BY MOLLY BRUNK

A MOST welcome visitor in Salem is a former well known resident, Mrs. Ida Haas of Oakland, Cal., who arrived the latter part of last week and who will prolong her sojourn here for two months.

Mrs. Haas is a professional photographer in Oakland, where she has been located for a number of years.

Dr. O. A. Olson was the inspiration for a pleasant surprise Thursday evening, a group of his friends using his birthday anniversary as a pretext for an impromptu party at his residence.

Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knowland, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dato, Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mr. and Mrs. William Cravatt, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cantfield.

She was Fat

The 35-lb. girl in this picture gives you the idea how she looked. By taking Kismet (the famous dieting system) she reduced 20 lbs. in three months. Now she is a slim, attractive, mentally alert girl. In fact, she is a beauty. Write for Kismet today. It costs nothing. It is the only dieting system that is guaranteed to reduce 20 lbs. in three months. Write for Kismet today. It costs nothing. TWO SCREEN STARS PLAY WITH SKINNER

Rosemary Theby and Elinor Fair Are Chief Support of Actor in "Kismet."

"Kismet," Otis Skinner's remarkable stage success, and the one chosen by him to make his debut in motion pictures, is one of the most magnificent productions ever screened. It is a gorgeous spectacle, filled with fascinating harem girls and intensely dramatic action against a background of beautiful oriental splendor.

Mrs. E. E. Breckenridge is expected home today from Portland where she has been spending a week as the guest of friends.

Mrs. Roseco Neal of La Grande, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles E. Knowland, visited in Portland Tuesday.

A delightful Christmas party was the one given by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Remington and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Prescott, who entertained jointly, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. Remington Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. Remington of Centralia; Mr. and Mrs. William Stalger, Monroe Purvine, Loren Bazler, Roy Remington, Miss Pauline Remington and Fred and Leo Purvine.

Another interesting December wedding was that of Miss Edna Smith and Walter L. Lukins, which was celebrated Monday, December 20, in the parsonage of the Leslie Methodist church, Rev. H. N. Aldrich using the ring ceremony. Members of the family and a few close relatives witnessed the service.

The bride has been associated with the Falls City Lumber company for the past nine years, rising to the position in that time of assistant manager. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of the Garden Road, and has lived in Salem all her life.

Mr. Lukins is with the Hammond Lumber company, with the office at Kerry, Or. The young folk will make their home in the latter place following a honeymoon trip to Mr. Lukins' parents in Norton, Iowa, to which place they left after the ceremony.

Surrounded by their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Idington celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Christmas day at their home on Union street. Relatives came from various places to be in attendance, among them being Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Idding of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Idding of Sacramento, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Idding of Junction City, and Mr. and Mrs. George Wooster of Molalla; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jackson of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickson of Oregon City; Miss Edna Wooster, Miss Esther Wooster, George Jackson and Marlon Dickson. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe of Eugene, and Levi Wooster of Seaside.

The marriage of Miss Clara Winnifred Harper to Charles Marion Cady was solemnized last Sunday in the Leslie Methodist church, Rev. H. N. Aldrich officiating. Only immediate relatives were present. The young folk will make their home in Salem.

Miss Ulda Basler, a student of Oregon Agricultural college, has been entertained as the guest of Miss Pauline Remington during the holiday interim.

Miss Florence Elgin and Wayne Elgin are spending the week with relatives in Portland.

Miss Lillie Madsen, who has been in California for some time, returned home last Thursday. During her stay in California Miss Madsen visited at Santa Barbara, Salinas, Oakland, Berkeley and San Francisco.

Julius Stark, who has recently been in Canada, is visiting at the P. Jacobsen home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Moe went to Portland Friday to spend Christmas at the home of their daughters, Mrs. Hans Jensen.

Theodore Iversen is visiting at the home of his uncle, B. J. Suncof. Mr. Iversen has been employed on a boat which has its run between Portland and Coos Bay, but which is now under repairs at Portland.

Arnold Strand of Portland was in Silverton during the week-end. Miss Hilda Nerison and Jack Curtiss were married in Portland Saturday, December 25. Mrs. Curtiss is well known here, as Silverton had been her home until last spring. She was employed as teacher in the Silverton public schools for several years. Mr. Curtiss is an employe at a municipal terminal in Portland. They plan to make their home in Portland.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Drinnon, 822 Wasco street, Portland, a girl, on December 25. Mrs. Drinnon was Miss Emma Tweed before her marriage. She is a graduate of Silverton high school and is well known here.

HOW HE ENDED KIDNEY TROUBLE "I had a severe attack of kidney trouble and for three weeks could not get out of doors and scarcely out of bed," writes C. E. Brewer, Village Springs, Ala. "Could not bend over at all without the most excruciating pains. I purchased a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills. Was relieved after first few doses and continued their use until completely cured. I consider Foley Kidney Pills the best kidney remedy in the world. No recurrence of my trouble." Sold everywhere.

MEETING OF EDUCATORS

Supt. Churchill Preside at San Francisco Convention

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—Renewed and augmented support of the thrift and savings movement in the public schools of the west was denoted by the treasury department today by a meeting of superintendents of public instruction of states comprising the twelfth federal reserve bank district in conference with Governor John H. Calkins of the federal reserve bank.

The meeting also voted to call upon book publishers to include the subject of thrift in text books and recommended that normal schools devote attention to the subject.

Compulsory thrift courses in connection with the government thrift stamps also was recommended.

What You'll See In "KISMET"

"Kismet"—the tale of Hajj, the beggar, who dwelt in Bagdad in the first year of the reign of the Caliph Abdallah and begged upon the stone by the door of the Mosque of Carpenters, clad in filthy rags. It is a tale, wild, improbable, barbaric, romantic, full of childish simplicity and adult passions.
