Hammer's Bicycle Found—A bicycle belonging to Gilbert Hammer reported to the police as having been stolen recently, was found yesterday by Police Officer Rawson at 484 North Church street. Police Officer Porter brought into the station yesterday a bicycle found in the yard at 340 North Church street. It was identified as being the one reported to be missing by Lawrence Meyers Thursday.

Man-hole Open—P. A. Foster reported to the police that he stepped into a man-hole at the corner of Hoyt and Commercial street. The street commissioner was notified to see that it was made safe.

Both Drivers Reported—While driving an automobile south on Commercial street yesterday, Harold Dill crashed into a truck driven by a Mr. Sturzig. It appears from the police report that Dill did not have control of his machine. He hit the rear end of the truck and damaged a front wheel on his car. Both men made reports to the police department.

Divorce Granted—A divorce was granted yesterday by Judge George G. Bingham of the circuit court to Marie S. Harris and Walter S. Harris. A hearing of the case was held in the early part of November. Cruel and inhuman treatment was the cause for action, according to the complaint.

Tire Is Recovered—The tire reported yesterday as having been stolen from an automobile belonging to the state highway commission was found in a pasture where it apparently had been abandoned. It was found by J. K. Nash, 892 North Winter street.

Humane Worker Heard—Mrs. F. W. Swanton of Portland, secretary of the Oregon Humane society, was on the program given yesterday in connection with the convention of the county school superintendents, held this week in the city hall. Mrs. Swanton gave a 20-minute talk, using as her subject, "Humane Education in the Public Schools."

Slides Will Be Shown—The same slides illustrative of the best in interior decorating, will be featured at the meeting this afternoon of the Salem Woman's club, will again be shown at the meeting Monday night of the Salem Art's league. The slides are loaned by the "House Beautiful." The regular meeting night of the league is Tuesday, but owing to the appearance of the Apollo club then, Monday night has been chosen.

Ingalls Likes 'Em—Claude E. Ingalls, editor of the Gazette-Times of Corvallis, has the right idea about buying home products. After publishing two recipes used by the Marion hotel in making prune soup and prune putts with Mislard prunes, he says: "That Mislard stuff of course refers to Oregon prunes. And by the way, we notice a Corvallis restaurant menu the other day that quoted 'California prunes.' What's the idea when we have far better prunes at home?"

PERSONAL MENTION B. A. Shaver is in Corning, Cal. this week on a business trip. S. J. Smith, cashier of the St. Paul State bank, was a Salem visitor yesterday. E. L. Weider of Albany was here Thursday. Zadoc J. Riggs left Friday for Tacoma to attend the convocation in honor of the chief potentate of the Shriners, which is to be held this week-end. E. B. Lockhart, former city editor of The Statesman, was here yesterday from Jefferson. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Gerking and son have arrived here from Freewater, Umatilla county, and will live here indefinitely. Dr. W. W. Youngson, superintendent of the Portland district of the Methodist church, was in Salem yesterday.

IT'S GOOD FOR CHILDREN. Mrs. C. E. Schwab, 1907 14th St., Canton, Ohio, writes: "We use Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs and find it one of the best remedies on the market, especially good for children's coughs, as it does not contain any drug that is harmful." Serious sickness often follows lingering colds. Hard coughing racks a child's body and disturbs strength giving sleep, and the poisons weaken the system so that disease cannot be warded off. Take Foley's in time. Sold everywhere.

Newell's Services Are Asked by Commission The public service commission announced yesterday that it has been in telegraphic communication with J. P. Newell, now consulting engineer for the Canadian government in the Grand Trunk arbitration case, and who is now at Montreal, Canada, with a view of obtaining his services in connection with the pending Portland terminal case. Mr. Newell has signified his willingness to assist in the case and the commission has wired him to come to Portland at the earliest practicable date. The services of Mr. Newell, it is said, will be of considerable value to the city of Portland and the state in connection with the presentation of the public service commission's case which is to

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Welcome, solons! And welcome the three houses— And the lady clerks and the fourth estate.

Salem is the City of Welcome, and is going to live up to that name more thoroughly in the future.

That idea will run all through the annual edition of The Statesman; it will be called the Welcome Edition, and you will find, when you read it, that the welcome idea in Salem's greatest asset. It will be ready next week or the week following.

There is more pep in the securing of tickets for the Apollo club concert at the Armory next Tuesday evening. Salem is going to turn out in good style.

The special articles are coming in fine for the Welcome Edition. But the editor would like to have them as fast as they are finished.

The idea that Salem must provide cold storage facilities and warehouse room for the surplus fruits and vegetables of the Salem district is taking hold. If it can be formulated and put before the people in the right way, it will be all but unanimous. Then Salem can make good her title to her claim of being the real fruit-center of Oregon.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills for pains in sides and back; rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, biliousness, headaches, and sluggish bowels. Sold everywhere.

