

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Knights' Temple Attention—Assembly at Masonic temple at 1:15 to form an escort for the funeral of the late Sir Knight John H. Albert. W. T. DAVIS, Recorder.

Pacific Lodge No. 50, A. F. & A. M., special meeting at Masonic temple, 1:30 p. m. today, to conduct the funeral of W. J. White. Officers and members are requested to attend.

Bonds May be Voted—The Swamp Creek irrigating district, near Enterprise, has filed with the state engineering department an application for approval of its plans. It covers 2000 acres, and proposes to cost $100,000 in bonds, and if approved, will take its water supply from Wallwa river and Wallwa reservoir.

J. R. Pennington Dead—John R. Pennington, 67 years old, died Friday at his home, three miles east of Salem, at 11:45 p. m. Mr. Pennington was farmer and had lived in this vicinity for about eight years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sadie Pennington, one daughter, Glenna Pennington, and two sisters, Mrs. Easterly of Lewiston, Mont., and a Mrs. Robertson of San Bernardino, Cal. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. today at the Webb & Clough chapel. Mr. Pennington was a member of the Elks lodge at Hellgate, Mont., and the Salem Elks will conduct the funeral. Interment will be in the Elk circle at City View cemetery.

New Candidate Mentioned—A new name in the field as a candidate for state highway commissioner to succeed the late E. F. Kiddle is W. B. Barratt of Heppner. An endorsement of Mr. Barratt was received yesterday at the office of Governor Oicott.

Forest Board Called—F. A. Elliott, state forester, has called a meeting of the state board of forestry, which will be held in Salem on Saturday, January 8. General subjects will be discussed.

Confederate Film Files—Articles of incorporation have been filed at the office of T. B. Handler, state corporation commissioner, by the Fruit Confectionery company of Portland, Or., main offices of which are in Portland. The capitalization is Salem School of Expression Lulu Hammond Walton, Director 147 N. Commercial Phone 592-1484J Closes Dec. 24—re-opens Jan. 3.

SALEM CLEANERS AND DYERS Repairing and Alterations 1215 S. Com'l St. Phone 1848

SALES AND SERVICE VALLEY MOTOR CO. Planting Time Secure Reliable Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Small Fruits, Roses, etc.

WOODRY conducts sales anywhere in Marion or Polk counties. Store located 270 N. Com'l. AUCTIONEER

JCPenney Co. Better Goods for Less HIGHEST PRICE PAID For SECOND HAND FURNITURE Stoves, Carpets and Tools Capital Hardware & Furniture Co. 285 N. Commercial St. Phone 947

WOOD WOOD Call G. H. Tracy Wood Co. for all kinds of wood. Prompt delivery. Phone 520

ELECTRIC MACHINE & ENGINEERING CO. For Ther Washing Machines and Electric Work and Supplies. 237 Court St. Phone 488

HARTMAN BROS. CO. For Fine Jewelry Jewelers and Opticians

"WALLFELT" Takes the place of cloth at about one-third MAX O. BUREN 179 N. Commercial St.

OREGON BATH HOUSE Open 3 a. m. until 9 p. m. Lady and Gentlemen attendants

Luggage and Trunks ALL REDUCED

MAX O. BUREN All New and Desirable MAX O. BUREN

MAX O. BUREN 179 N. Commercial St. Salem

At the three morning services of the Catholic church Sunday, (Continued) Daughters of Isabella and Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will be stationed at the church entrance to take up the collection for the starving children of Europe. Arrangements have been made with F. G. Deekebach, Marion county's chairman of the drive, to accept the offering on this day as a more convenient time for all the committees to be in attendance.

Men and Women of Salem—You are invited to attend Open House, New Year's day at the Y. M. C. A. Reception for visitors, 2 to 10 p. m. Program and refreshments 8 to 10 p. m. The boys and men will be glad to see you. (Adv.)

Simpson Injured—C. H. Simpson was picked up in an unconscious condition last night as a result of an accident in which he was knocked off his bicycle by a passing automobile driven by H. J. Krenz, 1719 Court street. He was taken to the Willamette sanitarium where he soon rallied and later taken to his home. He sustained bruises about the head and was badly stoned by the impact, but it is not thought that his injuries are of a serious nature.

