

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Deaf School Will Play—

The Oregon deaf school will play the Washington state school for the deaf this afternoon at 1:30 on the Y. M. C. A. floor. Because the gymnasium at the deaf school is not safe enough to accommodate any considerable crowd and also because it is too small, the game is being played on the "Y" floor. The school gymnasium is about 30 years old.

Carrier Boy Wanted—

14 or 16-year-old boy to carry down town route. Apply Statesman office, or phone 583.

Turner Woman Dies—

Mrs. Emma May Small, wife of Calvin W. Small, died early Friday morning at the family home two and a half miles east of Turner. Mrs. Small was born in Missouri in 1862. The body is now at the Rigdon undertaking parlors in this city but will be taken to Turner Sunday, the funeral to be held from the Methodist church in that place. Interment will be made in Turner.

Dance Tuesday Night—

For Elks and their ladies.—Ad

Two fatalities Reported— During the week ending January 13 there were reported to the state industrial accident commission 433 accidents, of which number there were two fatalities, as follows: W. R. Plumlee, St. Helens, engineer; Thomas H. Dunsmore, Salem, laborer.

The total number reported, 403 were subject to the provisions of the compensation act, 16 were from firms and corporations that have rejected the provisions of the act, and 15 were from public utilities not subject to the provisions of the compensation act, one of this number not being an employee.

Every Suit at Mosner's—

Reduced. See our patterns. (Adv.)

Oil Company Reports—

The statement of the Shell company of California, received in the office of the secretary of state shows the sale within the state by such company during the calendar month ending December 31, 1920, of 152,251 gallons of gasoline, on which a tax of $1,582.51 was paid.

Order Your Cake—

For that party; phone 544.—Adv.

Salem Couple Wed—

Joseph Bill Gigger, 27, and Mrs. Myrtle M. Weise, 23, both of Salem, were married in Vancouver, Wash., Friday, January 13.

Carrier Boy Wanted—

14 or 16-year-old boy to carry down town route. Apply Statesman office, or phone 583.

Harney Man Here—

Capt. A. W. Gowan of Harney county has returned to Portland after a visit at the legislature here. Captain Gowan was a member of the Oregon legislature for the first time 25 years ago. Before that he had been in the Kansas legislature in the early

'70s. He has lived in Harney county 30 years.

Dance— Tuesday night, Elks hall; good floor, fine music and a fine time assured.—Adv.

Installation Is Saturday—

Sedgwick G. A. R. and W. R. C. will hold joint installation on Saturday, January 15 in McCornack hall. Dinner will be served at noon.

Better-Yet Bread—

Mistland Bakery. Phone 544. (adv.)

Files Final Account—

The final account of the estate of Peter Bucholz was filed yesterday in the county court. The date for the hearing of objections was set for February 21.

Alexandria Fox Trot—

Ask to hear this popular record, Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Legion Passes Referendum—

Capital Post No. 9 of the American legion last night went on record as unanimously favoring a bill which will be introduced by the state legislature providing for a $25 cash bonus for ex-service men or an optional plan for a $3000 home or farm loan. Post No. 1 Portland, adopted this referendum at a meeting last night.

Legal Blanks—

Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application. (Ad)

Will Take Hike—

The beginners and prep class of the Y. M. C. A. will meet today at 9 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. with lunches, prepared for a hike to the country club. Out door games will be enjoyed by the boys. They will return at 5 o'clock for a swim.

Don't Miss—

The milkiest photoplay of all, "While New York Sleeps," at the Grand, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.—Adv.

Loses Pocketbook—

A pocketbook containing a wedding ring and some change was lost yesterday at the Oregon Electric depot, by a Mrs. Pratt of McMinnville. In telling of her loss to the police, Mrs. Pratt said that she left her pocketbook in a telephone booth, and that a man, whom the police identified as John Campbell, entered the booth immediately following. When he left Mrs. Pratt said she looked for her purse but it was gone. Police officers took Campbell in charge pending an investigation but found no evidence of a convicting nature.