DeMille Quartet Pleases Salem Lovers of Music The De Mille male quartet, a Canadian group of singers and the fourth number of the Salem Lyceum course, sang last night at the armory before a well-filled auditorium of Salem music lovers.

Harmony of voices, often not achieved in group singing, was one of the particularly pleasant features about the quartet, which ranks as one of the best male quartets on any lyceum circuit today.

The personnel of the quartet is Charles Duhig and Ernest Hazeldine, tenors; Hurlwell DeMille, baritone; William Morlock, bass, and W. J. Skinner, pianist and accompanist.

The next number of the lyceum will be a lecture by Herbert Leon Cape, the American humorist, whose subject here is "The Religion of Laughter." The date is March 18.

Last night's program follows: "March of the Men of Harlech" Quartet. "Hawaiian Love Song" Piano solo, "Marche, Hungroice," "Rustle of Spring," W. J. Skinner. Tenor solos, "Calling Me Home to You," "If I Might Come to You," Charles Duhig. "Until the Dawn," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," Quartet.

Baritone solos, "Song of Hybras, the Creton," "In a Jolly Old Rover," William Morlock. Tenor and baritone duets, "The Fishermen," "The Twins," "Hazel and De Mille," "Swing Along," "Blarney Stone," "Poor Ned," quartet. Piano solos, "Filligrane Polka," "Prelude in C sharp Minor," W. J. Skinner. Tenor solos, "Good Company," "Tommy Lad," Ernest Hazeldine. "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," "Bells of St. Mary's," Quartet.

Baritone solos, "Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind," "The Brown-Jes," Hurlwell De Mille. "Kind Friends" Quartet.

be heard before the interstate commerce commission on January 14, in view of the fact that Mr. Newell, who is a consulting engineer of national reputation, has previously made, on behalf of the public service commission, an extensive study of terminal matters and of terminal costs in general.

Mr. Newell has also recently served on a national committee of eminent engineers engaged in a study with relation to the unification of railroad lines and service in cities, and who recently made an extensive report thereon.

LIBERTY PERSONALS Lela Fox has been absent from school on account of the mumps. C. E. Henry was taken to the hospital Monday. He is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

H. P. Frost and family are moving to Liberty from Salem. Mrs. E. E. Lemons has been ill with the mumps.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst and daughter spent New Years day at the home of their parents. Miss Alice Kanori visited at the home of Florence Berndt from Thursday until Sunday.

Miss Evelyn Harris of Salem, visited at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Westenhouse Tuesday, January 4. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Scott were in Portland on business during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Ed Scott and daughter, Edith, from Montrose, Colo., are visiting relatives at Liberty. Mr. Keubler who has been seriously ill has past few days is slowly recovering.

Miss Colla Muirhammer, of Silverton, was visiting at her mother's home New Years. A most interesting event of the New Year was given when Bessie Valentine entertained about 40 guests at her home. The occasion was a birthday surprise for Mr. Henry Kayser. Refreshments were served at midnight, following which, games were played.

Some of the young men of Liberty have rented the hall over the warehouse for a gymnasium and are doing some very splendid work in basketball. This community is very appreciative of the band's activities, besides rendering many good musical programs it has sponsored many social events, the latest of which was a pie social at Liberty hall, December 31. The pies were sold by "shadows" and brought in over $25. Some numbers were contributed by people from Salem.

Court Street Church Making Rapid Strides The Court Street Christian church of Salem is forging right ahead. This is what the reports indicated at the annual meeting of the church Monday night. Since the present pastor came here a year and 10 months ago the church has seen wonderful growth in numbers and power for good in the community. In that time the membership of the church has trebled. The past year has seen the membership doubled and the church in finest of condition. There has been an enlargement of work in every department.

The present building is too small to accommodate the rapidly growing Bible school and plans are now under way for the erection of a new church building in the near future. This is the big item in a five year program proposed by the pastor and adopted by a unanimous vote of the congregation.

That the church appreciates the efforts of its pastor is shown in a $200 raise in salary granted him at the annual meeting. The church is going ahead in faith and expecting to accomplish great things in 1921.

Dr. E. C. Hickman Will Accept Salem Position

Dr. E. C. Hickman, it is announced, will accept the presidency of the Kimball School of Theology, a Methodist institution here. He received the appointment after the death of Dr. H. J. Talbot, but before assuming the position resigned to take a position with the Methodist board of education. The latest report is that he will accept the Salem appointment.

A WOMAN'S RECOMMENDATION. Mrs. D. T. Tryor, Franklin Av., Osego, O., writes: "Nine years ago I was very much afflicted with kidney trouble. I bought different kinds of medicine, but all to no effect, until one day I bought a box of Foley Kidney Pills. I realized so great a benefit from the use of that box that I feel safe in recommending Foley Kidney Pills to any kidney sufferers. They relieve headaches, sore muscles, rheumatic pains and bladder ailments. Sold everywhere.
