DRAINAGE BILL GETS HEARING

Salem Legislators and Councilmen Appear Before Judiciary Committee

Mayor George E. Halvorsen and members of the city council and representative Ivan G. Martin, former representative S. A. Hughes and Senator Louis Lachmund, composing a special committee of the 1919 session of the legislature to investigate the desirability of legislation to relieve the southeast district of Salem and adjacent state property by drainage, met last night with the judiciary committee of the house. Mr. Martin's, introduced on behalf of the committee, providing that lands belonging to the state, or any incorporated city or town, be included in irrigation or drainage districts, was under consideration.

Also a resolution adopted by a mass meeting on January 14 of the property owners affected by flood waters due to lack of drainage, was read.

The resolution follows: "WHEREAS a large section of territory including state lands and the southeast part of the city of Salem is annually menaced by flood waters and a committee having been appointed by the state legislative assembly, composed of Representatives S. A. Hughes and Ivan Martin and Senator Louis Lachmund, to investigate the said menacing conditions and report their findings to the regular bi-annual session of the legislature in 1921;

"RESOLVED, that the property owners affected by the flood waters in question and assembled in mass meeting on this 14th day of January, 1921, earnestly request and urge the members of the Oregon legislative assembly now convened, to initiate and pass such legislation as may be necessary to relieve the flood menace referred to; and be it further

"Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be presented to the honorable president and members of the senate and to the honorable speaker and members of the house of representatives."

Sleeping For Success

A man once dreamed that he had acquired a great fortune. When he awoke the dream was so vivid that he could talk of nothing else. He would go to bed early and sleep late, hoping that he might again experience it. But it never returned. Instead of acquiring riches, he acquired a habit of sleeping 14 hours a day, and died in the poor house.

Foolish, wasn't he? But many of us are sitting around in much the same manner, dreaming how wonderful it would be if our hopes would come true.

Map out a course of action and make your hopes come true. Let us tell you how we can help you. Day and night sessions.

Order Your Cake—For that party; phone 544.—Adv.

Eugene Men Prepare Bill—E. O. Immel, Eugene attorney, and J. H. Koke, who is in the printing business in that city, have been at the state house for two days preparing a bill which would keep the college print shops at University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college from doing any other printing than for the institution of which they are a part. This is included in a bill introduced by Senator Bell of Lane which would prevent state institutions from commercializing their work.

Petition Denied—The public service commission has issued an order denying a petition of the city of Cornelius for authority to construct a grade crossing at Border street in that city.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application. (Ad.)

Visiting in Portland—Mrs. A. J. Busey went to Portland yesterday where she will visit for a week with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Stoeble, former residents of Salem. Mr. Stoeble is connected with the Great Northern Casket company which was moved from Salem to Portland.

Every Suit at Mosner's—Reduced. See our patterns. (Adv.)

Funeral Today—The funeral services of Helen Maitland Ehmer will be held this afternoon from the First M. E. church at 2:30 o'clock. The services will be in charge of Rigdon & Son. Interment will be in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Davis Funeral Today—The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah Davis will be held from the Rigdon funeral parlors this afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. Interment will be in City View cemetery.

Body Sent to Oregon City—Mary Wrozek died at a local hospital Wednesday at the age of 85 years. The body was sent to Oregon City by Rigdon & Son for interment.

Is Fined $10—E. C. Louis was fined $10 yesterday in the city court, for driving a truck without a rear light and one head light. Information was furnished by a state official which led to the arrest. Louis is driving for the Willamette Valley Transfer company.

Birth Announcement—Mr. and Mrs. William Evans of W. Ore. are the parents of a girl, born at a local hospital January 18. Mrs. Evans was formerly Miss Frances Turner of this city.

PERSONAL MENTION

P. C. Freres of Mehama was attending to road business yesterday at the court house.
A. R. Siegmund, vice president of the Gervais state bank, was in the city yesterday.
Gordon R. Watt, druggist and attorney of Aurora, was here on Wednesday attending legal business.
Sam H. Brown, the loganberry king of Gervais, was in Salem yesterday.
Rex Burnett of Silverton was in the city yesterday and received a bounty from County Clerk U. G. Boyer on a coyote killed near Silverton.
George Alexander, sheriff of Washington county, was here yesterday with a commitment of a boy to the state training school.
R. F. Shields is in Portland today on legal business.
Representative Harvey G. Wells of Multnomah was in attendance at a Shrine business meeting in Portland Tuesday night.
W. W. Branstetter of Eugene and A. D. Canworthy of Portland were lobbying yesterday at the state house for a measure which they propose to have introduced. O. H. Fisher, city attorney of Eugene, was a legislature onlooker yesterday.
Mrs. Frank Blight and daughter Margaret Ann are spending a week at Tillamook.

A WOMAN'S RECOMMENDATION.
Mrs. D. T. Tryor, Franklin Av., Otsego, O., writes: "Nine years ago I was very much afflicted with kidney trouble. I bought different kinds of medicine, but all to no effect, until one day I bought a box of Foley Kidney Pills. I realized so great a benefit from the use of that box that I feel safe in recommending Foley Kidney Pills to any kidney sufferers. They relieve headaches, sore muscles, rheumatic pains and bladder ailments. Sold everywhere."

Polk County Grange Meeting is January 22
Manager A. G. Clark of the Associated Industries of Oregon will address the Polk County Pomona Grange which meets at Monmouth Saturday, January 22, on the "Patronage of Home Industries." Dr. Powell will talk on "Rural Health Sanitation." The dinner to be prepared by members of the Grange will be a home products dinner.
