

Society

BY MOLLY BRUNK

THE reception this afternoon for visiting wives of legislators, given by the Thursday afternoon club at the residence of Mrs. B. C. Miles, is of especial social interest. A committee named from the club to perfect plans for the event includes Mrs. F. W. Spencer, Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Frederick S. Stewart.

Mrs. Ada B. Millican, Dr. Owens-Adair and Dr. Mary Rowland were guests yesterday of Superintendent and Mrs. Harwood Hall at the Chemaka Indian Training school, Mrs. Millican going on from there to Portland, where she will remain a few days before leaving for The Dalles where she has purchased a beautiful home, expecting to locate there permanently, removing from Prineville, where her home, "The Wigwam," has been a stopping place for the greater number of tourists passing through central Oregon.

At the banquet of the Business and Professional Woman's club, held in the Peacock room of the Gray-Belle Tuesday night, Mrs. Ada B. Millican of Prineville was a most entertaining speaker, touching upon a variety of subjects, from her wonderful collection of Indian relics, Chinook lagoon, to reminiscences of her childhood in Roseburg, Or., where she had for a friend Dr. Owens-Adair, who also was present, and following Mrs. Millican with an interesting talk of her life work. During the course of the evening she revealed the fact that the date marked her 81st birthday.

NEWSBOYS

There will be a free show for you to see

WESLEY BARRY in "DINTY"

The king of the Newsies

Inquire at

LIBERTY THEATRE

LIBERTY

It sparkles like a bottle of fizz in an ocean of cold tea! Some sparkle!

Featuring MR. & MRS. CARTER DE HAVEN Six plates of combined action a la d-well-peppered! Margaret Mayo and Salisbury Field wrote it for the stage—but in pictures it's a riot.

Now Showing A First National Attraction "DINTY" Starts Sunday

PURSE SEINING BILL IS PASSED BY UPPER HOUSE

marks the club went on record as favoring her new bill now before the legislature. Covers were laid for 32, including several young women who were eligible to membership in the club. Mrs. W. S. Kinney, who was scheduled to be a speaker, was detained at the state house by a committee meeting, but will talk before club members Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the apartments of Miss Cornelia Marvin at the Court.

Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst of Portland, president of the Oregon State Teachers' association, who drafted the original mother's pension bill, was at the state house yesterday, being interested in the bill asking for an increase in the amount allotted mothers and dependent children, which came up before the house yesterday afternoon. The bill was passed almost unanimously by the house. Mrs. Hayhurst was accompanied by Frances H. Whitehead, women's club editor and special writer on the Portland Telegram. Mrs. Whitehead was bill clerk in the senate during the 1917 and 1919 sessions, and has many friends both in Salem and among the members of the legislature with whom she visited yesterday.

Miss Mina B. Hubbs and Miss I. May Rauch had as their weekend guests at their apartment at The Court Mrs. L. J. Murdoch of Eugene and Miss Ruth B. Rauch of Portland. Honoring Miss Hubbs, who has recently announced her engagement to Frederick Vere Treadgold of Silverton, Miss Rauch entertained a group of intimate friends on Monday evening. Old fashioned lace Valentines formed the motif for the table decorations, a red and white color scheme being carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busick are removing this week from their home on South Cottage street into the beautiful residence on North Thirteenth street, occupied by the Dr. Harry E. Clays during the time that they were in Salem.

Copies of the New York Tribune of Sunday, January 30, just received in Salem, carry a charming large picture of Winifred Byrd, pianist, with the announcement that she was to appear in Aeolian hall Wednesday, February 2.

For the birthday of Mrs. Sadie Koy, given who are living at the Y. W. C. A. entertained Tuesday night with a costume party, inviting in a few honor guests for the occasion. Those present were Mrs. Keyt, Mrs. Etta Bradford, Mrs. Minnie Stocum, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, May Moore, Frances Elliott, Helen Berg, Miriam Palmerston, Helen Ballard, Elsie Beckner, Eva Scott, Marion Zinner and Dorris Sikes.

Throughout the evening of Tuesday art lovers were coming and going at the public library, where the drawing card was the picture exhibit made by the Salem Arts league. Counter attractions, however, kept many away who otherwise would have attended, and for this reason the exhibit will be placed again tomorrow night, when those interested may see the interesting works in the lecture room.

