THIRD GANGSTER
IS CONVICTED
Jury Finds Verdict in Six Minutes and More Trials to Follow

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.— James Carey, the third to be tried and convicted in a group of five alleged gangsters accused of criminal assaults on young girls here, was found guilty today a half hour before Edmond (Spud) Murphy, the first gangster to face a jury, was started for the state penitentiary at San Quentin to serve a sentence of from 1 to 5 years. Carey's sentencing was set for Monday, January 3.

Thomas Brady, the fourth accused gangster, will go to trial on Monday. He will be followed by Allen McDonnell.

The jury took but six minutes to convict Carey. Sixteen minutes were taken by the Murphy jury and 11 by the jury which convicted Edward Kurovsky, the second of the gangsters to be tried during the trial, as in the past sentence of from 1 to 5 years. Carey's sentencing was set for Monday, January 3.

Carey admitted driving Miss Jessie Montgomery of Reno, the complaining witness, and her companion, Miss Jean Stanley, formerly of Portland, Or., in an automobile from a cafe in the Mission district to a house nearby in which the attack took place.

He denied all participation in the attack, however, although positively identified by both girls. He took an active part in the trial apart from testifying in his own defense, consulting frequently with his attorney in regard to the questions to be asked jurors and witnesses. He received the verdict without visible sign of emotion. Special police guards were stationed in and around the court room during the trial, as in the trials of the other two gangsters.

This precaution was taken as a result of the killing of three peace officers in Santa Rosa by George Poys, one of the alleged gangsters, and the lynching of Boyd and his two supposed accomplices, Terence Pitts and Charles Val-ento.

ADMIRAL BAYLY COMING
Two flotillas of United States destroyers were speeding out into the Pacific tonight to welcome and escort to the United States, Admiral Sir Lewis Bayly, joint commander with Admiral William S. Sims of the British and United States fleets off the coast of Ireland during the world war.

Admiral Bayly is a passenger on the Pacific Mail Steamship Ecuador which is due here tomorrow from Honolulu. The American destroyers will convoy the Ecuador into port.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Industrial conditions in the United States and the need of labor laws for the protection of workers were discussed by speakers at the dinner tonight of the American Association of Labor legislation, which opened its 11th annual meeting today.

Rev. John A. Ryan, professor of industrial ethics of the Catholic University of America at Washington, D. C., and Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue, New York city, and Whit-ting Williams, formerly vice president of the Hydraulic Pressed Steel company, were among the speakers.

Plans to urge immediate passage by congress of a bill extending the workmen's compensation act to provide accident insurance to longshoremen and sailors were discussed this afternoon. Officers of longshoremen's and seamen's unions spoke.

Speaking on "state intervention versus industrial autocracy" tonight, Rev. Ryan declared the "trade unions must fight as hard as they know how against the attempt to destroy them and all friends of justice must redouble their efforts to improve conditions by employment by legislation." The "one means" which, he said, will suffice for this purpose is a "considerable measure of individual ownership by the workers of the tools of production through co-operative organizations."

"If labor organizations," he added, "could obtain for the working man all the protection and benefits that they need, industrial legislation would be unnecessary and undesirable. It is better that men should do things for themselves than that the state should do things for them. But we know from abundant experience that labor unions of the United States are not able to effect the reform in industrial conditions which are urgently demanded. Therefore, we must have recourse to the state. Industrial autocracy, however, holds that neither labor unions nor legislation is necessary. This means a benevolent feudalism which is impossible in this democratic age."

Mr. Williams, who spent several months with mill workers in this country and England, urged establishment of national-state employment bureaus. Radicalism, he said, was found in greater proportions among laborers in England than in the United States, although British labor participated in few unauthorized strikes.

Goodyear Tire Co.
Announce Deficit
AKRON, O., Dec. 29.—The Goodyear Tire and Rubber company today announced a deficit for the fiscal year ending October 31 of $15,617,633, not including anticipated losses on contractual obligations for rubber and fabrics, which are expected to be approximately $19,000,000, notwithstanding that sales exceeded $299,000,000, the largest in the history of the company.

The statement was announced at a stockholders' meeting adjourned last Friday and again adjourned until January 12, because the financing plans were not ready to be presented.

The statement shows assets totalling $153,076,820. The company has bills payable of $23,372, $12 and accounts payable $12, $11,168, including estimated taxes. Rubber and fabric accountances are listed at $4,388,680.
Reserve for contingencies is $1, 176,575.

Confidence was expressed at today's meeting of the ability of President Seiberling to satisfactorily put through the reorganizing program within the next two weeks. No announcement of the preferred dividend will be until tomorrow, according to L. C.
Reokhill, a director.

NOT AIDING PROFITEER
The third grade was studying multiplication and some of the children were having trouble with the tables. One boy was having especially hard times, so his folks were helping him at home. One night they were questioning him, and his sister said: "Birch, if you were to go down to the store to buy nine apples and the grocer told you they were seven cents apiece, what would you say?"

Birch answered immediately:
"I'd say 'nothin' doin'.' I won't pay it."—Indianapolis News.

BIG JOB FOR ONE HEN
An American agriculturist visiting in England was telling tall tales of big broods of chickens.
Twenty chickens from twelve eggs appeared to be an everyday occurrence in the states. If the stories he told were true.
