence Byrd, Bert Ford, Charles Craig, Paul Wallace, Andrew Vincent, William Bradley, Otto Hartman, Fred Deckerbach, Oliver Meyers, Mark Skiff, George Nelson, Dwight Quisenberry, Cliff Knickerbocker, Claude Stensloff, Elvin Lantis, Paul Farrington, Fred Beck, William Harris, Orley Lettingwell, Allan Jones and James McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Doren are entertaining as their house guest over the holidays the former's grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Linton of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Carle Adams was a dinner hostess Friday evening, entertaining for the pleasure of her sister Mrs. Earl W. Baker, who is visiting here from Clyde, Mich.

A miniature Christmas tree centered the table and additional novelties of the season ornamented the board.

Those bidden were Mrs. Baker, Mrs. W. F. Foster, Mrs. R. B. Duncan, Mrs. W. R. Kane, Mrs. Horace Sykes, Miss Sarah Minzmer, Miss Nell Sykes, Miss Constance Kantner, Miss LaVerne Kantner, Miss Beatrice Shelton, Miss Jeanette Sykes, Billy and Richard Baker, and Betty and Bobby Abrams.

Mrs. George F. Rodgers and Miss Marjorie Rodgers returned the last of the week from Portland where they were guests of friends for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley and their children Dorothy, Tommy and Roderick will leave Wednesday for Vancouver, B. C., where they will spend Christmas and remain over New Years with Mrs. Livesley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. DeBoek.

Word has been received by Mrs. Mildred Robertson Brooks from her son, vice consul Russell M. Brooks, that he has been transferred from Rotterdam, Holland, to Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, the latter a large manufacturing city of 22,000 inhabitants.

Vice Consul Brooks was married to a charming Bordeaux on September 11, the civil service taking place in Bordeaux, France, on that date, the religious ceremony being performed in Paris the following day. His bride was Miss Colette Marguerite Dupouy. They left immediately for Vice Consul Brooks's post in Rotterdam where they secured apartments with a cousin of Mrs. S. Levy of Salem.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop returned during the mid-week from Portland where she was the guest of her sons, Clarence Bishop and Roy Bishop, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Bynon, former well known Salem residents, came up from Portland yesterday to be house guests of their daughter, Mrs. O. A. LaCourse, who is also entertaining as her week-end guests her sister Miss Edith Bynon of Marshfield, the latter being accompanied by a sorority sister of the University of Indiana who is visiting here from Gary, Ind.

Mrs. LaCourse is entertaining with a family reunion dinner today, additional guests being Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Bynon and Paul Dexter of Gary, Ind., who is a student at the University of Oregon this year.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner opened their home to the deacons of the First Congregational church, and their wives Wednesday evening, an informal social hour following the business session. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. H. P.

Chase, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. William Richmond.

Miss Marjorie Brown will leave for Roseburg tomorrow, where she will remain for about a fortnight with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bellows. Judge and Mrs. George M. Brown and their young daughter Blaine, will leave the last of the week for Roseburg to remain over Christmas and New Years with Mr. and Mrs. Bellows.

Robert Bishop arrived yesterday from Pendleton and will spend a fortnight with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mr. and C. D. Gabrielson.

for Mother

Hotpoint
ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

TO MOST of us, at Christmas time, the one gift of all, is Mother's. We just naturally try a little harder to choose an appropriate one, for her particularly. A gift for the household, means added comfort and more recreation. A household gift to Mother is always welcome, certainly it reflects your thoughtfulness. Hotpoint Electric Appliances make desirable Mother gifts.

The Hotpoint Electric Percolator, for instance, is really a modern household necessity. Hotpoint Percolators have the well-known hotpoint Automatic Safety Switch and the Hotpoint valveless percolating apparatus.

Then there is the Hotpoint Electric Iron. With its labor-saving attached stand, Mother need not lift the iron at all—simply tilt it back, and another advantage is the thumbrest—"It Rests the Wrist."

The Hotpoint Radiant Grill is fine for Mother too. It enables her to prepare the breakfast right on the table. No tiring steps to and from the kitchen. The Grill boils, broils, fries and toasts.

Hotpoint Electric Appliances are all practical. Visit our salesrooms today—let us show them to you.
