PERSHING HITS PROPAGANDISTS

Denounces Foreign Born Who Would Weaken U. S. and Allies

AMERICA AN INSPIRATION

Commander-in-Chief Talks At Mass Meet Against "Horror on Rhine"

NEW YORK, March 18.—General John J. Pershing, speaking before a crowd which packed Madison Square Garden tonight at one of the greatest and most dramatic scenes here since the signing of the armistice, bitterly denounced persons of foreign birth who seek the freedom of this country to spread "political and warlike propaganda" to weaken the ties of friendship between the United States and her allies in the late war. The meeting was held under the auspices of the American legion and other patriotic societies as a protest against the recent mass meeting arranged to voice objection to the presence of French colonial troops in occupied Germany described as the "horror on the Rhine."

Colonel Frank Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the American legion, presided.

Pays Tribute to Soldiers—General Pershing paying tribute to foreign-born citizens who served under him in the Philippines, Mexico and France, declared it was entirely proper that foreigners should cling to the folklore of literature and music of the native land, but he assailed those who seek to dictate American questions and political policies by the standards of their own countries.

"We have no quarrel with the American of foreign birth," he said. "We want them to know that America is an inspiration. But we do object to the foreign born citizen who attempts to decide an American question for a foreign reason, whether he be of German lineage and proposes to determine an American policy because of German prejudice or whether he be Irish, Italian, Hungarian or Russian, who seeks for similar reasons to decide American questions. I bitterly resent the abuse of American citizenship or residence for the purpose of political or warlike propaganda in foreign countries."

"In America there can be no place for those who, while claiming equal citizenship with us and enjoying its privileges under our flag, yet continue their allegiance to another land, to which we come all those who honestly desire to become American citizens and adopt America as their own, but we abhor the intriguer, who at the same time would secretly plot against our interests."

Principles Are Immutable—Two years have passed and what of today? Are we to forget the vows of yesterday? Is the wanton destruction in France and Belgium and on the seas to be condoned? Shall subtle propaganda lift its poisonous head to weaken our friendships? Are those who made the supreme sacrifice no longer to be remembered among us?

"The answer is that the principles for which America fought are immutable, and the allies beget whom we might have our friends. America shall remain steadfast in her attitude against aggression and insist that outlaw nations be held to full responsibility and pay the full penalty for their misdeeds to the end, that in the future, all nations may know the cost of such misdeeds against civilization."

Senator James W. Wadsworth and Major General Leonard Wood had been invited to speak at the meeting but both sent letters regretting that they were unable to attend. Letters endorsing the meeting were received from President Harding and American legion posts and state headquarters all over the country and from the G. A. R. and the United Confederate veterans.

They were sentenced to serve life and appealed to the supreme court which affirmed the lower court.
