

SOCIETY

BY MOLLY BRUNK

THE college set will claim the week-end stage with the large dancing party to be given by Miss Ruth Barnes in Moose Hall this evening standing out as of paramount importance. The affair promises to be one of the smartest contributions for the younger set in a long time, and will call nearly 175 maids and men together.

Tomorrow afternoon Miss Martha Powell is entertaining with a large tea at the residence of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Powell, for the pleasure of Miss Barnes, who is here from the University of Washington, and also for Miss Hilda Tillinghast, who is a University of Oregon student. The hours will be from three to five o'clock, about 60 invitations being issued for the affair.

St. Monica's Altar society is entertaining with a card and watch party tonight in the Knights of Columbus hall.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Prunk are removing from 1120 South Commercial street to a residence on Saginaw street.

One of the jolliest affairs that marked the Christmas week-end was the "Kid party," given by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson Saturday night, when a group of their close friends were issued invitations, with instructions to come garbed as growing-ups, and be prepared to enjoy a program of entertainment suitable to the occasion.

A large decorated Christmas tree was the center of interest, with gifts for each, the distribution of which proved one of the merriest details on the list of diversions. Five hundred was enjoyed during the evening, and a beautifully appointed supper was served. A miniature Christmas tree was used as a centerpiece, and red candles lighted the board. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Claire Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Roma Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Bevier, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Patton and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo S. White and son Robert returned the first of the week from Morrow, eastern Oregon, where they spent a fortnight with Mrs. White's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wygant, who have recently come here from Klamath Falls, have taken apartments at 715 North Commercial street.

Mrs. Ray L. Farmer will be hostess this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to the children of the primary department of the First Methodist church, entertaining with the annual Christmas party. The mothers of the small folk will also be invited, and they will assist in the serving.

A program will be given, games enjoyed, the refreshments following. The assistants will be Miss Ola Clark, Miss Esther Paroungian and Miss Mary Spaulding.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowersox returned the first of the week from Silverton where they spent Christmas and the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clark are home from Hood River, where they spent Christmas and several days with their daughter, Mrs. W. H. East.

Friends here of Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Warrell are much concerned over the illness of their infant son, who is being cared for at the baby hospital in Portland, Mrs. Warrell remaining in Portland during the time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Irish and their two sons of Silverton have returned to their home after being entertained as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Dayton and daughter Barbara of Astoria have been visiting over the Christmas holiday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lewis. Mr. Dayton being a brother of Mrs. Lewis. Mr. Dayton returned to his home Monday, Mrs. Dayton and Barbara remaining over until Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Klein was a hostess Wednesday afternoon entertaining a few friends at bridge.

Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, Mrs. E. T. Adair, and Adair Lockwood returned from a several day's visit with friends in Portland, Wednesday night. They were accompanied home by Miss Geraldine Ruch, an instructor in the Ashland schools, who had been the guest of friends in Portland over Christmas.

Mrs. William B. Mott has returned from Portland, where she went to spend Christmas and several days following with her sister.

Miss Mabel Page is in Seattle, where she went before Christmas to spend the holidays with Miss Irma Brown, a former Salem girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Durbin have disposed of their residence at the corner of Capital and Market streets, and have gone to Portland, where they will make their home. They left the first of the week.

Miss Nona Vandevort arrived the first of the week from Vancouver, Wash., where she is an instructor in the schools, and is spending her vacation with her cousins Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort.

The Vandevorts were hosts at a delightful week-end house party, entertaining a group of relatives as guests. They gave a large Christmas dinner Saturday night, the table being attractively appointed and centered with poinsettias. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Sheeler and their children, Irene and Elmer, of Strom, Alberta, Canada; Miss May Frederick of Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Caspell and daughter Lucille, of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Whitney and daughter Ruth Elva of Polk county; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winslow and children, Gertrude and Norman; Mr. and Mrs. Vandevort and Miss Jeannette Vandevort.

