

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

young lady and Pearl Kapphan was an Indian Maid.

Prizes were given for the best couples representing the various years, the award for the first year going to Robert Bishop and Bertha Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet are entertaining as their week-end house guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson and their daughter Mildred.

Having the distinction of being the first large social affair for the year of 1921, was the tea which Miss Martha Powell gave yesterday afternoon.

Those bidden to this charming affair were: Mrs. H. H. Latta, Hilda Tillinghast, Ruth Ross, Leah Ross, Lucille Moore, Ruth Griffith, Margaret Griffith, Lenta Baumgartner, Josephine Baumgartner, Dorothy Patterson, Ruth Peck, Letha Kuhn, Evangeline Moore, Ruth Kuhn, Edna Kuhn, Edna Kuhn, Edna Kuhn, Edna Kuhn.

Decorations were in the club colors of purple and white. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lemmon.

Guests bidden were: Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Percy Holt, Miss Ada Miller, Miss Eva Scott, Miss Irma Bottsford, Miss Ola Clarke, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mrs. Louise Robertson, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Ada Ross and Miss Eva Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Starnes and son Donald, of Cheyenne, Wyo., left this week for their home after spending Christmas week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Thompson.

Guests bidden were: Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Percy Holt, Miss Ada Miller, Miss Eva Scott, Miss Irma Bottsford, Miss Ola Clarke, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mrs. Louise Robertson, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Ada Ross and Miss Eva Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shipley and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Law and their young son Robert, left yesterday for Portland, where they were to be the guests of Mrs. Law's parents.

On account of numerous requests from those in attendance last Sunday evening, the choir of the First Congregational church will repeat the rendition of the beautiful Christmas cantata, "In Excelsis," by J. Lincoln Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., went to Portland Friday to remain over the week-end with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buchtel returned during the week-end from Portland, where they spent the Christmas and week-end with relatives.

Jack Lucker, a student of the U. of W. home for the holidays, entertained with a stag dinner on Sunday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lucker.

His guests were: Loren Basler, Wolcott Buron, Kenneth Power, John Meidler, Ralph Barnes, Robert in Fisher, Fred McGraw, Noble Moodie and Edward Socolofsky.

Miss Gertrude West leaves today for Seattle, where she is to be entertained for a week as the house guest of Prof. and Mrs. Guy Lowman, later entering the University of Washington.

White music conservatory in Portland.

Miss Alderman besides is a composer, whose work is rapidly coming to the fore.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burghardt Jr. returned the first of the week from Portland and Oregon City where they went to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petri, prominent musicians of Portland have been spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Rutkyn Turner at their residence at the training school at Chemawa, the latter having charge of music there.

Miss Grace Bean was a last-of-the-week visitor in Portland, going down Thursday.

Mr. N. C. Briggs and little son Frank, of Hollister, Cal., who have been visiting Mrs. Briggs' parents, Judge and Mrs. Henry L. Benson, left Friday for Portland where they will be the guests of friends, later going on to Pendleton. They will return to Salem the latter part of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding accompanied by the latter's sisters, Misses Lulu and Mary Miller, and Franklin Launer, left yesterday for Corvallis to spend the week-end with Mrs. Spaulding's mother, Mrs. Nora Gard Miller.

Accompanying them home will be another sister of Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Forrest N. Gist, of Tillamook.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Miller are spending New Year's day with friends in Olympia, Wash.

The second annual holiday dance to be given by the Sphinx club, composed of a group of high school graduates, was held in Moose hall Thursday night.

Decorations were in the club colors of purple and white. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lemmon.

Guests bidden were: Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Percy Holt, Miss Ada Miller, Miss Eva Scott, Miss Irma Bottsford, Miss Ola Clarke, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mrs. Louise Robertson, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Ada Ross and Miss Eva Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Starnes and son Donald, of Cheyenne, Wyo., left this week for their home after spending Christmas week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Thompson.

Guests bidden were: Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Percy Holt, Miss Ada Miller, Miss Eva Scott, Miss Irma Bottsford, Miss Ola Clarke, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mrs. Louise Robertson, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Ada Ross and Miss Eva Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shipley and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Law and their young son Robert, left yesterday for Portland, where they were to be the guests of Mrs. Law's parents.

On account of numerous requests from those in attendance last Sunday evening, the choir of the First Congregational church will repeat the rendition of the beautiful Christmas cantata, "In Excelsis," by J. Lincoln Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

ces Martin, Margaret Steiner, Florence Power, Helen Williamson, Virginia Sissons, Margaret Cory, Benetta Edwards, Dalbert Jessen, Arthur Fisher, William Sisson, Harold Olinger, John Muro, Ronald Cranson, Donald Allison, Eibert Lachele, Mary McKinnon, Janet McKinnon, Priscilla Fry, Pauline Knowland, Ninta Kirk, Ollie Barnard, Margaret Bretenstein, Roveva Eyre, Ruth Buckner, Kath Hartley, Alta Warme, Winfred Gaubie, Pauline Marmarch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop were joined Friday by Mrs. Bishop's sister, Mrs. C. P. Roberts and daughter Emma Jean, of Hood River, who will remain several days.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., went to Portland Friday to remain over the week-end with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buchtel returned during the week-end from Portland, where they spent the Christmas and week-end with relatives.

