Lucy Gaston Says Harding Must Not Smoke Cigarettes

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 18.—Miss Lucy Page Gaston, Chicago, superintendent of the International Anti-Cigarette league...

The letter follows in part: "In a meeting of the newly organized board of the Kansas Anti-Cigarette league...

The question was discussed as to the influence specially upon the youth that cigarettes in the White House are likely to have.

"As you might expect, there were those present who vaingloriously defended you from the charge that you are a friend of the 'little charmer'...

In returning to 'normalcy' to invoke a word of wisdom to take the stand 'the war is over and the cigarette is again a poison'...

"The United States has had no smoking present since McKinley. Roosevelt and Taft and Wilson have clear records. Is not this a question of grave importance?"

Cleveland Eleven Will Probably Play Everett

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 18.—The Tacoma Advertising club today invited East Tech high school of Cleveland, Ohio, and Everett, Wash. high school...

to play a game for the national inter-scholastic championship here New Year's day.

Everett is held to have won the western title Friday by defeating Long Beach, Cal., at that city, while East Tech high is considered here to have one of the most formidable records of all eastern champions.

An unofficial report from Cleveland tonight indicated that Cleveland would readily accept Everett officials have not replied but prominent Everett citizens tonight stated that they were "very much in favor of the Tacoma game," as it would give Everett and all northwest fans a chance to see the title contest.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 18.—An inquiry was received tonight from the Tacoma Advertising club asking if East Technical high school football eleven of this city would play the Everett Wash. high school team at Tacoma January 1, if the game can be arranged.

East Technical high school officials said they would play.
