MEMBERS of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and several members of Sarah Childress Polk chapter of Dallas, will spend today at the state house, preparing for the two-day conference Friday and Saturday.

An interesting thing concerning the two chapters that are to serve as hostesses in Salem, is that Chemeketa chapter was the first chapter organized by Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson as state regent, and that it was she, who gave the name of the wife of President Polk to Dallas chapter. Mrs. Polk has been honored in distinctive ways in the national capital, and it is eminently fitting that Polk county's chapter bear her name. The 18 chapters of Oregon will all be represented at the conference. There are about 800 members of the organization in the state.

Four distinct lines of work are to be emphasized in the programs, as follows: Historical research of each chapter in their local district; old trails of Oregon, of which Mrs. Mary Barlow Wilkins has made a complete study and will discuss; Americanization, by Ester Allen Jones; home teachers' bill, and how it affects local conditions.

Four distinguished speakers will be heard at the conference. Mrs. Della Thompson Lutes of Coopersburg, N. Y., editor of "Today's Housewife"; Mrs. W. D. Field, regent of the Paul Revere chapter of Boston, Mass.; Governor Otcott, who will feature his talk by a display of some rare old relics; Dean Elizabeth Fox of the University of Oregon, who will discuss international relations.

One of the most delightful features of the conference will be a remarkable collection of colored lantern slides of Sargent's pictures of the sailing and landing of the Pilgrim Fathers, giving the story from their departure from Holland to the landing in America.

Mrs. David Wright was a hostess Saturday afternoon, entertaining in celebration of the eighth birthday of her daughter, Eleanor. A group of playmates were bidden to pass the afternoon with games and juvenile pastimes, fees in the form of shamrocks served as refreshments, giving, with the decorations of daffodils, the necessary suggestion of St. Patrick's day.

Small folk present were Eleanor Wright, Dorothy Moore, Laverna Linn, Virgilina Berger, Evelyn Berger, Dorothy Stafford, Minnie Schrode, Eloise Wright, Margaret Helzel, Bert Hoffine, Charles Kay Bishop, Wesley Heise and Linn Heise.

Mrs. A. T. Woolpert returned home Monday after a four week's absence, the time being passed in Boise and Aberdeen, Idaho. In the former place Mrs. Woolpert was with her mother Mrs. William Fugate, and sister Miss Fugate and in the latter place she was entertained as the guest of another sister Mrs. T. A. Fugate.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound accompanied by Miss Grace Savage went to Portland the last of the week. Dr. Pound returning home Monday, Mrs. Pound and Miss Savage to remain several days this week as the guests of relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. S. Tillinghast, Mrs. Cecilia Watson and the former's son, Edward Tillinghast, are home from Los Angeles, where they enjoyed a month's visit. Accompanying them north were Mrs. C. W. Hagen and Miss Deana Hagen of Winnipeg, who are passing the week in Salem before going on to their home.

PRaises DRIVERS.
Miss Wilma Albecher, a senior at Holyoke College, who traveled eighty miles with four other girls who received an invitation to a weekend party at Miss Albecher's home. When found they were low in funds they started to walk, automobiles gave them a lift and they reached home in time for the day's enjoyment.

joyed animal cookies, stick candy and oranges.

Those present were: Mrs. Roy E. Pomeroy, Esther Matternud, Lena Morvics, Frances Elliott, Agnes Bayne, Trista Wenger, Lavilla Perry, Oral McClain, Marian Zinger, Mrs. Etta Bradford, Gertrude Tucker, Elsie Beckner, Ruth Edwards, Doris Siler, Margaret Peattie, Mrs. C. R. Goodwin, Mrs. O. A. Melgaard, Dorris Sikes, Eva L. Scott.

Mrs. Effie M. Savage and Mrs. W. E. Savage entertained in honor of Mrs. J. F. Savage's birthday at the home of the former. Covers were laid for 16. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Savage, Mrs. Effie M. Savage and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Savage and family, Miss Grace Savage, Miss Knapp, Miss Atilda Vavra and Miss Florence Lacy were the guests.

The St. Patrick's entertainment that was to be given this evening in the Highland school, for the benefit of the branch library, has been indefinitely postponed.

CLARK MUST DO TIME IN PRISON

Supreme Court Upholds Conviction of Lane County Man For Killing

Martin A. Clark, who, in one of the most famous trials ever held in western Oregon, was convicted of manslaughter on a charge of killing Charles L. Taylor in Lane county on July 25, 1915, must serve his term of four years in the state penitentiary as decreed by the circuit court in Lane county. The supreme court yesterday, in an opinion by Justice McBride, affirms the lower court. Judge G. F. Skipworth being the trial judge.

Clark was indicted for second degree murder and was found guilty on that charge. The verdict was set aside, however, and a new trial granted, the court holding that there was no evidence to justify the verdict. The second trial resulted in a conviction of manslaughter and this verdict was accompanied by a recommendation of leniency. Clark was sentenced to serve one year in the state prison. The supreme court opinion states that all evidence in the case was substantial. Other opinions of the supreme court were:

I. W. Bailey, appellant, vs. Security Insurance company; appeal from Jackson county; suit on insurance policy. Opinion by Justice Brown. Judge F. M. Calkins affirmed.

In matter of estate of Napoleon Legault, deceased, Leota Le Gault, appellant, vs. P. E. Newell et al; appeal from Multnomah county; contest of will. Opinion by Justice McBride. Judge George Tazewell affirmed.

Riceell Kendall vs. Herman Miller et al, appellant; appeal from Yamhill county; injunction suit to prevent defendant from interfering with gate across right of way. Opinion by Justice Bean. Judge George G. Bingham reversed.

Mary V. Lee, appellant, vs. Mary L. Gram, executrix of estate George L. Colwell, deceased; appeal from Multnomah county on motion to dismiss and motion of plaintiff to amend notice; both motions overruled by Chief Justice Burnett.

Rehearing granted in Montague O'Reilly company vs. Milwaukee. Disgusted Professor—What did you come to college for, anyway? Transcript.

You are not studying. Bobby Rahrah — Well, mother says it's to fit me for the presidency; Uncle Jim, he says my wife says: sister Helen, to get a chum for her to marry; and dad, to bankrupt the family. — Boston Transcript.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—(adv.)
