

By MOLLY BRUNK

CELEBRATION in honor of "The Father of his Country" really began last night when the Washingtonian society of Willamette University gave a banquet of many covers, many speeches and a liberal display of youthful patriotism.

Tonight, out at the Ilhae Country club, the dancing contingent will participate in its first club affair of the new year. At the same time the Salem Shrine club will make merry amid surroundings that are of a purely Washingtonian nature in moose Moose hall. Tomorrow night the stately figures in powdered wigs, costumes and gowns that date back to Colonial times will revive the days and spirit of Washington, the occasion being the annual masquerade of the Wednesday night Club, the scene to be laid in Moose Hall.

A number of dinners and suppers will be inspired by these affairs and the date will also be drawn upon for the motif of much entertaining on the part of the younger crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jacobs went to Portland the last of the week to be gone several days.

Mrs. Eugene Eckert returned the last of the week from Portland, where she had been spending several days as the guests of friends.

The social club of the Order of the Eastern Star will meet this afternoon in Masonic Temple for a Kensington and art study. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. W. H. Brunk, Mrs. Fred Brook, Mrs. John Biewer, and Mrs. Thomas Brunk. These pleasant affairs are always eagerly anticipated by both members and visitors.

As a final attention in compliment to Miss Creta Olinger, of Everett, Wash., who returned to her home Sunday, after an extended visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. William Ramsden entertained at a dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for the following: Miss Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy, Miss Elizabeth Shelley, of Everett, Wash., Miss Inez Fitts, Budd Weich and Bob Parker.

The Elks dance Saturday night was a delightful affair largely attended by members of the legislature and several additional out-of-town people. A popular feature was the singing of numbers while the dancing was in progress by Mrs. William H. Brunk and O. B. Gingrich, both responding to many encores.

Miss Clara Page and Miss Fannie Morrison returned last evening from Portland, where they had been visitors for two weeks.

The Women's Missionary society of Auburn will hold a social evening at the home of Miss Mabel Williams Wednesday evening. An invitation is extended to all to attend the meeting, at which the lesson will be a study of the early missionary society of the Evangelical church. A musical program will follow the lesson study and the ladies of the missionary society will serve refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey were hosts on Sunday for a family reunion dinner, the occasion being the fourth wedding anniversary of their son, and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Davey. Covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Davey, Mrs. Clifford Bowen and daughter Marion, of Baker City; Mrs. Edward Domogalla and her daughter Jean, of Astoria; Miss Julia Parker, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Royal and daughter, Kathryn, and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cochran and son Royal, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Royal at 640 South 18th street.

C. L. Royal is employed in the service of the Southern Pacific company at Dunsmuir, Cal. L. E. Cochran is arranging to move to acreage south of Salem which he has recently purchased.

This afternoon a number of members of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will go to Portland to the guests of Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, founder of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Oregon and for eight years a state regent, who will entertain at a large tea at the University club. Invitations have been issued to every daughter in the state. Mrs. John Keating, state regent, and Mrs. John Pearson, regent of the Multnomah Chapter, will make short talks. Music and dancing will follow the patriotic program.

Mrs. E. Cooke Patton and Miss Luella Patton were among Salem folk spending the week-end in Portland.

Members of the Salem Business and Professional Women's clubs are much interested in the two-day meeting in Portland which begins today, and which is to be attended by Mrs. Lena Lake Forrest, president of the National Federation of Professional and Business Women's clubs, who is in Oregon to organize a state federation.

Mrs. Forrest will attend an informal meeting in the blue room of the Portland from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Tuesday. She will assist in a meeting for organization to be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in the blue room of the hotel Portland. Following a luncheon to be given for her Wednesday at 1 p.m. in Hotel Portland, the executive council of the Portland club and delegates will meet. A general business meeting will be held in the auditorium of Hotel Portland on Wednesday at 8 p.m., when it is hoped that delegates from Portland clubs will attend.

The following item is from the Albany Democrat of Saturday: Miss Caroline P. Bostreck, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bostreck, who live on Pine street, and Carl Martin of Salem, were married yesterday afternoon at the Grace Presbyterian manse by Rev. A. D. Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Martin left immediately for Salem, where they will reside. The ceremony was witnessed only by immediate friends of the contracting parties.

Miss Evelyn Johnson of Roseburg, who has been in Salem during the session of the legislature, acting as secretary for Representative Hopkins, has returned to her home.

Miss Lucille Emmons, of the faculty of Albany College, spent the week-end at the W. W. Emmons home.

Miss Helen Rose, a student at the University of Oregon, is spending the week-end holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ostendorf (Sadie Heath) are house guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Heath, having arrived last week from an extended southern trip, which included visits in Los Angeles, San Diego, Santa Anna, and Tijuana, Mexico, and various other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Riches were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Riches.

Mrs. Ella Martin and daughter Miss Dorothy Martin are being entertained as house guests at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Huddleston. The visitors are from Boise, Idaho, and arrived in Salem the last of the week.

CUT THIS—IT IS WORTH MONEY

Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup; Foley's Kidney Pills for pains in sides and back; rheumatism, backache and bladder ailments; and Foley's Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, biliousness, headaches and sluggish bowels. Sold everywhere. (adv.)

Numerous Bills Are Passed in Upper House

The senate yesterday passed the following bills:

S. B. 377, Committee on county and state officers—Increasing salaries of Lane county officers.

S. B. 288, Ellis—Providing that money accruing from abandoned school districts may draw interest.

S. B. 343, Norblad—Increasing salary of constable for Astoria precinct.

S. B. 374, Judiciary committee—Placing abstractors under supervision of insurance commissioner, giving a year to qualify under the act.

