

SOCIETY

BY MOLLY BRUNK

MRS. Edmund F. Carlton and her sons Edmund and Blundell, of Eugene, will arrive today and will be entertained until after New Year's at the home of Mrs. Carlton's sister, Mrs. Roy Burton. They will come by way of Monmouth where they have been the guests of President and Mrs. J. H. Ackerman. Mrs. Carlton is a former prominent matron and will be most cordially welcomed.

At high noon last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Luthy, in North Salem, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Marie, to W. H. Purvine, one of the young men from France who is now studying for his A. M. degree at Willamette university. The bride was graduated from Willamette in 1918 and for the last two years has been teaching mathematics in the Eugene high school.

Miss Katie Mize, a long time friend of the bride, sang "I've You," accompanied by Miss Caroline Hrubetz, who immediately followed with Lohengrin's wedding march. Dr. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick of the First Methodist Episcopal church officiated, using the beautiful ring ceremony and receiving the vows of the bride and groom who stood under an effective arch of smilax.

The ceremony was witnessed by relatives and a few intimate friends who afterward were included as luncheon guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman White of Woodbine, Ia., will arrive today to remain over New Year's as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dibble. Mr. Dibble and Mrs. White are cousins.

The visitors are on their way from Spokane to California, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. D. Bussard and daughter Miss Ethel Bussard spent the week-end in Salem as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Duncan, returning to their home in Albany the first of the week.

Prof. and Mrs. Roy Hewitt and small son Ronald of Corvallis, are spending the week in Salem dividing the time with a number of old-time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson have returned from Portland, where they went to spend Christmas with relatives and friends.

Mrs. James Godfrey and Miss Emma Godfrey motored to Portland the last of the week to spend the Christmas week-end with relatives and friends.

Earlier Mrs. Godfrey entertained as her guest, Miss Florence Leech, a well-known and popular singer of Portland, who is a former attraction on the Orpheum circuit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Pearson of Portland have returned to their home, after being entertained at the week-end guests of Mrs. Pearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Durbin, who also had with them their son Frank Durbin, who is home from O. A. C. and Mrs. Durbin's mother, Mrs. J. W. Spriggs of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Forsythe of Portland motored to their home in Portland Monday, after spending the Christmas week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hargrove had with them for Christmas and the week-end their sons and daughters and grandchildren, several of whom came from out of town to assist in celebrating the date, including Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith and C. C. Hargrove and son Jack of Corvallis; Mrs. Edith Plank, Claudia Plank and Miss Maude Hargrove of Portland.

Miss Gladys Steele, newly appointed matron of the Salem hospital has returned to Salem after friends near McMinnville.

Mrs. W. M. Bushey is entertaining as her holiday house guests her sister, Miss Fred Merrill and two children, of Clatskanie, who arrived the last of the week.

Mrs. Samuel Stockum entertained with a reunion dinner on Christmas day having as her guests from out of town her mother, Mrs. W. U. Clarke of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Looney and Mr. and Mrs. N. H.

Looney and their daughter, Miss Greta Looney, all of Jefferson. During their stay the latter family was also entertained by Mrs. S. C. Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harris and Miss Dot Davey spent Christmas and the week-end with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Corby were joined over the Christmas week-end by the former's sister, Mrs. R. Seeley and her two children, of Wilsonville, who returned to their home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Condit entertained the latter's brother Edward O. Worth as their week-end guest, Mr. Worth coming up from his home in Portland.

Mrs. G. A. Rockwell returned to her home the first of the week after spending several days at the house guest of Mrs. C. D. Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hixon have returned to their home in Albany, after visiting at the home of Mr. Hixon's parents in Salem.

Mrs. David Graham (Mildred Bagley) passed through Salem the first of the week on her way to Portland, where she will remain a month at the home of her sister, Mrs. Annie Cleveland, while her infant son William Bagley is under the care of a specialist.

Dudley Buck's "Coming of the King," was presented in Corvallis Sunday at the First Methodist church, with Miss Blanche Hammele, well known here, directing.

"Miss Hammel," says the Corvallis Gazette-Times, "is fortunate in having a large group of people who like to sing, can sing, and have given considerable time to preparing for the event. In addition she has a number of capable soloists including A. A. Schramm, with Mrs. Schramm at the piano."

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Jason Lee church will meet with Mrs. Thomas Acheson, at the parsonage this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. J. Gillespie will have charge of the devotions, and Miss Ellen Currin will give the lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smither (Helen Neugebauer) of Portland, are spending the holidays with relatives.

Miss Nell Stowell of Portland is a visitor in the city during the holidays.

Miss Lora Purvine has gone to Brownsville to be entertained as the house guest of Miss Lorena Fox, who has also as her guest Miss Florence Davis of Monmouth.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Rev. George E. Thies, pastor of Grace Lutheran church of Eugene to Miss Bertha Bristow, of Salem. The wedding will occur in the near future.

A wedding of considerable interest here took place in Portland last week, and was that of Miss Ruth McNary Smith, and Roy R. Clark. Both are graduates of O. A. C., and were prominent in all college activities during their years of attendance. Mrs. Clark was an instructor in the home economics, and later went to California, where she served as dietitian at Lane hospital, San Francisco. Mr. Clark is a prominent architect and engineer, and designed the O. A. C. stadium.

Miss Ruth Purvine, who has been identified in a secretarial way with the Cherry City mills, left Sunday for Falls City, where, on Monday she began her new duties as cashier of the bank of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Medler (Helen Rose) whose wedding was a recent event, are here from Wasco, to spend the holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Medler, Sunday they were entertained with a dinner by Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites.

The "Jolly Bunch," five hundred club was entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Nichols Saturday night, the next session of the club to be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair A. Fulmer of Bremerton, Wash., are spending the holidays in Salem visiting at the home of Mrs. Fulmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Duque of South Salem. Mrs. Fulmer will visit in Salem about a month before returning to Bremerton.

Mrs. J. W. Jones will entertain as their New Year's guests Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Palmer, who will come up from Eugene.

Mysterious Firebug Youth of 19 Years
UNIONTOWN, Pa., Dec. 27—

Albert Smith, aged 19, of Fairhope, entered pleas of guilty to 12 separate charges of arson before Alderman J. J. Michael today. County authorities said tonight that the youth probably would be arraigned in common pleas court here tomorrow, at which time it is expected the court will order an investigation as to his mental condition.

The 12 fires which Smith said he started, burned schools, churches, residences and barns in the Fayette county district.
