offered baby Favorolles at 35 cents each. I thought the price was so high that I would get just about the right amount of orders. The paper had barely been mailed when here came an avalanche of orders for baby Favorolles.

Orders for hatching eggs began to come in. I was swamped. I sat dazed. I pinched myself to be sure I was not dreaming. I was awake but for a while I sat dreaming—dreaming a day dream—a wideawake dream.

Several years have passed. I have never offered baby Favorolles since that time but am constantly receiving orders for them.

ANOTHER HELD IN YODER CASE. Guettel, the police said. They also declared that he answered the description of the man wanted at Woodburn, according to the circulars sent out by Marion county authorities.

Yoder was found shot to death by the roadside after having started to take a stranger to Salem by automobile.

Guettel, or Fitchel, is the third man to be arrested on suspicion of having knowledge of the Yoder murder. The first was Harry Staben, who was released this week from the Marion county jail after an incarceration of 10 days, during which he satisfied the authorities that he had no knowledge of the affair.

Sheriff O. D. Bower said last night that he had been informed Woodburn persons would go to Oregon City and attempt to identify the prisoner.

SILVERTON MAY HAVE CITY HALL

Citizens Talk of Erecting Structure in Lieu of Armory Building

SILVERTON, Ore., March 18.—(Special to The Statesman)—The report has become current that the people of Silverton are planning to build a city hall of rather pretentious proportions in lieu of the armory which the county did not allow. Mayor L. C. Eastman said in an interview today that nothing to this effect has been brought up before the council but added that there is some talk about it among the citizens of Silverton.

Lawrence Larsen, one of the councilmen, said in a later interview that several of the Silverton business men seem to favor the building of a city hall but that he doubts if such action will be taken.