Jack Lucker, a student of the U. of W. home for the holidays, entertained with a stag dinner on Sunday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lucker.

His guests were: Loren Basler, Wolcott Buron, Kenneth Power, John Meidler, Ralph Barnes, Robert in Fisher, Fred McGraw, Noble Moodie and Edward Socolofsky.

Miss Gertrude West leaves today for Seattle, where she is to be entertained for a week as the house guest of Prof. and Mrs. Guy Lowman, later entering the University of Washington.

Accompanying them home will be another sister of Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Forrest N. Gist, of Tillamook.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Miller are spending New Year's day with friends in Olympia, Wash.

The second annual holiday dance to be given by the Sphinx club, composed of a group of high school graduates, was held in Moose hall Thursday night.

Decorations were in the club colors of purple and white. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lemmon.

Guests bidden were: Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Percy Holt, Miss Ada Miller, Miss Eva Scott, Miss Irma Bottsford, Miss Ola Clarke, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mrs. Louise Robertson, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Ada Ross and Miss Eva Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Starnes and son Donald, of Cheyenne, Wyo., left this week for their home after spending Christmas week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Thompson.

Guests bidden were: Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Percy Holt, Miss Ada Miller, Miss Eva Scott, Miss Irma Bottsford, Miss Ola Clarke, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mrs. Louise Robertson, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Ada Ross and Miss Eva Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shipley and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Law and their young son Robert, left yesterday for Portland, where they were to be the guests of Mrs. Law's parents.

On account of numerous requests from those in attendance last Sunday evening, the choir of the First Congregational church will repeat the rendition of the beautiful Christmas cantata, "In Excelsis," by J. Lincoln Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

CELEBRATED VIOLINIST TO PLAY HERE

KATHLEEN PARLOW the greatest living woman violinist, who will be heard at the Armory in February, as an offering by the Salem Musical Bureau. Miss Parlow will be the second artist presented on the course.

Lillian Hartsorn at the organ and Miss Ruth Bedford at the piano. Of a quaint and unusual character among compositions of sacred music, the cantata, as sung by the choir, evoked much pleasing comment and was attentively listened to by a well-filled auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves and daughter Muriel returned Friday from Seaside where they enjoyed a mid-winter outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. McCallister will go to Portland Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week and the week-end with relatives.

Mrs. Harry Styles entertained as her guest over the Christmas week-end Mrs. Wallace Read of Portland.

Robin Fisher was another masculine host of the week, entertaining with a stag party Wednesday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fisher.

Whitney Blake of Portland is a holiday guest at the R. P. Boise residence.

Mrs. John E. Brophy was a New Year dinner hostess, entertaining with eight covers. Yuletide candles were used for table ornaments.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts had with them this week their son Irving Roberts, Harry Nettleton, Rodney Healey, members of the Wakenah club, of O. A. C.

Members of Mrs. R. L. White's Wednesday night dancing class enjoyed their annual holiday party in Moose hall Wednesday night.

On account of numerous requests from those in attendance last Sunday evening, the choir of the First Congregational church will repeat the rendition of the beautiful Christmas cantata, "In Excelsis," by J. Lincoln Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Kaerth, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kapphan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Looze, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. L. Misher, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McElvain, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marmarch.

Mrs. Dorothy Chambers was a charming hostess Thursday night, entertaining with an evening of cards, complimentary to her sister, Miss Rachel Chambers, who has been spending two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Chambers, and who is leaving next Thursday for Roeding, Pa.

Mrs. R. L. Matthews went to Portland the last of the week to remain over the week-end with friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Fehgra of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. W. Kirkland of Independence were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Riggs Saturday.

Miss Ellen Furrup of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Margaret Turner, Kato, Wash., who have been entertained by their sorority sister, Miss Helen Moore, have returned to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Blies Darby returned Friday night from Portland, where they spent several days with friends.

Miss Carol Dibble, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, is returning to Seattle Monday where she will resume her studies at the Cornish school of music.

The social hour at the meeting of the Daughters of Isabella was a most interesting and enjoyable one.

It was a jolly Christmas gathering that took of "The King of Birds" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Dennison.

The afternoon was given over to music and readings. Mrs. Carl Williams gave many appropriate selections.

Mrs. Samuel Butler was a hostess Thursday afternoon, entertaining for the pleasure of Miss Nellie Clark of Bremerton, Wash.

There are those among Salem's music devotees to whom Cecil Fanning's name and voice are both unfamiliar.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer and their sons Robert and Ernest are spending the week-end with Mrs. Hofer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dent in Portland.

Mrs. B. P. Taylor and daughter Marjorie, of 1437 Center street, are spending the holidays with Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Arthur Brown of Stockton, Cal.

