

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Leave for Roseburg—Mrs. T. E. Herren and daughter, Miss Mande, leave Sunday for Roseburg to spend the holiday season visiting friends.

Two Autos Collide—A collision occurred yesterday at the intersection of Liberty and State streets when automobiles driven by E. H. Thomas, route 1, and Ben Hentelburg, 1903 South Commercial street, collided. Both automobiles were somewhat damaged.

First Popular Concert—Salem Symphony orchestra, armory, Sunday, Jan. 2, at 3 p. m. All seats 50c. (Adv.)

Sold His Farm—R. H. Campbell, local manager for the Standard Oil company, has sold his 60-acre farm on the Silverton road, about three miles west of Silverton and 10 miles from Salem, for $11,000. The sale was made for cash. Amos Corbuse, a Silverton man, was the purchaser. This 60 acres is part of the Hugh and Web Smith location land claim. It has no buildings, but the new owner takes possession at once and will erect buildings. There is 10 acres of timber on the place, the rest being all cultivated. This sale gives a fair indication of what good land well located is worth in this section. The new owner will no doubt make it pay and materially improve the value of the place, to say nothing of the "unearned increment" value. Mr. Campbell does not intend to leave Salem because he has sold his land. He knows no place he likes as well as Salem.

Truck and Car Collide—H. E. Spolding of route 7, Salem, was driving an automobile east on Perry street yesterday when a Ford truck traveling south on High street, appeared suddenly from behind an Oregon Electric train which was standing on the track, resulting in a collision. Mr. Spolding, who reported the accident to the police department, said both the automobiles were slightly damaged, but no one was hurt.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application. (Ad)

Car Fender Damaged—An automobile belonging to F. W. Wilson was damaged in a collision with another automobile at the intersection of High and Court streets. The fender on his machine was bent and the radiator damaged.

Residence Is Sold—R. P. Kirby has sold his residence at 235 South Fourteenth street, to his son-in-law R. H. Campbell.

1921 Calendars—Homer H. Smith, insurance, McCornack bldg., free. (Adv.)

Two Fatalities Reported—Out of a total of 456 accidents reported to the state industrial accident commission for the week ending December 23, two were fatal. They were S. M. Thies, a miner of Bourne, and Joseph N. Fitzgerald, a laborer of Salem. Of the total number of accidents reported, 420 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, 21 were from firms and corporations that have rejected the act and 15 were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

Gordon Contest Delayed—The election contest case of Leslie Murray vs. Herbert Gordon, which was to have been held yesterday morning, has been continued until Monday forenoon.

Final Account Filed—The final account of the estate of Lathrop A. Massey was filed yesterday in the county court. The hearing of objections was set for January 31, 1921.

Every Suit at Mosher's—Reduced. See our patterns. (Adv.)

Marriage Licenses Issued—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the office of the county clerk to the following applicants: Clara Harper and Chas. Marion Gady of Salem, and Hazel M. Duffield and Fred S. Slater of Mill City.

Bank Charter Issued—A charter was issued yesterday by the state banking department to the Bank of Waldport, capitalized at $15,000. The incorporators are W. J. Brugland, president; Alexander Sweek, vice president; and L. L. Linn, cashier.

DeMolay Commandery No. 5, K.T.—The annual Christmas observance will be held in the Masonic temple at 10 o'clock Christmas morning. Sir knights will wear their uniforms. An interesting program has been arranged and Woodburn and McMinnville commanderies have been invited to attend. The services are open to the public. All Sir Knights and their ladies are requested to be present. W. T. Davis, Recorder. (Adv.)

Bond Approval Asked—The state engineering department has received from the Talent irrigation district of Jackson county an application for certification of $33,000 in bonds to buy land for the Emigrant creek reservoir site. The district has issued a total of $252,000 in bonds. It covers 9000 acres.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—Turkey dinner Christmas day from 4 until 8 p. m.—Adv.

Hamilton Funeral Held—The funeral of M. L. Hamilton, pioneer Salem business man, was conducted at the chapel of Webb & Clough yesterday at 11:15 o'clock by the Elks.

Two Cars in Crash—Charles Robertson reported to the police station Thursday night that while driving an automobile east on Court street, at the intersection of High, he collided with a Ford automobile. The rear right fender and the running board on the Robertson automobile was smashed.