County Officers Call—Judge Nichols and the newly elected assessor of Yamhill county, Mr. Bunnink, were called yesterday at the office of County Assessor West.

Eugene T. Prescott Will Give—Salmon favorable eggs to yellow parties to incubate and will buy stock back. Literature and particulars on application. Phone 1937-J, or address, Salem, Or. (Adv.)

Home From Coast—Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves and daughter, Miss Muriel Steeves, returned yesterday from a week's outing at their summer cottage at Seaside. They report that the recent account given the press regarding the flood tide reaching down Main street during the storm last week is false. While the wind was unusually strong the water did not come up on Main street at all.

1921 Calendars—Homer H. Smith, insurance, McCornack bldg., free. (Adv.)

Both Autos Damaged—Two automobiles collided yesterday in front of the Valley Motor garage, when an automobile driven by W. R. Landers of route 2, Gervais, is reported to have turned suddenly, while traveling south on High street, colliding with Vera Otjen of route 7. Both automobiles were considerably damaged, but no one was injured.

Fathers and Mothers of Salem!—You are invited to attend the Open House at the Y. M. C. A. New Year's day 2 to 10 p. m. Games, gym exercises, swimming races, stunts by the boys. You will enjoy it. Plan to attend. (Adv.)

Many New Year Weddings—A number of marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the county clerk's office. The majority of the weddings will be solemnized today. They were Olive Heiser and S. C. Wane of Gervais; Emily Sammons of Salem and Fred Adolph Meissner of Summit; Hilda Williamson of Salem and William Hawkins of Brooks; Norma L. Carroll of Salem and Walter A. Grossbacher of Portland.

First Popular Concert—Salem Symphony orchestra, armory, Sunday, Jan. 2, at 3 p. m. All seats 50c. (Ad.)

Bank Brings Suit—A complaint was filed yesterday in the circuit court by the First State bank of Donald against F. E. Osborne to force payment on a note. Judgment is asked for the sum of $590.50 and $75 attorney's fees.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application. (Ad)

Case Dismissed—The case of William Brown against Johnson-Inman & Brown has been dismissed in the circuit court, according to an order filed yesterday.

Final Accounts Filed—Final accounts of the estates of Jonathan G. Reigman, deceased, Edward Uppendahl, deceased, and William Morgan, deceased, were filed yesterday in the county court. The hearings of objections of all three accounts were set for February 7.

Policeman's Funeral Today—The funeral of Weston J. (Jack) White, member of the Salem police department who died suddenly Thursday night, will be held at 1 o'clock p. m. today at the Rigdon chapel. Members of the police department and Percy M. Varney, state parole officer, will be pallbearers. Rev. H. N. Aldrich of Leslie Methodist church will preach the funeral sermon and interment will be in City View cemetery.

Here is Your Chance—To start a course in the new classes at the Capital Business college. Call and arrange for the course you've been planning to take. (Adv.)

Armstrong Funeral Today—The funeral of Mrs. Ann Renne Armstrong will be held at 11 o'clock a. m. today at the Rigdon chapel. Rev. James Elvin will conduct the service and interment will be in City View cemetery.

"In Excelsis"—The beautiful Christmas cantata, given at the First Congregational church last Sunday, will be repeated at the request of many who heard it. This Sunday

At 7:30 p. m. will be the time to hear it. (Adv.)

Church Meeting Today—A basket dinner will be served and annual reports heard at the First Christian church today in celebration of New Year day. The dinner will be spread at the noon hour. In the afternoon officers of the church will be elected and reports heard from the several church societies. The pastor, Rev. J. J. Evans, will give a brief talk relative to the future work of his congregation.

Magazine Club Rate—The Acc, 127 N. High. (Adv.)

Two Inmates Escape—Charles Isom and Samuel Somelner, inmates of the state hospital for the insane, escaped from that institution late yesterday. They got away from the dining room where they were employed. Both were committed from Portland.

Attention, B. P. O. E.—Meet at club rooms at 9:45 a. m. to attend in a body the funeral of Bro. J. R. Pennington, at Webb & Clough chapel. (Adv.)