Better-Yet Bread—

Ask your grocer.—Adv.

Files Complaint—

A complaint was filed yesterday in the circuit court by John R. Fitzhugh against George W. Stoner, in which the plaintiff asks judgment for the sum of $475 and costs and disbursements of the action. Mr. Fitzhugh claims this amount due him on personal property which the defendant has in his possession.

Magazine Club Rate—

The Ace, 327 N. High. (Adv.)

Sues To Recover Wages—

For alleged services rendered in repairing an automobile, R. W. Barton has brought suit against A. E. Stewart for the sum of $177.95. The complaint was filed yesterday.

See the Great White Way—

At its best and worst in the big 8-reel super-special at the Grand, starting Sunday.—Adv.

To Establish Title—

A complaint was filed yesterday in the circuit court in the case of Evelyn Whitman et al against Grace Hansen et al, in which an effort will be made to establish the right and title to certain lands belonging to the estate of S. J. L. Whitman, deceased.

Something New—

An appropriate musical setting has been arranged for the big super-special, "While New York Sleeps," playing at the Grand, starting Sunday.—Adv.

Verdict For Defendant—

The jury in the circuit court yesterday, returned a verdict for the defendant, in the civil action instituted by J. W. Hundley against H. L. Carl. The cause of complaint had to do with a contract for the cutting of timber. The plaintiff asked the court for a judgment against the defendant for the sum of $181.25.

The Annual Meeting—

Of stockholders of the Thos. Kay Woolen Mill Co. will be held at the office of the company in Salem on Tuesday, the 18th day of January, 1921, at 9:30 a. m. All business that may properly come before that meeting will be transacted.

E. J. SWAFFORD,

(Adv.) Secretary.

Secure Marriage License—

A marriage license was granted yesterday by the county clerk to Ruby Myers of Salem and Timothy John Sullivan of Independence.

During Habit of Boys—

A daring and dangerous habit on the part of boys living in the neighborhood of Union street was reported to the police officers yesterday by an engine crew of the Southern Pacific railroad. It appears that the boys are in the habit of gathering along Union street at night and as the freight train pulled in, would stand on the track in front of the approaching train until the engine would frequently be within 10 feet of them before leaving the track. Officers were requested to be on the watch and take the boys in custody.

Evades Paying Rent—

J. F. Baker of the Baker rooming house, has requested the assistance of the police in ascertaining the whereabouts of a Mr. Weston, who is the rooming house owner, leaving the rooming house without paying his rent. Mr. Weston is apparently a carpenter by trade as he had with him a chest of tools.

Date Set For Hearing—

A petition was filed yesterday for a hearing of the final account of the estate of the late Andrew Eder.

Stealing Wood—

It has been reported to the police department that someone is stealing wood from the Spaulding Logging company. The work of the thief is said to be carried on at night.

Bicycle Found—

A bicycle, reported as having been taken from the Cottle apartments Thursday night, was brought into the police station yesterday by Police Officer Victor. It was found at 264 North Commercial street and identified as belonging to Fred Carmichael.

Complaints Against Commission—

Four complaints were filed yesterday against the state industrial accident commission. L. L. Herschberger, D. W. Herschberger and Edward E. Bengs and A. C. Epperly were the plaintiffs in the actions. Judgments for sums of less than $100 were asked for in all cases.

Petition For Administrator—

A petition was filed yesterday in the county court by Elizabeth McNary Albert for appointment of administrator of the estate of the late J. H. Albert. The personal property is valued at $85,000 and the real estate value of the estate is said to be $92,660.

Sold More of Her Goats—

Mrs. B. M. Woods of 700 North High street, formerly of West Salem, as many Statesman readers know, is a raiser of pure bred milk goats. Yesterday she sold a 100 doe to Mr. Beck, the husband of the ones Mrs. Woods raised here—no any country down there he likes as well as the country around Salem; not anything in the way of climate that beats the Willamette valley. The milk goat business is flourishing all over this coast, and in various other parts of the United States.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools, was in Parkersville, yesterday visiting schools.

