

SOCIETY

BY MOLLY BRUNK

MAJOR AND MRS. CASSIUS R. PECK have returned to their home in Portland, after being entertained the first of the week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McKinnon. They came up to attend the Monday night dance.

Major Peck is well known in Salem. He was formerly judge-advocate at Camp Lewis, and since the war he has become identified with the law firm of Griffith, Leiter & Allen, Portland.

At the meeting of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, January 27th was officially chosen as the date for the annual dance.

Salem School of Expression
Lulu Rosamond Watson, Director
147 N. Commercial
Phone 592-1484J

Special Course in Public Speaking which will be held at the Army. This date was the only one available, as the armory was dated for every other night in the month. Music will be the big feature of the affair, which according to all previous record will be one of the bright lights on the social horizon.

Writing on board the Steamship Admiral Farragut, just putting out to sea, Miss Lucile Saunders, former Statesman reporter, who is on her way to South America, tells of her trip down to Mexico. In Eugene Miss Saunders was entertained at dinner by Theta Sigma Phi's at "The Anchorage."

Most of the passengers on board the Farragut speak Spanish, according to Miss Saunders, who planned to stop first at Balboa, Canal Zone.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerber (La Verne DeWitt) of Portland, mo-tered up Wednesday to be the guests for the day of the latter's mother Mrs. Anna K. DeWitt. Returning to Portland with them was O. K. DeWitt, who went down to attend the automobile show.

Mrs. F. W. Selee will be hostess for the members of the P. E. O. sisterhood this afternoon at which time an interesting program will be given.

De Deohoko club members with additional guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard Monday night at a regular assembly. Pink carnations centered the dinner table, covers being laid for 14. Guests of the club were, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, the following club members being hidden: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Littler, U. G. Holt and Miss Beryl Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Holdane, who were on their honeymoon from Alberta, Canada, spent the early part of the week in Salem as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Western Houghton and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lafair, the latter being a cousin of Mrs. Holdane.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kellogg will go to Portland today to attend the annual automobile show. They will return this evening.

Miss Creta Olinger of Everett, Wash., is spending a fortnight in Salem, and while here is being entertained as the house guest of Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Mrs. George G. Brown, and various friends.

The regular meeting of the Salem O. A. C. club which was to have been held in the auditorium of the Commercial club Thursday night, was changed at the eleventh hour and took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hathaway.

Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites were in Portland Wednesday, going down to attend the Portland Symphony concert at the Hellig theater Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Purkey and children of Tacoma have returned to their home after visiting at the home of Mrs. Purkey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denton were among the Salem folk attending the concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra at the Hellig theater Wednesday night.

Miss Grace Babcock spent Wednesday in Portland where she attended the concert of the Portland Symphony orchestra that night.

The newly organized Five Hundred club, composed of young folk residing in the Oak Grove district, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson Wednesday evening at the home of the latter's father, C. F. Ruge, in West Salem. Prizes went to Miss Rose Bodayla and Duane Gibson, the consolation falling to Mr. and Mrs. James Smart. Following the game refreshments were served, Mrs. Roy McDowell assisting the hostess.

This club, which meets fortnightly, will be entertained at its next session by Mr. and Mrs. William Schwartz. Several additional guests were bidden including Miss Bodyala, Rex Gibson, Duane Gibson, Miss Mabel and Lily Ruge and C. F. Ruge.

Club members invited were: Mr. and Mrs. William Knower, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Southwick, Mr. and Mrs. William Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. James Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Amon Grice, Fred Wilson, Miss Flora Grice and Miss Vera Southwick.

Word comes from Kansas City that Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Geiger of that city have adopted a baby boy, whom they have named Edward William, Jr. Mrs. Geiger is remembered as Miss Mary Edna Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones.

Miss Mattie Beatty will go to Portland tomorrow to attend several important women's club meetings, and will remain over the week-end as the guest of friends.

Mr. Gertrude Minthorn of Portland, house guest of Mrs. B. J. Miles, will address the meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church this afternoon.

All women interested are extended an invitation to attend.

Miss Dean Hatton entertained the members of the Queen Esther society of the Leslie Methodist church at the Delta Phi house last night.

