And ten times $30,000 would not be enough to build such a mill. No mill in the Willamette valley could handle them. Then boxes are successfully made only as a by-product of a saw mill, in this district. The main part of the log must be marketed in lumber of various grades. And a saw mill of the modern kind could not work many convicts. The main part of the force would have to be highly trained experts, drawing high wages. Then the freight rates on logs from the Coast region is prohibitive-absolutely. Logs cannot be hauled over the mountains at all. There are no trains heavy enough. Then a mill pond would have to be made at the penitentiary, and this would pollute the water supply of the Salem paper mill, and its owners would fight for their lives in

And they would win. Of course they would win. They have rights; vested rights; rights that are right and good

The first year $9000 is the amount on which interest is computed. The last year only $450 will remain unpaid.

The average principal will be found by adding $9000 and $450 and dividing by 2. which gives $4725, on which $366 interest is paid each year, using the common rule for finding rate when principal and interest are given,

Proof: $9000 at his rate for one year, $697.14 2-7: $450 at this rate for one year, $34.85 5-7. Total, $732. Divided by 2 gives $366—the amount which was

How the bill got to the enrolled bills committee is a mystery. The detection of the error by Mr. Davey probably saved considerable confusion and embarrassment later in the session. The bill in question is the free text book bill. A less important bill might have gotten by without notice. Representative Davey demonstrated that he is on the job every minute.

> Mayor Peterson and City Attorney Foster of Eugene are in the city in the interest of the legislation which would compel countles to return to cittes the amount of road money raised within such cities. This legislation has run against a snag because of the fact that county commissioners state that road programs would be disrupted by such legislation, which would take from county courts the handling of a large amount of money now used for general road work. The city of Eugene suggested this legislation. It is understood that opponents of this legislation have suggested an amendment which would permit this manner of proceeding for one year and put it up to the next legislature for turther action.