Shramm Makes Mistake—A. A. Shramm, of the Corvallis State bank, has a badly cut hand all because he was not in such bad shape that he cannot take in all the money offered him at the bank.—Gazette-Times.

Magazine Club Rate—The Ace, 127 N. High. (Adv.)

No Arrests Thursday—For the first time, at least during the past four months, the police blotter was a blank Thursday. In view of this being such a very busy season of the year, it is rather an unusual circumstance.

Card of Thanks—We wish to thank the friends and especially the members of the Elks lodge who assisted us during the funeral and burial of our father, Land and Ira Hamilton. (adv.)

Salem Girl Injured—Miss Jackibine Schmidt was cut about the face Thursday night in an automobile accident on Front street when an automobile driven by Frank Judd and a Busick delivery truck collided at the intersection of Columbia street. Miss Schmidt was riding in the Judd automobile when the cars collided. The radiator and windshield on the Judd car was broken and the radiator on the truck was also damaged.

Delicious Christmas Dinner—Will be served at Hotel Marion from 5 until 8 p. m. at $2 the cover. (Adv.)

Sunday School Entertains—The Christmas program given at the First Christian church on Thursday night, was well attended. The Sunday school, under whose auspices the entertainment was given, must have felt repaid for their efforts in receiving the splendid offering which amounted to about $100, given toward the near east relief fund.

PERSONAL MENTION

R. B. Goodin, state purchasing agent, is ill at his home in the city.

J. R. Smith, local tobacco dealer, left last night to spend the week-end with friends in Eugene.

W. H. Lytle, state veterinary, and wife, are spending Christmas with friends at Pendleton.

Mrs. T. B. Handley and daughter are guests of friends at Tillamook over Christmas.

Secretary of State Sam Koser and wife are spending Christmas with his mother in Portland.

O. P. Hoff, state treasurer, is ill at his home with the grip.

James Crawford, deputy state treasurer, went to Portland last night to spend Christmas with his father, ex-Attorney General A. M. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Eugene, called at The Statesman office Friday evening while waiting for a train to McMinnville, to spend the over-the-Christmas period at the home of relatives.

HOW HE ENDED KIDNEY TROUBLE

"I had a severe attack of kidney trouble and for three weeks could not get out of doors and scarcely out of bed," writes C. E. Brewer, Village Springs, Ala. "Could not bend over at all without the most excruciating pains. I purchased a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills. Was relieved after first few doses and continued their use until completely cured. I consider Foley Kidney Pills the best kidney remedy in the world. No recurrence of my trouble." Sold everywhere.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Merry Christmas!

Salem will take care of her own; her own needy families.

The response to the appeal of The Statesman for help for the needy families has surprised many who have seen the piles of provisions in the warehouse back of this office. The response was spontaneous, and it persists.

But the Bits for Breakfast man was not surprised. He knows Salem, and has experienced the same thing before.

It was pretty hard on Molly Brunk, who now has two jobs; the one connected with the collection and distribution of the supplies for the needy families being the greater. So all the help she can get will be welcome.

It was said last night that 100 new automobiles were given as presents for Christmas in Salem; and that the purchases of jewelry and gems here never half so large at any former Christmas time.

So Salem has some people with money.

The fact is, Salem ought to have no poor, or very few, brought to that condition through sickness or misfortune. And there would be no needy families here, outside of those mentioned, if there were an efficient employment bureau functioning. There is plenty of work for all, even now, if the jobs were connected with the jobless. And there will be more work than workers when spring opens, and especially when the crops begin to come on.

Greetings Exchanged by Prunarians, Cherrians

The Vancouver Prunarians have extended Christmas greetings to the Salem Cherrians. King Bing Clancy of the Salem boosters yesterday received the following message signed by M. S. Cohen, Big Prune of the Prunarians:

"To you, King Bing, and through you to all the Cherrians, my flock wishes you all a merry Christmas."

King Bing sent back the following reply:

"The Cherrians, King Bing-elect and myself extend the heartiest holiday wishes to your bunch of good fellows."

A Merry Christmas To All Our Friends and Customers

May this be the best Christmas you have ever spent, may you long remember this 1920 Yuletide because of the many privileges you have had, both in giving bountifully to those suffering in other countries, and to the little ones at home, this is our wish.