W. R. Meay of St. Paul was in the city yesterday.

P. C. Freres was here yesterday from Mehama.

C. K. and E. O. Loe of Silverton were in the city yesterday on business.

Marion Looney of Jefferson called at the court house yesterday on road business.

Robert Salvage of the Vick brothers, was in Portland yesterday attending the automobile show.

M. A. Hathaway is visiting with his parents at Corvallis this week.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Still a little rain—

We escaped the threatened drought.

But it is not too early to think of the spring garden. Some folks are getting their seeds ready.

If the practice of throwing books at editors becomes general among the legislators, it is suggested that dictionaries and grammars be used. There are editors in some of the counties who need them.

The forthcoming Welcome and Anniversary edition of The Statesman, which will be ready within a few days, will be a most worthy number to send to friends in the east who are thinking of making a move. The special articles in this edition will answer about all the questions that could be asked the Salem district.

Don't get the idea that there will be any long continued unemployment in Salem. Just a few weeks more and there will be more work than there are workers here—and Salem and the country around Salem are going right along, as fast as they have been going, at least. The Bits for Breakfast man is willing to bet an old hat that it will be very much faster.

OUT OF THE RACE.

When a person wakes up with a stiff back, has pains in muscles, aches in his joints, or has rheumatic twinges, he lacks ambition and energy.

If you feel out of the race, tired and languid, or have other symptoms of kidney trouble, you should act promptly. Foley Kidney Pills help the kidneys up their work and get out of the system the poisonous matter that causes so much trouble. They give relief from sleep-disturbing bladder disturbances. Sold everywhere.

Read the Classified Ads.

AT THE LIBRARY

"Have We a Far Eastern Policy?" a study of the customs and habits of the Philippines, Hawaii, Australia, Korea and Japan with special attention to the mental attitudes of these people used as a basis for suggestions on our foreign policy, written by Charles H. Sherrill.

"Lincoln, the World Emancipator," an appreciation of Lincoln as the example of the best characteristics and ideals of the Anglo-Saxon race, written by the Englishman, John Drinkwater, whose drama, "Abraham Lincoln" has received well deserved praise.

"Government of European Cities," a study of municipal government in England, France and Russia written in 1909, by Professor Munro of Harvard.

"Hand-wrought Jewelry," a study of the mechanical processes, as well as design, by H. R. Sorenson.

"Le Petit Nord," experiences of Dr. Grenfell's family in Labrador, told by Mrs. Grenfell.

"White Shadows in the South Seas," delightful pictures of the life, legend and customs of the Marquesas Islands by the American journalist, Frederick O'Brien.

"Primitive Society," a study of family and tribal customs of primitive peoples with specific illustrations interesting for the general reader, prepared by Robert H. Lewis.

"The Theory of Evolution," lectures with special reference to the evidence upon which it is founded, by Professor Scott of Princeton.

"Boysology," a study of the phases of boy life prepared for parents, workers with boys through the Y. M. C. A., by W. W. Gibson.

"Strange Stories of the Great Valley," the adventures of a boy pioneer along the Mississippi written or boys, by Johnston Grosvenor.

"Life of Christ," by F. W. Farrar.

"English Religious Drama," a study of the miracle and morality plays, by Katherine Lee Bates.

"The Gibson Upright," a play, by Booth Tarkington and Henry Leon Wilson.

"Traveling Companions," a collection of short stories, by Henry James, not previously published in book form.

"Hiker Joy," sea stories, by James Connelly.

"The Practical Book of Interior Decorating," a most attractive and helpful book on the subject, by H. D. Eberlein.

"The Age of Innocence," by Edith Wharton.

"The Cup of Fury," by Robert Hughes.

"Hand-made Fables" by George Ade.

"Red Belts," by Hugh Poindexter.

"The Long Traverse," by Katherine and Robert Pinkerton.