Aside from the etchings and pictures by local artists, the Portland Art school has sent some interesting oils for display.

Mrs. P. M. Blenkinsop is spending the week with her parents in Mill City, during the absence of Mr. Blenkinsop, who is touring the state with the Willamette Glee club. Mrs. Blenkinsop will join the club in Portland next Thursday, when it gives its final concert.

The Wednesday night dancing class held one of its enjoyable sessions in Moose hall last night. The club is happily anticipating its annual masquerade ball which will be held in the same place on February 23.

Miss Ethel Fletcher, president of the Oregon Rebekah assembly, left yesterday for Halsey where she will attend to business pertaining to the organization, to be away several days. Miss Gladys Steele, matron of the Salem hospital, is spending several days at her home in McMinnville, leaving for there Tuesday.

Mrs. F. R. Vance has returned from Portland where she spent several days, being entertained while there by Mrs. L. M. Vance. Next Tuesday has been set apart by the W. C. T. U. for the observance of the "Heavenly Birthday" of Frances E. Willard, the local organization to commemorate the date with a suitable program in their hall. The birth-

SENATE ALSO VOTES FOR PROHIBITION OF TROLLING IN OREGON

Verbal riot occurs

NORBLAD MEASURE REGULATING FISHING EFFECTIVE JAN. 1, 1922

After a verbal riot of more than three hours, in which every parliamentary tangle that is possible occurred, Senator Norblad's two bills, one prohibiting purse seine fishing in any of the waters over which the state of Oregon has jurisdiction, and the other regulating troll fishing, were passed, and Senator Jones' opposition bill is valued at $250,000. "It is a damnable lie," asserted Norblad, shaking his fist at the row of seafaring men in the front seats of the visitors' gallery. "There are only five Oregon fishermen among them, and where in hell do they get $250,000. Their equipment is not worth over $15,000. You are a bunch of curs when you say it is more."

Senator Gill termed the Jones bill a wise compromise between the contending factions, and referring to Norblad's long speech, mentioned him as the possible congressional candidate. Senator Farrell replied at length to Norblad, referring to his speech with quotations to the effect that "Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad," and "An empty barrel makes more noise than a full one." Paving his respects to Norblad's trolling bill, Farrell declared it would be unconstitutional because it prevents troll fishing in all the waters over which the state of Oregon does not have jurisdiction.

"This bill attempts to prohibit troll fishing in California and Japan," said Farrell. While it is conceded that this section of the bill is absurd, it is said it would not invalidate the act. Senator Dennis urged a compromise by amending the bill to give the fishermen leeway of one year in which to prepare for the proposed ban. Farrell urged two years. Norblad first insisted he would not temporize, but shortly approached Farrell and the two indulged in a whispered conversation.

"The senator is coming around," announced Farrell, "and is willing to compromise." "But only at the suggestion of Senator Dennis and others," answered Norblad angrily, "and you suggested it before I did."

Senator Jones conceded that he "knew little about fish until I met the senator from Astoria." Jones, of Welch ancestry, resented some of Norblad's remarks. A Welshman can insult a Welshman, but a Swede never can," he declared. Norblad was frequent in his interruptions, causing Senator Thomas to remark: "We listened to Senator Norblad for an hour and a half without interrupting him. If we are going to allow him to interrupt every senator who speaks I suggest we furnish him with a pair of roller skates so he can get around over the chamber more quickly and not take up so much time."

At this point Dennis moved to amend the Norblad seining bill to make it effective January 1, 1922. Farrell attempted to amend the motion to make it two years, but this failed and the Dennis amendment carried. Eddy sought to have the emergency clauses removed from the bills, but they were allowed to stay to forestall referendum. Banks brought the proceedings to a close by moving adoption of the bills section by section.

Norblad declared that only five Oregon purse seiners are licensed to fish, while 172 Washington operators have Oregon licenses. He averred that they had cleaned out days of Lincoln and Washington will also be remembered by the W. C. T. U.

Miss Franke Houde returned the first of the week from Corvallis, where she spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Houde.

The Three Links club is entertaining with a juvenile Valentine party at the home of Mrs. W. A. Alton Cummings tomorrow night, members of the club to attend garbed in the costume of juveniles, and to participate in diversion suitable to the occasion.

Friends of the W. P. Babcocks are rejoicing with them over the rapid recovery of Bertha Babcock who was severely injured Saturday, resultant from a fall from her bicycle.

