Growers Refuse to Sell;

Hold Crops For Better

In the past two days offers of 25 cents have been made for practically every good lot left in Oregon. The market, however, is completely blocked, as the rapid rise in price has convinced most growers that still better prices are in prospect.

DAD IS PROVIDED FOR The "Playgrounds of Dad' movement sounds like a joke, but there may be something in it worth considering. It is urged that the closing of the saloon has left the old man with no place to go and that this is the psychological time to drag him out into the idea isn't bad if it can be made practicable, but most of the dads who are out of work in daylight hours will probably prefer to take the air on street corners or out side the little cigar stores.-Phil-
