

SAYS IT FIRST AND SAYS IT LAST

Carrie G. Harter, 519 Nicholson St., Norfolk, Va., writes: "I'll tell anybody that Foley's Honey and Tar is all right. It did me all the good. I said it first and I'll say it last." Thousands of bottles of this reliable remedy were bought last week by careful mothers so as to be prepared to check coughs, colds and croup at the beginning. It acts almost instantly, cuts phlegm, soothes raw, irritated membranes, stops tickling in throat. Sold everywhere.

CHEMEKETA Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has a most interesting program outlined for the New Year. Outstanding among the events will be the state convention of the D. A. R. which will be held in Salem early in March. There is a possibility that the state will take place in the capitol, and representatives of the various chapters from all over the state to be entertained by local members during their stay here. At the regular monthly meeting of Chemeketa chapter Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. U. G. Shipley, when Mrs. Shipley and Miss Eliza Nolan were joint hostesses, plans for the convention were among other things discussed at the business session. A paper on "Christmas in Revolutionary Times," presented by Mrs. J. W. Harbison was of much interest. The annual payment of dues was made, an informal social hour following.

Mrs. O. P. Hoff will be hostess for the chapter at its January session, at which time officers will be elected for the coming year. A special feature of this meeting will also be each member giving a resume of her Revolutionary ancestry.

The state board of the D. A. R. met recently in Portland, those in attendance including women of prominence in the organization from various states. Reports were made by state officials, including Miss Edith Benedict, recording secretary, and Mrs. Seymour Jones, regent, of Chemeketa chapter of Salem, the latter with Mrs. C. C. Clark, chairman of the state conference program committee, reporting on plans for the state conference.

Miss Johns is to be the soloist. The bride is a graduate of National Park seminary, Washington, D. C., and the bridegroom to be a former Boston Tech man. The romance started during the war, when Lieutenant Craig was stationed at the barracks and Miss Sparks was interested in war work.

Mrs. H. D. Begun of Lafayette, Ore., returned to her home Sunday after spending last week with her sister, Mrs. George G. Bingham. The latter was joined over the week-end by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Walker Powell of Woodburn.

Mrs. Harry Morrison of Shanghai, China, who is on an extended visit to relatives in Portland, came up Saturday to be the guest of Mrs. Ralph Cochran.

Miss Florence Cartwright is another University of Oregon student who is home for the holidays. She will be with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright. Miss Constance Cartwright has returned from Portland and Forest Grove where she spent a fortnight as the guest of friends.

Miss Mabel Godson is expected to arrive today from Vancouver, B. C., to remain over the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Edwards. The latter had with them at their week-end guest Frank Gilling of Victoria, B. C., who accompanied them to Portland when they motored down Sunday night.

Other college students home for the holiday intern are: Miss Eva Randall and Miss Ruth Griffin, Delta Delta girls from the University of Oregon; Miss Hazel McGilchrist of the same sorority from O. A. C.; and Miss Helen Rose, a Kappa Kappa Gamma of the U. of O.

Two well-known former Salem girls who find themselves in the orient during the holiday season of 1920-21 plan to celebrate the time together, for Miss Bessie Foster who went to Tientsin to join her brother, Lieutenant A. D. Foster, about a year ago, will entertain as her guest over Christmas and New Years Miss Lulu Conover who is stationed in Shanghai, in the interest of the World's Sunday school movement.

The Boys' Kings' Herald societies of the First Methodist church will be entertained at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1515 State street, this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Harold Emmel will direct the activities of the boys, the hosts to be Duane Kirk, Deryl Myers, Raymond Hall and Jerome Hansen. A picture book shower for a Methodist missionary, Miss Clara Cushman, who is stationed in Tientsin, China, will be a feature, and there will also be diversions and pastimes appropriate to Christmas.

Miss Eleanor Huckestein, who is identified with the bank of Shaniko, Ore., will arrive home this week to pass the holiday season with her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. August Huckestein.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Legge and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bradford of Eugene, came up Friday evening to spend the holiday fortnight with Mr. Legge's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Legge, Kenneth Legge is a student at the University of Oregon, specializing in the architectural department.

YE LIBERTY

Be Young In Body, Mind and Looks Despite Your Years

How often you have wished that you could indulge in the strenuous exercise of outdoor sports with the vigor and enthusiasm of youth! But the end of the week finds you all in—you are tired, listless and lack the energy to go out for a vigorous walk or a round of the links—or any other exercise that requires much physical exertion. Many a man, even in his middle forties, has a vague feeling that he is "getting old"—and right at a time when he should be at his very best physically. And he is growing old, not in the sense that the years are pressing heavily upon him—but in the sense that his vital forces are waning away faster than Nature replaces the worn out tissues.

Thousands—yes millions—of people find themselves in this condition early in life. And there is no excuse for it. You can check that tendency to grow old. You can carry your youth with its joys and enthusiasm into your 70's and 80's. But you must give Nature all the help you can. The best assistance you can find—assistance of a sound, constructive character—is in the use of

LYKO The Great General Tonic

LYKO is a distinctive preparation, scientifically constructed in its combination of medicinal ingredients, and there's nothing more invigorating, more strengthening or more rebuilding. Specially beneficial for invalids, convalescents and run-down people of all conditions. Get a bottle from your druggist today—tomorrow you will feel better for it.

For sale by all druggists. Always in stock at Perry's drug store the latter's sister, Mrs. H. J. Johnson of Portland. Their daughter, Miss Phyllis Walker, who is attending the University of Oregon, also came up Friday to be with them during the two-week vacation.

An item in the society column of Sunday's Statesman, concerning the annual Christmas tree and dinner at the Old Peoples' home, carried an erroneous impression. Inasmuch as gifts were solicited for the inmates, by the board of managers. The item should have conveyed a message of thanks from the board for the donations made by the public on Thanksgiving. The Christmas tree is annually furnished by the members of the board who also contribute the Christmas dinner. Only one appeal is made yearly by the board and that is on Thanksgiving.

RECOMMENDED TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

This is the season when children are subject to croup, colds and coughs. Rena C. Marchard, Lawrence St., Salem, Mass., writes: "I used Foley's Honey and Tar with good results. I had a very bad cold and it gave me relief at once, so I recommend it to every child that goes to school." Fair standard, low priced medicine loosens and clears mucus and phlegm, checks strangling coughing, makes easy breathing, soothes and heals raw, inflamed membranes, and stops tickling in throat. Sold everywhere.

An old lady, hearing somebody say the mails were very irregular, said: "It was so in my young days; no trustin' any of 'em."