Mrs. W. W. Cory and Mrs. J. A. Carr have returned from Portland where they accompanied Finley and Hudson Carr, who were on their way to their home in Lebanon, Ind., after an extended visit in Salem. During their stay in Portland all were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kellogg.

A large attendance including a number of wives of legislators, was noted at the social afternoon of the Order of the Eastern Star Tuesday. Five hundred was the order of entertainment, Miss Dorothy Buckner winning high score.

Mrs. J. G. Meddler will open her home this afternoon to the "Home Gears," the children's missionary society of the Leslie Methodist church, the occasion being the regular monthly entertainment date of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Grilley of 1488 North Liberty street, returned yesterday from an extended visit with the E. M. Law family at Jefferson.

The regular monthly class meeting of the Loyal Sons and Daughters of the Bungalow Christian church was held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. F. A. Baker, 355 North Eighteenth street. After the business meeting an informal evening was enjoyed. The house was decorated with valentines. At a late hour refreshments, bearing out the valentine scheme, were served. There were 31 present.

the waters of Puget Sound and are now cleaning up the Oregon waters, and asserted that if Alaska fishermen descend upon the Oregon coast they will ruin the fishing industry of $12,000,000 annual value to the state. "I feel the fighting blood of my Viking ancestors swell within me whenever I think about these damnable purse seiners," shouted Norblad. He declared he would introduce a memorial asking congress to put a tariff on Japanese crab meat to protect the domestic crab industry, which in Oregon he said is being ruined by purse seiners.

Senator Norblad read a letter of the purse seine industry in which it was claimed that the equipment of the Oregon seiners is valued at $250,000. "It is a damnable lie," asserted Norblad, shaking his fist at the row of seafaring men in the front seats of the visitors' gallery. "There are only five Oregon fishermen among them, and where in hell do they get $250,000. Their equipment is not worth over $15,000. You are a bunch of curs when you say it is more."

Senator Gill termed the Jones bill a wise compromise between the contending factions, and referring to Norblad's long speech, mentioned him as the possible congressional candidate.

Senator Farrell replied at length to Norblad, referring to his speech with quotations to the effect that "Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad," and "An empty barrel makes more noise than a full one." Paving his respects to Norblad's trolling bill, Farrell declared it would be unconstitutional because it prevents troll fishing in all the waters over which the state of Oregon does not have jurisdiction.

"This bill attempts to prohibit troll fishing in California and Japan," said Farrell. While it is conceded that this section of the bill is absurd, it is said it would not invalidate the act.

Senator Dennis urged a compromise by amending the bill to give the fishermen leeway of one year in which to prepare for the proposed ban. Farrell urged two years. Norblad first insisted he would not temporize, but shortly approached Farrell and the two indulged in a whispered conversation.

"The senator is coming around," announced Farrell, "and is willing to compromise." "But only at the suggestion of Senator Dennis and others," answered Norblad angrily, "and you suggested it before I did."

Senator Jones conceded that he "knew little about fish until I met the senator from Astoria." Jones, of Welch ancestry, resented some of Norblad's remarks. A Welshman can insult a Welshman, but a Swede never can," he declared.

Norblad was frequent in his interruptions, causing Senator Thomas to remark: "We listened to Senator Norblad for an hour and a half without interrupting him. If we are going to allow him to interrupt every senator who speaks I suggest we furnish him with a pair of roller skates so he can get around over the chamber more quickly and not take up so much time."

At this point Dennis moved to amend the Norblad seining bill to make it effective January 1, 1922. Farrell attempted to amend the motion to make it two years, but this failed and the Dennis amendment carried. Eddy sought to have the emergency clauses removed from the bills, but they were allowed to stay to forestall referendum. Banks brought the proceedings to a close by moving adoption of the bills section by section.

