

WILLAMETTE WINS FROM O.A.C. SQUAD

Visiting Collegians Unable to Crack Coach Mathews' Combination While Bearcats Break Aggie Team

GILLETTE MAKES RECORD IN SCORES

Attendance at First Conference Game Makes Army Bulge

Willamette university basketball cohorts defeated the Oregon Agricultural college quintet in a spectacular contest played before a capacity crowd at the Salem armory last night, by a score of 27 to 24.

Ten minutes before the game was scheduled to begin the armory was packed from door to door and many would-be spectators were denied the privilege of witnessing the initial conference basketball contest in Salem this season. The university students grayed in cardinal and gold, performed vocally until the walls of the armory resounded with the vibrations of "Fight 'em Bearcats" while the band put the spirit of fight into both Bearcats and rooters by reminding the warriors of the ancient saxe when they played "Oh, Jason Lee."

Thrill Follows Thrill.

From the time the Bearcats and Aggies trotted onto the floor the final report of the contest was a series of short passes until the game was a thrill after another, with both teams tied several times, and then Willamette taking the initiative in the last three minutes of play and capturing a three-point lead which the Aggies were unable to overcome.

Considering the fact that both quintets were playing their first conference basketball of 1921 the game was fast and spectacular.

When Willamette was able to put into play its crisis-cross passing the Aggies were forced to stand around and look on, while the Bearcats worked the ball back and forth across the floor by a series of short passes until it had finally worked up to the basket and a counter registered.

Gillette Breaks Machine.

The Aggies played like veterans but were unable to overcome the fast offensive and the strong stonewall defense of Coach Mathews' aggregation. Stinson, O. A. C. star forward, was able to convert a basket whenever he shot, and several times his counters forced the orange and black defenders ahead. In the second period Stinson was taken from the floor on account of called personals, and was replaced by Beck, and then F. Ross was sent in his place. Arthur was responsible for many of the counters of the Aggie tossers.

Willamette's veterans played together in harmonious style and witnessed perfect passing ability as well as efficient basket tossing. Gillette was responsible for 11 of Willamette's tallies as well as for breaking up the O. A. C. machine, whenever the visitors threatened to override the cardinal and gold defenders.

Coch's Combination Works.

Jackson, premier center and basket getter for the variety, not only outplayed Saunders, the Aggie center, but he tossed in eight counters for the Bearcats. Wapato tied with Jackson for points, ringing up eight tallies for "Old Willamette." Dimick and Rarey were guards whom O. A. C. cohorts had great difficulty in getting by and were forced to take most of their shots from the center of the floor. The five men Coach Mathews selected to defend the honors of Willamette last night proved to be a winning combination.

(Continued on page 6)

YOUTHS APPREHEND ROBBER NEAR SCHOOL

LANE RECOGNIZES HIS COAT WORN BY THIEF

Shepard Takes Officers to Deserted House on Outskirts of City Where Loot Is Found

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 14.—Milton Lane and Willie Westrope, 15 and 13 years of age, respectively, today captured a young man giving the name of Charles R. Shepard, who admitted to the officers that he has been guilty of numerous burglaries here, some of them in the fashionable residence district, during the past few weeks. The boys saw Shepard pass their school as they were at play and recognized an overcoat which he wore as one stolen from him. Lane and Westrope followed him into the woods and compelled him to give up the overcoat.

They then brought him down town and Sheriff Stickle obtained a confession from him. Shepard took the officers to a deserted house on the outskirts of the city where a large quantity of loot was recovered.

TARIFF BILL IS AMENDED

Committee Votes 10 to 4 to Open Measure to Amendments

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Three amendments were tacked on the Fordney emergency tariff bill by the senate finance committee today in its first day's consideration in executive session after the recent public hearings of the measure.

After the committee had voted 10 to 4 to open the bill to amendments, Senators Calder, Republican of New York, and Jones, Democrat of New Mexico, got provisions through which materially broadened the scope of the measure. Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, obtained acceptance of a higher import duty on wheat.

The McCumber amendment would fix a tariff on imported wheat of 40 cents a bushel instead of the 30 cents carried by the bill as it passed the house. Senator Calder's amendment would add dairy products to the list already protected, establishing a tariff of 6 cents a pound on butter and cheese and their substitutes, and 2 cents and 5 cents a gallon on fresh milk and cream, respectively. Under the Jones amendment, the import duty on hides, carried in the Singley tariff law, would be restored as a part of the Fordney measure for the 10 months of its life.

Members of the federal tariff commission were with the senate committee during most of its deliberations. It submitted, at the request of Chairman Penrose, the results of its investigation of the wool growing industry, when the wool rate was considered by the committee.

The commission's report said that the great decline in wool prices was the result chiefly of a world's surplus of the commodity, but added that several other factors entered into the falling values. Of these the commission charged the drop in prices more directly to the buyers' strike and a stricter limitation of credit.

As to the production costs, the report showed that for running sheep on the range the per head expense was $6.64, $6.4 and $6.73 for 1918, 1919 and 1920, respectively. These figures compare favorably with costs of about $2 a head in 1910.

GROCCER SHOTS WIFE

SEATTLE, Jan. 14.—Robert Lee, 54, a grocer at Ballard, a suburb of Seattle, tonight shot and dangerously wounded his wife, Mrs. Dora Lee, 46, after being served with notice of divorce proceedings, and then turning the weapon upon himself, took his own life, according to the police. Relatives said the couple quarreled Christmas day when Mrs. Lee left home and went to Anacortes, Wash., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Louis Laller. Mrs. Lee is in a hospital with a bullet wound in her side and may die, physicians said.