"Miser's Money," by Eden Phillips.

The Book Review Digest is a publication now being received by the library each month. It is a collection of opinions of the new books that are appearing. Brief paragraphs from the best reviews are quoted and simply as favorable or unfavorable. It will furnish enjoyable studies for the book-lovers and book purchasers, in choosing and verifying opinions. While the periodicals must be retained in the office for constant reference readers will be very welcome to refer to it while in the library.

A WOMAN'S RECOMMENDATION.

Mrs. D. T. Tryor, Franklin Av., Osego, O., writes: "Nine years ago I was very much afflicted with kidney trouble. I bought different kinds of medicine, but all to no effect, until one day I bought a box of Foley Kidney Pills. I realized so great a benefit from the use of that box that I feel safe in recommending Foley Kidney Pills to any kidney sufferers." They relieve headaches, sore muscles, rheumatic pains and bladder ailments. Sold everywhere.

MT. ANGEL NEWS

MT. ANGEL, Or., Jan. 13.—(Special to The Statesman)—At the annual stockholders meeting of the Bank of Mt. Angel held today it was voted to increase the capital stock of the bank from $20,000 to $50,000, leaving $5000 additional in the surplus fund. The same directors and officers were elected.

A. Warren Gould, president and manager of the Natural Fireproof Lumber company since the annual meeting of the stockholders recently held at Seattle is completing arrangements for the construction of a mono-railroad from Tufa quarry to the local plant of the company. Recent developments of uses for "Tufa" in the manufacture of rubber tires, heels and other articles as well as for insulation purposes has opened a new field for their product and new life will develop in this industry.

Mt. Angel council No. 1767 of Knights of Columbus will initiate a class on Sunday February 6. The event will take place in the new auditorium and arrangements are being made for a rousing initiation.

1921 will be a big year for

CONGOLEUM

CART-RUGS

I am prepared with a big stock and

LOWER PRICES

MAX O. BUREN

179 No. Commercial St.

Read the Classified Ads.

Farm Loan Stockholders

Elect Officers

The stockholders of the Horticultural National Farm Loan association held their annual meeting at the offices of the association in the Masonic building Tuesday, Jan. 11, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John U. Blank, president; A. H. Litchfield, vice president; A. C. Bohrnsdett, secretary-treasurer; Andrew C. Parsons, A. F. Beardsley, Dora L. Cummings, William T. Fleskes, directors.

The secretary's report showed capital stock outstanding on Dec. 31, 1920, $12,110; outstanding loans to 72 members $242,200; and several thousands of dollars of applications for loans on hands awaiting the resumption of business by the federal land banks after the United States supreme court hands down its decision in the pending suit brought by the mortgage bankers of the country to test the constitutionality of the federal farm loan act, which decision is expected at any time.

The report showed only $96 of past-due installments of principal and interest, none of which was more than 30 days past due, which has been since provided for.

The secretary also reported that through the Hoskins National Farm Loan association, also under his management, that the total amount of loans outstanding is $248,725.

The report showed only $96 of past-due installments of principal and interest, none of which was more than 30 days past due, which has been since provided for.

The secretary also reported that through the Hoskins National Farm Loan association, also under his management, that the total amount of loans outstanding is $248,725.

LAND OWNERS TO MEET

UMATILLA, Or., Jan. 14.—

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was announced here. A second meeting will be called later in Pendleton to which governors of Oregon and Washington and heads of the O. W. R. & N. and S. P. & S. railroads will be invited. The project calls for the harnessing of the river for water power which would furnish this section with cheap electricity and pump water from the Columbia onto the low desert lands under the proposed John Day project in Oregon and the Horse Heaven country in Washington. Official state and government reports already have declared that hydro-electric development of Umatilla rapids is feasible.

Owners of land under the proposed John Day project and representatives of commercial bodies in Umatilla and Morrow counties will meet here January 26 to take action toward development of the hydro-electric power of Umatilla Rapids in the Columbia, it was