Miss Louise Williamson of Medford has been a much appreciated visitor in Salem this week. She is identified with the Cooperative Fruit Growers' association, and is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet have returned home from Portland, where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Goulet's sister, Mrs. Hugh Williamson, according to an annual custom. Their mother came down from Seattle to join them.

Carle Abrams and his young son Robert left last night for Roseburg where they will remain until after New Year's with Mr. Abrams' mother and sister Mrs. T. E. Abrams and Miss Letitia Abrams.

Mrs. M. E. Gilman, and her sister Mrs. E. D. Lloyd were joined in reunion over the Christmas week-end by Mr. and Mrs. G. Pugh and their children of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hunt and their daughter Miss Helen Hunt have returned to town after spending about a fortnight with Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's sons at their country home in the Waldo hills.

Never before has the Salem armory presented so attractive an appearance as it does today—in readiness for the big Company M ball tonight. Sergeant Harry Plant assisted by a corps of workers, has transformed the big interior into a Yuletide wonderland with the employment of myriads of fir trees of every size. Over a carload has been used in fact, and these have been used to form a solid bank around the four sides, a bank of greenery overhead and an effective screen around the orchestra platform in the center of the floor. One large tree scintillates with its decorations, and a hundred flags give the necessary patriotic touch. Heading a general committee in charge is Second Lieutenant L. R. Burdette.

A number of watch parties formed for tonight will spend the earlier part of the evening in dancing at this affair, later to repair to homes of the hosts to see the new year in, and there is a still larger list that plans to spend the passing year at the dance, men of the company to furnish serpentine, horns and similar material for the festivities.

E. T. Barnes left Wednesday for Cambridge, Mass., where he is taking a special course in astronomy and the sciences. He has been enjoying the holiday interim with his family in Salem, his brief vacation at Easter time to be spent in journeying through Maine.

Studies will be over at Harvard June 23, and from then until the latter part of July, Mr. Barnes will travel through various parts of the east, principal objectives to be New York city, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

A judge and General and Mrs. George A. White left last night for Portland, where they were to spend the day with friends. Coming home they will stop off in Aurora, where they will join Mrs. White's family in their annual reunion festivities on New Year's eve. The gathering will take place at the home of Mrs. J. F. Vandeleur, an aunt of Mrs. White.

Mrs. R. L. White and Mrs. Horace Sykes, accompanied by a group of the former's dancing pupils went to Silverton yesterday where they were to appear before Mrs. White's newly organized class in that place.

Mrs. William H. Steusloff will be at home to the members of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church this afternoon, a group of women serving as assistant hostesses with her.

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN

Broken Out Skin and Itching Eczema Helped Over Night

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment, declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Mentho-Sulphur and improvement shows next day.

Because of its germ destroying properties nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mentho-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

They will be Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. Charles Whitmore and Mrs. J. C. McLeod. A short program will be given and the regular routine followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardee Wallace entertained at their guest over the Christmas week-end, Chester Wallace of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McCroskey went to Portland during the mid-week where they are spending several days with friends.

COAST BROKER DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Adolph Ottinger, millionaire ticket broker and former official of a large Pacific coastwise steamship company, died from heart failure yesterday while on a pleasure trip at his old home in Munich, Bavaria, according to a cablegram received today by the widow. Ottinger came to California 30 years ago. He is survived by a son, daughter and widow. Prior to 1919 he maintained a string of 50 ticket offices in the principal cities of the country. He was 65 years old.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS SPLIT

TOURS, France, Dec. 30.—The French Socialist party tonight by a large majority voted in favor of absolute affiliation with the Moscow Internationale.

A motion by the left wing to join the third internationale, absolutely, was given 2,098 votes, while another motion, introduced by Deputy Jean Longuet, of the centrist section, requesting the congress to state unequivocally whether it would recognize the barring of Longuet and his followers from the international, received 1,022 votes. There were 357 absences from voting. Late tonight, after efforts had been made to keep the organization intact, the Socialist party arrived at a split into what may prove three sections.