LORD MAYOR COMPLETES TESTIMONY

O'Callaghan Accomplishes Announced Purpose of His American Visit When Speaks Before Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork, who reached the United States last week as a stowaway and without a passport, completed his testimony before the committee on the committee of 100 investigating Irish conditions today.

O'Callaghan accomplished the purpose of his visit to America.

Political Refugee Is Excused. Completion by the lord mayor of his testimony was followed a few hours later by submission to Secretary of Labor Wilson a brief arguing that the Cork executive, now in the United States on parole, be permitted to remain here as a political refugee, entitled under the law to admission without a passport.

The brief was submitted through O'Callaghan's counsel in accordance with a ruling of Secretary Wilson at the preliminary hearing accorded the lord mayor several days ago. Secretary Wilson is expected to reach a decision in the matter of permanently admitting O'Callaghan tomorrow after studying the brief.

Burning of Cork Described. Mayor O'Callaghan devoted largely today to a description of the recent burning of Cork, presented an appeal for support of the Irish cause. With the appeal, he couched the declaration that the United States and England alike entered the war pledged to the principle of self-determination for small nations and that since England had sworn her pledge to the "smoke screen and humbug" the United States too, unless showing a more real interest in Ireland, might be made liable to the same accusation.

"If we are told," he concluded, "that neither America nor any other nation which sees us bleeding to death, despite all that was said about self-determination, in our case, it will not be humbug. We will continue the fight, be the result what it may."

Mac Swiney Tells Story. Mayor O'Callaghan was followed on the stand by Peter MacSwiney, brother of the late lord mayor of Cork, and a fellow stowaway with O'Callaghan, and by four sailors of the American Steamer West Cannon which brought the stowaways to Newport News.

Emil Pezolt, of Oakland, one of the sailors, declared that he was robbed of his money, passports and other personal possessions, abandoned almost into insensibility and threatened with death by a detail of British soldiers on the streets of Cork, December 11, while the West Cannon was in that port.

"I was walking along the street when I heard the usual command 'Put 'em up,' Pezolt said. 'I had learned from experience that there was an order to lift my hands and obeyed. The leader of a bunch of soldiers, who had been an officer, I am not familiar with and whose uniforms, searched me and found my American seaman's passport. 'Oh, you are a damned Yankee,' he said, and struck me in the face with his fist. The others then beat me and after taking all my possessions, they backed me against the wall and levelled their rifles. 'Ready, aim. Now you Yankee, sing your American song,' the leader said, and was turned loose and went to my ship.

"The captain of the ship took the matter up with Mason Mitchell, consul at Queenstown, who in turn referred it to the British general in charge of troops in Cork and was told that nothing could be done to find the culprit."

Pezolt said he had written a letter to the state department regarding the matter.

The witness described the burning of Cork, comparing the destroyed city with San Francisco after the earthquake.

BANDITS SHOOT MEN

DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 14.—Three men were shot, two probably fatally, early tonight, by six automobile bandits who held up the Jackson street sub-station postoffice. All of the injured are postal employees. The bandits escaped after a thrilling fight.

Postoffice officials declare the robbers made off with a mail pouch, but said they did not know whether it contained first or second class mail matter.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

AWAIT VERDICT OF NAVAL COURT

Officials Will Make Thorough Investigation of Japanese Killing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Despite Japanese assurances of regret and precautions to prevent a recurrence, a thorough investigation will be made by the United States government of the killing of Lieutenant W. H. Langdon, naval officer at Vladivostok by a Japanese sentry.

Admiral Gleaves, commander in chief of the Asiatic fleet reported to the navy department today from Manila that he had appointed a court of inquiry to investigate the circumstances surrounding the death of Lieutenant Langdon. He added that he, with members of the court would leave Manila next Thursday for Vladivostok.

Officials here in the meantime will await findings of the naval court and an answer to the note despatched last night by the state department to the Japanese government. The note requested an official explanation of the affair, and suggested that the Japanese government make adequate reparations for the killing of Lieutenant Langdon.

Renewed assurances of regret over the affair came today from the Japanese government in a note transmitted to the state department through Baron Shidehara, Japanese ambassador. This note also indicated that the Japanese government was desirous of preventing a recurrence of such a happening and other dispatches announced that the Japanese military authorities at Vladivostok had instructed not to challenge Americans in the future. Admiral Gleaves reported that the Japanese commanding officers of the cruiser Albany, to which Lieutenant Langdon was attached, that they also would convene a court of investigation.

It was understood that the Japanese government would take steps to offer an indemnity for the dead officers' dependents, as is the custom among nations in such affairs. Secretary of the Navy Daniels said today that he did not know of any law that would provide financial relief for Lieutenant Langdon's family unless the officer had a war risk insurance policy.

PATROLMAN IS DEAD AS RESULT OF GUN BATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 14.—Patrolman V. L. Stevens of the Seattle police force is dead, Clayton Dodge, 21, alleged bandit is expected to die and Warren Moon, 19, his companion is slightly wounded as the result of a gun battle between the police and four alleged bandits, all of whom were captured, discovered in an automobile believed to have been stolen here today. The other two men gave their names as R. F. Madsen, 18, and C. A. Brown, 20.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of the international and national unions in the steel industry decided here today to launch a new campaign to organize iron and steel workers throughout the country.

Unemployment in present industrial conditions, it was announced, would not interfere or cause a postponement of the new steel unionization plans. Decision to combat at once any effort of the United States Steel corporation to reduce the present standard of wages in the steel mills also was reached.

The committee was said to expect to begin its active work in the early spring.

The campaign will be conducted by a committee to be officially known as the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This committee replaces the national council of iron and steel workers and steel workers which conducted the great steel strike of last year.

Approximately 14 national and international unions will participate in the new campaign and be represented by the executive council.

IRON WORKERS TO ORGANIZE

International Unions Plan New Campaign to Cover Entire Country