TIME RIPE FOR DISARMAMENT

—Great Britain, for instance—to a larger navy than others." Because "of the threatened spread of bolshevism, the witness said, France might object to disarmament on land. In this connection, he said that "the state of chaos" in which Germany had been kept over reparations was doing more to open the way to bolshevism than any other single factor.

As to the time of calling a conference, Mr. White said that should be left to President-elect Harding. He did not think that President Wilson should call it, as the fact that he would retire on March 4 might lead other nations not to take the invitation seriously.

Widow of Judge Dennie to Receive Allotment

Mrs. J. N. Dennie, wife of former Judge Dennie, for many years a member of the house of representatives of the Oregon legislature, will receive $50 a month out of the Oregon state fund by an act which passed the house yesterday, in consideration of the fact that Judge Dennie was the man who introduced China preservatives into Oregon at a great expense to himself.

Judge Dennie, at the time he brought the birds into this state late in the seventies, was consul general to China. Early in the nineties he served in the legislature with Representative Belknap of Benton. The bill was introduced by Representative McFarland and was discussed at great length before being passed.

Uniform Automobile Road Legislation Up Today

Representatives Wright of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties, Carter of Jackson and Correll of Multnomah, and Senators Hare of Washington and Robertson of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler, were yesterday appointed members of a special committee which will confer in Portland today with like committees of the Idaho and Washington legislatures relative to uniform automobile road regulations for the three states. The conference will begin at 10 o'clock this morning and will be held at the Hotel Benson.

Uniform road regulations were used at a meeting of the secretaries of state of the northwest states held in Portland before the holidays, and the conference today will be in sequence of the move initiated at that time.

Sawyer Funeral is Next Monday

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Webb & Clough chapel for William Spencer Sawyer, of Salem, who died very suddenly Wednesday night from heart trouble, while attending a birthday dinner for his daughter at the home of R. A. Woodburn in Portland. Mr. Sawyer was 58 years of age. He had been employed by the Huber Paving company for the past few years as assistant paving superintendent. Mr. Sawyer, who has been a resident of Salem for the past 10 years, was born in Cleveland, O.

Besides his wife Mrs. Hattie Sawyer, deceased leaves two daughters, Mrs. F. W. Webb of Cedar Vale, Kan., who will arrive in Salem Sunday, and Mrs. H. R. Woodburn of Portland, a son, Louis C. Sawyer, of Cedar Vale, Kan., and brother, C. W. Sawyer, of Salem Heights.

Senate Passes Bill for Coos Inspection

Representative Bennett's measure creating the office of county meat and herd inspector for Coos county passed the senate today and was transmitted to the governor who is expected to sign it.

NOT LEGAL, BUT TRUE.

"You are accused of attempting to rob a pedestrian at 2 o'clock this morning. What have you to say?"

"I am not guilty, your honor; I can prove a lullaby."

"You mean an alibi?"

"Well, call it what you like, but my wife will swear that I was walking the floor with the baby at the hour mentioned in the charge."

Oleson Again Leads in Business Men's Class

Captain Oleson of the business men's class of the "Y" last night regained the lead which Captain Hug had taken for the last week by last night defeating his opponent in both bill ball, volley ball and in percentage for attendance. The contests last night totaled 198 for Oleson and 192 for Hug. The games were among the fastest of the series and both were closely fought.

An important game of the men's handball tournament is slated for today when Marr and Oleson meet Harris and Minier. Marr and Oleson held the lead of the league for some time and Harris and Minier are accredited to be a fast team. The only other game is between Dinse and Uter and Winslow and Shields.

At 2 o'clock today the Panther team meets the Trojan quintet in one of the basketball league games. Following that game the High Flyers play the Preps. At 7:15 the Destroyers meet the team of Drednaughts, followed by a game between the carats and one of the intermediate clubs.

At 9:30 this morning the leaders' corps, composed of the leaders of all of the classes, meet for their weekly class.

The beginners and the Preps have arranged parties for today, the beginners holding theirs in the morning following their gym class, and the Preps in the afternoon. The entertainments which will be composed of games and "eats," will be held in the association rooms.
