

SOCIETY

BY MOLLY BRUNK

MEMBERS of the Salem Commercial club, their wives and friends are anticipating a concert to be given by the Salem Symphony orchestra this evening in the club auditorium, which is to be a complimentary performance. A mixed program will be presented, to begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters of Hoquiam, Wash., formerly of Salem, who arrived about a week ago to make an extended visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cotterman, were the inspiration for an enjoyable evening of cards, which Mrs. Clarence Townsend arranged for last night. Several tables were arranged for "500" in the rooms made festive with hearts, cups and other emblems of St. Valentine's day.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pade, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Taylor, Mrs. Winnie Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Townsend.

Mrs. O. P. Hoff entertained as her mid-week guest Mrs. Guy Reynolds of Portland.

Mrs. George Sewell of Roseburg is the guest of Mrs. Marie Flint.

Mrs. B. O. Schueckling has gone to Denver, Colo., being called there by the very serious illness of her brother, Warren Gilbert.

Malcolm Smith will come down from O. A. C. tonight to spend the week-end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr.

An enjoyable surprise was planned for I. D. Hutchinson by Mrs. Hutchinson, the affair which took place Tuesday night at their cottage at the Fairgrounds, being in honor of the former's birthday. All the insignia of St. Valentine's day was introduced in the decorations. Informal entertainment was furnished, culminating with a late supper, which featured a birthday cake, lighted by 46 pink and white tapers.

Those asked to participate were Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ragsdale, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Beamer, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Z. J. Riggs, Miss Esther Davis, Miss Mary Ragsdale, Miss Ruth Hutchinson, Miss Edna Lorey, Joseph Davis, Thos. Ireland, Harry Wright and Willis Shinn.

Salem friends of Rev. E. B. Lockhart, who was recently appointed to a pastorate in Jefferson, are much interested in the illustrated lecture, which he is planning to give shortly in Jefferson.

person. He will speak on his work in France, Germany and Poland.

Mrs. V. H. Mackenzie was another hostess entertaining with a farewell compliment for Miss Lillian Holdane, who left Thursday for Alberta, Canada, to make her home. Mrs. Mackenzie contributed a small dinner Wednesday night, at her apartments in the Court, another guest being Mr. Watson of Philadelphia. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Laflair joined the group.

Miss Julia Parker of Portland arrived this week and will be entertained for several days at the house guest of Mrs. Frank Davey.

The English play, "The Amazons," by Sir Arthur Pinero, will be given in the high school auditorium this evening under the auspices of the associated student body. Miss Josephine Bross will take the leading feminine part.

Others appearing in the cast are Miss Florence Bell, Miss Helena Seeley, Miss Mabel Marcus, Miss Frances Ward, Frank Chapman, Donald Davidson, Arthur Montgomery, Ralph Hamilton, Joseph Albright, Alden Roberts, Roland Reinhardt, Miss Beatrice Thompson, English teacher, coached the group.

The Willamette University Glee club is expected home the last of the week from its extensive northwestern tour. The final out-of-town concert will be given in Portland tomorrow night with a home concert later.

"Last Monday," says the Brownsville Times, of Friday, February 11, "being the 40th birthday of M. S. Woodworth, principal of the south side school, and Sunday being the 40th birthday of Miss Geraldine Davidson, also of the same school, the eighth grade engineered a surprise birthday dinner at noon in the school-house, each member bringing a well-filled basket. Three other teachers were invited to partake of the dinner, namely, Miss Blanchard, Miss Beatrice Wolgamuth and Mrs. Johnson."

Geraldine Davidson is a former Salem girl, being the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Davidson of 1534 South Commercial street.

A group of members of the Order of the Eastern Star went to Turner Wednesday night, where they were guests of the local chapter. Among those going were Miss Minnie Mosher, Mrs. F. E. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunsford, Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingsham, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites, Mrs. M. C. Pettys and Mrs. Utley.

St. Paul's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. Lenta Westacott, 575 Court street, this afternoon.

The presence in the city of May Yohe (Lady Frances Hope), did not create so great a furor as might be expected. Those who met her outside the theatre, where she gave a two-day performance, found her a most charming woman, very handsome, and the possessor of a personality of rare interest.

For many years owner and wearer of the famous Hope diamond, it was to this fact that she owed her claim to world-wide notoriety. But it was not because of being known as Lady Frances Hope, nor owner of the famous diamond that London was at her feet following her marriage to the English lord, however, but on account of her being considered the most beautiful woman in all England. In addition to being beautiful she possessed a wonderfully rich and deep contralto voice, and she still takes pride in entertaining with songs, both popular and classic. Among the selections she sings is "My Dear Old Georgia," probably the most popular of all her selections. She also tells stories and is an entertainer.

The juvenile party given by Mrs. W. Al Cummings last Friday for the members of the Three Links club was a delightful affair, participated in by several additional guests as well. Festoons of hearts and pussy willow made the rooms attractive. Assistant hostesses were Miss Hazel Price, Mrs. W. L. Marsh, Mrs. Damon Fleener and Mrs. Fred Riedesel.

Entertainment suitable to the occasion was furnished, the following giving numbers on the program: Mrs. A. H. Bunn, Mrs. O. A. Noyes, Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mrs. W. Al Cummings, Mrs. Fred Riedesel.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance. The Philodemos of the university will hold an open meeting this afternoon at four o'clock, at which time alumni in the city will be welcomed as guests.

Members of the Catholic Woman's league held a regular meeting in the Knights of Columbus hall yesterday afternoon.

A double wedding took place in Shaw Wednesday night, which united in marriage, Miss Alma F. Larson and Jacob F. Young, and Miss Eva K. Larson and Roy S. Scofield. Attending the former were Miss Alice Peterson and Beau-lie D. Young, a brother of the bridegroom. Standing with the second couple were Miss Minnie Peterson and William C. James.

The ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and friends, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Larson, and was performed by Rev. R. L. Putnam of the Court street Christian church. A wedding collation followed. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Young will be at home on the Young ranch at Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Scofield to reside on a farm near Marion.

CLOVERDALE PERSONALS

CLOVERDALE, Ore., Feb. 17. (Special to The Statesman)—A light snow fell here Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hadley drove to Marion last Wednesday to attend the Friends meeting there. They found the roads almost impassable this time of year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates and daughter, Olive, of Gage, Montana, arrived here Friday. They are stopping at present at the home of J. M. Hamilton. They expect to locate in Oregon and although this is their first visit to the state they are very favorably impressed with the country.

Louis Hennis visited Salem Saturday evening. Mrs. Herman Wiper was called to Turner to the bedside of her daughter, Winnie, who was taken sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Ball.

Mrs. J. D. Craig visited Salem the last of the week.

Mrs. F. A. Wood is on the sick list again.

The Baptist minister did not arrive here Sunday as expected but gave out that he would come next Sunday.

"Doesn't it give you a kind of humble feeling to meet a girl you used to be engaged to long ago?" "Yep. Always make me wonder whether her taste used to be as bad as mine was."—Life.

Mother—Oh, Freddy, I thought you were trying to economize, and here I find you with both jam and butter on your bread. Freddy—Why, of course, mother. One piece of bread does for both.