Golden Wedding Celebrated—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Spencer of Bellingham, Wash., celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday with a reunion at the home of Mrs. Sarah Robison near Rickreall, Polk county. They are pioneers of Yamhill county. Among those who attended last night was T. B. Handley, state corporation commissioner, who is a nephew.

One Fatality Reported—One fatal accident out of a total of 329 industrial casualties were reported to the state industrial accident commission for the week ending December 30. The fatal case was that of Jim Rimbey, a logger of Elgin. Of the total number of accidents reported 298 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, 20 were from firms and corporations that have refused the act and two were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

Rates Increased—The public service commission yesterday issued an order allowing the Malheur Home Telephone company to increase its rates for service. The system is centered at Ontario and has about 860 subscribers, in addition to those on farmer-owned lines. The order is effective today.

Harry Hampton of Kenniwick, Wash., arrived Friday to spend the week-end with his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Ellis. He is a former employe of the Statesman.

Glenn Maurer who has been spending his Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Maurer, has returned to Wasco.

Miss Ruth Wallace, deputy county clerk, is spending New Year's day visiting with friends in Corvallis.

Percy A. Copper, state engineer, was in Portland yesterday on official business.

W. D. McMillan of La Grande, secretary of the state board of dental examiners, and P. W. Hollister of Portland, were in the city yesterday conferring with state officials relative to the work of the board.

Paul Hauser of the Hauser sporting goods store, was a Portland visitor yesterday.

Read the Classified Ads.

ALL-DAY FETE AT Y. M. C. A.

Something Doing From Morning Until Night by Association Classes

Everything is ready for the big New Year celebration to be observed at the Y. M. C. A. today. For several days groups of boys have been busy decorating the rooms for this occasion. The celebration will be an all-day affair, lasting from morning till night.

At 10 o'clock a. m. the hare and hound chase will be pulled off. The hares will start dropping the trail of paper, and soon afterward the hounds will start following the trail. This is open to all members of the association.

At 11 o'clock there will be a mile race open to members of the association. At noon a luncheon will be given to all who participated in these races. The luncheon will be in charge of Mrs. James Elvin.

The activities for the afternoon will be held in the "Y" building. Parents of members, visitors and friends are invited from 2 o'clock until 10 p. m.

At 2:30 the preps meet the beginners in group games. Following the cadet class will give a waid drill, and there will be an indoor baseball game. Following this the Cougar club of the intermediate class will meet the Beaver club of the senior class in a basketball game.

The business-men's class participates in a calisthenics drill and volleyball game. At 4 o'clock all the classes will take part in a swimming meet. During the afternoon music will be furnished by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra. The early part of the evening until 8:15 will be given over to the boys' department.

Stunts will be put on by the various clubs of the boys' department at this time. Beginning promptly at 8:15, the following

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL GERTRUDE J. M. PAGE

TO DAY BILLY HIGH THEATRE Four Dandy Vaudeville Acts Continuous Show All New Show Sunday

program will be given: Piano solo, Ronette Lewis; duet, Flora McIntyre and Fred McGrew; reading, "Grandma," by Mrs. C. I. Lewis; selection, Presbyterian church quartet; bass solo, George Rodgers; solo, Miss Gertrude Aldrich; reading, Mrs. H. W. Street; solo, Miss Ada Miller; duet, violin and piano, Don-

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS We Wish You a Happy New Year MULL & HENDERSON Dressmaking and Hemstitching over Miller's store Phone 117

We wish all of our friends and customers a happy and prosperous New Year HULL'S TOP SHOP

We Wish Everybody A Happy And Successful New Year MILLER'S Good Goods

What Is Your New Year Resolution for 1921?

HERE IS A SUGGESTION Adopt Our Pay As You Go Plan Save part of your income Buy what you need only PAY AS YOU GO

Legitimate debts—investing in a home—buying something that you can use as an asset—the banks will loan money on; adopt this plan and you will find Old Man worry was left back in 1920.

Wishing You a Happy and Prosperous New Year for 1921

We remain sincerely U. G. SHIB