Coming Sunday—PAULINE FREDERICK "The Slave of Vanity" Another Special GRAND Where the Big Shows Play

Make My Business YOUR BUSINESS Let Me Pay The Expenses Many people do not like the business end of the fancy poultry business. I do. Suppose you raise FAVORELLES and let me sell your stock and eggs at good prices. I have more orders than I can fill. I cannot increase my capacity at home. I need more local customers. I believe I can help you and I know you can help me. Day-old chicks are in demand. Stock in large numbers are wanted. Eggs by the 100 are required. I will start you right. I will lose on you now but will gain in the future. I have advertised but little locally—hence the scarcity of Faverolles around Salem. My Show Offer For the best cockerel or pullet from my eggs at the next Salem or Portland winter show I will give 15 eggs from my best stock. EUGENE T. PRESCOTT, Salem, Oregon, R. F. D. No. 2.

section, and the vote followed under suspension of the rules as soon as the committee of the whole was dissolved. The vote on the purse seining bill was as follows: For—Banks, Bell, Dennis, Eberhard, Eddy, Edwards, Ellis, Hill, Hare, Joseph, Lachmund, Moser, Nickelsen, Norblad, Patterson, Robertson, Ryan, Smith, Staples, Strayer, Upton, Vinton, Rittner. Against—Farrell, Hume, Jones, La Follett, Thomas. Absent—Gill. Excused—Porter. On the trolling bill the vote was: For—Banks, Bell, Dennis, Eberhard, Eddy, Edwards, Ellis, Hill, Hare, Joseph, Lachmund, Moser, Norblad, Patterson, Porter, Robertson, Ryan, Smith, Staples, Upton, Vinton, Rittner. Against—Farrell, Hume, Jones, La Follett, Nickelsen, Strayer, Thomas. Absent—Gill. On both Jones changed his vote presumably to enable him to move for reconsideration.

It is claimed that the new income tax blanks are beautiful specimens of the designer's art, and that they are calculated to bring joy to all recipients. Yes, that is what they say about them. They are up to date, too, and all have a beautiful figure.

It is claimed that the new income tax blanks are beautiful specimens of the designer's art, and that they are calculated to bring joy to all recipients. Yes, that is what they say about them. They are up to date, too, and all have a beautiful figure.

IS IT MADE IN SALEM OR IN OREGON? APPLY that simple little question in making purchases. If the public would do it, the merchants would do it. The result would be a speeding up of home industry and the re-employment of our men and women, and corresponding prosperity for ALL. If you want your own balance at the United States National to GROW, give consideration to this problem. United States National Bank SALEM OREGON

Charm and Elegance Permeate Every Line of These NEW SPRING SUITS So charming in design and so varied in detail are the suits of this new spring showing that your expectations will be more than satisfied. The new suits in our showing include a handsome selection of straight line models, with and without belts, attractive ripple effects; some fetchingly designed with front and back panels and side ripples. They are shown in the most favored materials and colorings. $22.50 to $45.00 Our Prices Always the Lowest GALE & COMPANY Court and Commercial Street Formerly Chicago Store

Each Day Sees More Bargains in Our February Clear Sale A-Way Sale Every day we receive more and still more of the best bargains the east can produce. GET OUR SUIT PRICES FIRST Today's Specials 1 gallon best Salad Oil in bulk $1.39 1 gallon Mazola Oil $1.98 1/2 gallon can Covo or Douglas 87c 1 gallon Kero Syrup 69c All Wool Slip-Ons $1.98 Ottoman Cloth-all-wool $1.98 and up All Dresses have had drastic reductions. THE PEOPLE'S CASH STORE SALEM ORE. Shop Where the Crowds Buy Shop Where the Crowds Buy Spring Voiles The loveliness of Spring is certainly expressed in the New Voiles, just received The designs are decidedly new and most charming, and the prices will be found exceptionally low. "New Things" are arriving daily. MILLER'S Good Goods

With Salads Snow Flakes are just the thing to serve with all kinds of salads. To make sandwiches for lunches and suppers. With soups and bouillions, of course. In fact, there are so many ways you can use this dainty member of the P. C. B. family, you'll want to keep a generous supply on hand. Buy them from your grocer in red packages or family tins. Don't ask for crackers—ask SNOW FLAKES. P. C. B. PANAMA CREAMS Another P. C. B. product. A chocolate flavored cream sandwich. A great favorite. Your grocer can supply you. Pacific Coast Biscuit Co.

Now Playing "HELIOTROPE" GRAND "Where the Big Shows Play" Salem School of Expression Lulu Rosamond Walton, Director 147 N. Commercial Phone 592-1484J Special Course in Public Speaking EVENTUALLY You Will Buy THE HOOVER SUCTION SWEEPER Why not get the best at first WM. GAHLSORF, The Store of Housewares