GERMAN COALITION

Complete Returns From 23 Electior. Districts Are Lacking

BERLIN, Feb. 21,-Complete verified 'returns from 23 election districts still were lacking at 6 p. m. The belief prevails that the political complexion of the first diet of the Prussian free state will be such as to insure a coalition cabinet comprising the same party representation now retiring from office. The majority Socialists, the national people's party and the commun- banks. ists seem to have made the only gains by Sunday's balloting. Die Freiheit, organ of the independent Socialists, reluctantly admits that the cause of socialism received a serious setback. Vorwaerts, the mouthpiece of the majority Socialists, concedes that the balance of power now is with the Bourgeois party. fered a staggering blow, losing on railroads and utilities.

This has been one of the surprises of the election, as it was taken for granted that defections from the independent ranks would prove a gain for the German bolheviki exclusively. The conservative and Pan-

German organs hail the growing strength of the German national Volks party as a "strong beginning in the direction of a recovery of political sanity."
