Every Suit at Mosher's—Reduced. See our patterns. (Adv.)

Royal Niles Dead—The death of Royal (Tubby) Niles, a former Salem youth, was reported yesterday, to have occurred at Oregon City. He was a noted football player and well known in this city and was a nephew of Mrs. E. J. Swafford, 1109 Ferry street. He graduated from the Salem high school in 1909, and later attended Whitman college.

Aschenbrenner Dismissed—The case of John Aschenbrenner, charged with assault and battery was dismissed in the justice court yesterday, owing to the failure of the prosecuting witness to appear. A son of the defendant in the case, George Aschenbrenner, placed the charge against Aschenbrenner some time ago when he appeared before Judge G. E. Unruh, badly beaten and bruised, which he said was due to a fight with his father. The case was set for a hearing last week and at that time the younger Aschenbrenner failed to appear also. Other charges are said to have been preferred against Aschenbrenner, for which it is expected he will have to answer.

Accident Serious—A serious automobile accident occurred Monday night when Delmer Desart, 1605 Tenth street, at the crossing of the Southern Pacific tracks drove his automobile where the road had been lowered for grading, taking a sudden drop. He was badly cut about the chin, caused by striking on the steering wheel. The automobile received a broken axle and both the front wheels were driven back under the machine. Upon investigation it was found that the rear lights placed as a warning by the railroad company, where the accident occurred.

Bumper Torn Away—As J. M. Rupert was driving away from the curb on State street Monday night, his automobile collided with an automobile driven by Mark Skiff, who was traveling in the same direction. The front bumper was torn off the Rupert automobile, according to the report given to the police by Mr. Rupert.

Auto License Suspended—Police officers were called Monday night to quiet a disturbance, in the Bin Sin noodle house. Sam Muhleman, who was reported as intoxicated, entered the eating place and ordered refreshments. Upon not being served as quickly as he desired, the Chinese reported that he went into the kitchen and ordered them around with a knife in his hand. The officers arrested Muhleman and placed him in the city jail. Thursday morning he was given a hearing before Judge Earl Race and paid a fine of $25. The judge ordered that his automobile license be suspended, as evidence in the case proved that he was driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition.

Boys Escape; Caught—Gordon Stoddard, 18 years old, and Hampton Hartwig, 15, escaped about 9 o'clock last night from the hospital at the state training school where they were under quarantine because they had been exposed to measles. An hour and a half later they were caught at Turner by A. R. Mason and J. M. Bones, who returned them to the school and received the reward of $5 each allowed by the state for returning boys who had escaped from the institution. Stoddard's home is in Walla Walla and the other had also lives in eastern Washington. Stoddard stole an automobile in Pendleton and kept it for a month at his home in Walla Walla before he was returned to Pendleton and committed to the Oregon school. He lacked only a few days of being 18 years old at the time, when he would have been subject to the federal law for taking a stolen automobile across the state line.