Mrs. Jack Hayes is in Portland this week representing the state automobile department at the twelfth annual automobile show. Mr. Hayes will go down today, both to return Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Needham are visitors in Portland this week from Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Furlong are among the Salem folk spending several days in Portland this week.

Miss Florence Bone will leave tomorrow for Linn county for an extended visit with relatives.

Miss Viola Myrnat has returned from a three months' visit with relatives and friends in Roseburg and other southern Oregon cities.

St. Monica's Altar society of St. Joseph's church will hold a card party in the Knights of Columbus hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Joseph Thiel and Mrs. W. Richardson will preside as hostesses.

Market street. Musical numbers were furnished by Miss Alice Roth. The greater part of the time was devoted to a business session in which it was voted to assist in the state educational fund which is being featured in Red Letter days in similar organizations throughout the state. Payment of dues for the county federation was also made, the remainder of the time being devoted to needlework for the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Rose Bodayla, who is connected with the public schools of Dallas, is enjoying a brief visit at the William Patrick home on the Wallace road.

The Valley View club held a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. James Smart Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ray L. Farmer was hostess for the meeting of the Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church, Wednesday afternoon, the members adjourning to hear the able lecture delivered by Bishop W. O. Shepard of Portland before the students of Kimball college.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Roberts and Miss Katherine Anderson of The Dalles were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Elvin at the Apollo club concert on Tuesday evening. Mr. Roberts is the representative from Wasco county. The Roberts are domiciled at the Young residence on Capitol street.

Why not try a can of Del Monte Beans with Tomato Sauce tonight? They'll surely bring back that old-time hunger zest of youth.

ARROW BRAND COLLARS—Broken Lines.
9c Each; three for 25c

PLAIN WHITE HUCK TOWELS—Good heavy quality, 18x34.
Opportunity Sale 19c

FLANNELETTES—A fine assortment of patterns, splendid for kimono and wrappers, 27 inches wide.
33c

Sale Opens Today
Doors Open—9 a.m.

OPPORTUNITY SALE

Sale Opens Today
Doors Open—9 a.m.

HOW MUCH MORE interesting things look when prices are low. It sounds like old times to read prices such as we are quoting in this "BIG OPPORTUNITY SALE." Remember, too, we only handle "Good goods"—absolutely reliable merchandise, not "seconds" or "sales goods"—everything listed here, and hundreds of money-savers we have not listed, but which are marked at the same big ratio of saving, is from our clean, firstclass stock. Look for "Opportunity Cards."

40-inch "Mallinson" indestructible
Georgette Crepe excellent for Waists, Blouses and Over-Dresses.
$2.75

40-inch Radium Silk; colors, Maize, Coral, Pekin, Navy, Black, Taupe, Grey, Pink—
$2.19

36-inch Chiffon..... 39c
40-inch Georgette Crepe..... $1.98
40-inch Chiffon Cloth..... 98c
40-inch Crepe de Chine..... $1.98

COATS and SUITS
STUNNING MODELS at LESS THAN WHOLESALE COST

We have taken our broken lines, values to $35.00. They are marked to final close $9.75

GEORGETTE WAISTS AND OVER BLOUSES in Navy, Brown, White, Flesh and Tan, values to $7.50. Opportunity Sale $3.65

Ready-to-Wear Section
Aside from Suits, Coats and Dresses, here are mentioned a few Opportunity Specials

House Dresses, selling up to $4.50..... $1.98
Cover all Aprons..... 79c
Navy Flannel Middies..... $3.59
Knit Petticoats..... $1.48
Children's Sweaters to $7.50..... $3.85
All Wool Toques..... 49c

Opportunity Sale!
WOOL DRESS GOODS

Plaids, Poppins and Stripes..... 59c
54-inch Imported Tweed..... $3.95
54-inch Angora Wool Coating..... $4.95
54-inch Wool Tweed Coating..... $2.19
54-inch Wool Tweed Coating..... $3.95
56-inch Heavy Pepple Cheviot Coating..... $3.95
54-inch All Wool Plaid Skirting..... $3.95

These are less than pre-war prices

MILLER'S Good Goods.

Millinery Section
Entire stock of strictly up to the minute millinery, divided into 4 lots for final season's cleanup.

Lot 1..... $1.00
Lot 2..... $2.95
Lot 3..... $3.95
Lot 4..... $4.95