Mrs. T. G. Hopkins, who has been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. George G. Pearce, will go to Corvallis today, where she will serve as house mother for the Alpha Phi Delta sorority.

Interesting visitors in Salem during the past week were the Misses Marie and Gertrude Campbell of Portland, who visited at the homes of friends for several days.

respect. Perhaps today they would not enthrone so over songs in English, nor find it so gratifying to the Teutonic ear, but in 1913 the Berlin Allgemeine Musikzeitung found it "a revelation to hear how beautiful English can sound when it is sung as picturesquely as Mr. Fanning sang."

When Mr. Fanning sings negro spirituals it is hard to believe that he does not ball from the south, on a reproduction with the same fidelity the subject of the southern darkey. Last June in a brief program which he sang at the American embassy in London, following a dinner given in honor of the king and queen, it was the typically American negro spiritual which pleased the royal guests most.

Although seriously handicapped at the opening of the season with the loss of John W. Todd, who has been director of the Apollo club since its inception three years ago, constant drilling and close application by the club for several months past, has overcome the seeming catastrophe, and it is promised that the program for the concert on January 11, under the direction of Horace N. Aldrich, will in fact measure up to the high standard of excellence to which the club had attained at the close of last season, both in rendition and choice of selections.

It is said that the associate membership list is rapidly assuming the proportions of former seasons, and that the usual invitations will be sent out within the next few days.

Miss Meryle Whitney returned yesterday from ten days' visit in Portland, and this afternoon will go to Corvallis, where she resumes her studies at O. A. C.

The fourth number of the Salem Lyceum course will be the DeMille quartet which comes to the Armory January 7th.

Each member of the quartet appears as a soloist, presenting the best the ancient and modern composers have produced.

The accompanist, Miss Hilda Buckingham, is a distinct artist in her own right, whose work is marked by unaccustomed brilliancy and power.

The afternoon was given over to music and readings. Mrs. Carl Williams gave many appropriate selections.

Mrs. Samuel Butler was a hostess Thursday afternoon, entertaining for the pleasure of Miss Nellie Clark of Bremerton, Wash.

There are those among Salem's music devotees to whom Cecil Fanning's name and voice are both unfamiliar.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer and their sons Robert and Ernest are spending the week-end with Mrs. Hofer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dent in Portland.

Mrs. B. P. Taylor and daughter Marjorie, of 1437 Center street, are spending the holidays with Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Arthur Brown of Stockton, Cal.

Mrs. T. G. Hopkins, who has been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. George G. Pearce, will go to Corvallis today, where she will serve as house mother for the Alpha Phi Delta sorority.

Interesting visitors in Salem during the past week were the Misses Marie and Gertrude Campbell of Portland, who visited at the homes of friends for several days.

Even the German critics, for Mr. Fanning gave recitals in Berlin before the war, found that he was extraordinarily gifted in this street. Covers were laid for Miss Marie Campbell, Miss Gertrude Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Nason, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jaskowski, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jaskowski, Miss Josephine Jaskowski and the hostess.

The Misses Campbell will leave this morning for Portland, Miss Gertrude going on to Seattle, where she is a student at the University of Washington.

Claybourne Walker arrived from Newport Thursday, and is here for a week's visit to his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer.

A charming visitor in the city this week was Miss Louise Williamson, of Medford, who is officially identified with the Corporate Fruit Growers Association.

During her stay Miss Williamson was entertained by Mrs. C. F. Chambers, who was a college friend of the visitor during their stay at O. A. C.

The list included: Mrs. Robert Shinn, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert, Miss Amelia Babcock, and Mrs. Gertrude Walling, Miss Ida Spaulding, Miss Grace Humphreys, Miss Grace Holt, Miss Dorothy Steinfeld, and Miss Mammie Victor.

The piano pupils of Mrs. Julia M. Weigel gave a recital at her home on South Church street Tuesday afternoon, which was enjoyed by a large number of parents and friends.

Christmas Bells... Evelyn Hale... Fairy Waltz... Velma Simpkins... Artists Life... Irene Kenscher... Cathedral Chimes... Helen Lewis... Duet... The "Sleigh Ride"...

Unimpeachable - If you were to see the unequalled volume of unimpeachable testimony in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, you would upbraid yourself for so long delaying to take this effective medicine for that blood disease from which you are suffering.

"So you have twins at your house, Johnny?" "Yes'm, two of 'em."

"What have you named them?" "Thunder and Lightning. That's what pa said when they came to the house."

DON'T FORGET ONCE TO EVERY WOMAN

Neuropathy

When you feel tired and in a run-down condition; when you do not sleep as well as you ought; if there is a weakness, pain or loss of power in any part of the body; if you have that languid, don't care feeling and you just about as soon quit as keep on going, why not consult a Neuropath and have him diagnose your case, give you a few treatments, loosen up those cramped, tired nerves so you will have some pep and feel like living once more.

Dr. F. S. Schutz 324 and 325 Oregon Bldg. Phone: Res. 12103 Office 604