S. B. 309, Joseph—Providing for special election June 7.

S. B. 378, Lachmund—To increase the salary of the governor from $5000 to $7500.

S. B. 337, Hare—Providing that state fair funds be audited by secretary of state as other funds.

S. B. 376, Committee on railroads and utilities—To provide additional compensation for utility commissioners due to additional duties under the compensation act.

S. B. 328, Senator Ritner and Representative Bean—Authorizing governor to appoint a committee to investigate additional sources of public revenue.

S. B. 292, Senator Hall and Representative Bennett—To provide relief for Mrs. Edwin G. Scott and Mrs. Clyde R. Dindinger.

H. B. 199, Martin—Relating to foreclosure of certificate of delinquency.

H. B. 212, McFarland—To prevent bribing of baseball umpires.

H. B. 328, Committee on judiciary—Regulating the price of Oregon supreme court reports, authorizing state printer to publish reports in lieu of suitable contracts elsewhere.

H. B. 297, Kuhl—Raising amount allowed for each child under mother's pension act, discretionary with county court.

H. B. 280, Lynn—Regulating salaries of deputy labor commissioners.

H. B. 177, Perry—Relating to apportionment of school money.

H. B. 241, Belknap—Providing for the abolition of school districts desired by the county boundary board.

H. B. 326, Leonard—To confirm transfer of Oregon building at San Francisco from state to ninth corps of army.

H. B. 327, Fletcher—To repeal law setting apart portion of city of Newport as special road district.

H. B. 342, Committee on revision—Relating to recording of defective deeds.

H. B. 215, Sheldon—Providing for three classes of school districts.

H. B. 266, Gallagher—Changing personnel of livestock sanitary board and providing for increase in salary of state veterinarian.

A Clear Brain and healthy body are essential for success. Business men, teachers, students, housewives and other workers say Hood's Sarsaparilla gives them appetite and strength, and makes their work seem easy. It overcomes that tired feeling. (adv.)

Water Appropriation Permits Are Filed

Applications for permit to appropriate water have been filed in the office of Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, by F. G. Gowing of Joseph, Or., covering the appropriation of water from Sheep creek ditch for irrigation and supplemental supply for 25 acres in Wallowa county. Other applications follow:

By J. K. Barry of Fossil, Wheeler county, covering the appropriation of water from Wagner Canyon creek for irrigation of 18 acres.

By the Ancient River Gold Mining company of Rogue river, covering the appropriation of water from Rogue river for placer mining purposes.

By J. F. Hansen of Lakeview, covering the appropriation of water from Dry creek and tributaries for domestic supply and irrigation of approximately 1600 acres in Lake county.

By J. V. Halas of Portland, covering the appropriation of water from Fall or Big creek for domestic and power purposes.

By the Peite Mann Irrigating company of Hereford, covering the appropriation of water from Lightning creek, Dry gulch, Spring gulch and Clear creek for irrigation and supplemental supply for lands in Baker county.

By Leo and Rose Potter of Rogue river, covering the appropriation of water from Stine gulch for milling and placer mining purposes in Jackson county.

By J. H. and E. C. Woodcock of Maupin, covering the appropriation of 225 second feet from Deschutes river for power development.

By M. J. Foster of Grants Pass covering the appropriation of Applegate river water for irrigation of a 13-acre tract in Josephine county.

Clerk of the Shore Hotel—Five dollars, sir, for room with bath. Farmer Harrower (after consultation with his wife)—But we don't want no room with a bath. We're goin' to wash in the ocean every three or four days.—Judge.

TODAY—Also Thurs.—Fri.—Sat. MIDSUMMER MADNESS
The show you have been waiting for
GRAND

Borden's
EVAPORATED MILK

Perfectly pure—always rich and creamy. It is the real all purpose milk.

With the cream left in

BUY YOUR CLOTHING THIS WEEK AT--

BISHOP'S
2 FOR the PRICE of 1

ONLY SIX MORE DAYS SALE TAKE FAIR WARNING

Certainly Never Before—Possibly Never Again
So to Be Sure, Buy
Suits, Overcoats, Shirts, Neckwear, Etc.
At Salem's Greatest Sale

In Order to Make the Selling Lively for the LAST WEEK OF OUR SALE

We Have Added 200 Suits Made of
METCALF SILK-MIXED WORSTEDS
Sold Regular at from $40 to $65
Models for Men and Young Men--All Sizes--at
TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE

This Is Positively the Most Attractive Offer We Have Made at Any Time

SALEM WOOLEN
MILLS STORE

No need to sacrifice tastiness of food value in your efforts to keep living costs down.

That is, if you know the tempting, satisfying goodness and real economy of DEL MONTE BEANS cooked with Tomato Sauce.

Salem School of Expression
Lulu Rosamond Walton, Director
147 N. Commercial
Phone 592-1484J
Special Course in Public Speaking

Special Delineator Offer

The best magazine in America

The Delineator

Strictly a Home Magazine, of especial interest for the whole family. Excellent articles that "Dad" would read with interest and benefit, and has also good, clean, thrilling, well written stories for the "children." "Mother" and the "young ladies" will find in the "Delineator" the authentic fashions, accepted by the best dressed women of the country.

It shows the newest styles, and gives the Butterick Pattern number for such garments, all of which can be made at home; and with the late invention of Buttericks,

"The Deltor System"
Home dressmaking has been revolutionized.

This Special Delineator Offer for a few days only

Call at our Pattern Counter

MILLER'S
Good Goods