

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

Nancy, Henry and Frederick Thielsen, grandchildren of Mrs. Amos Strong, will be honor guests at a pretty Easter morning party sponsored by Mrs. Strong this morning. An egg hunt will be one of the principal features. Everything, from the dainty table cloth of figured hunnies to the numerous Easter suggestions about the rooms and the yellow candles, with which the rooms will be lighted, will be in keeping with the season. Children invited to share the pleasures with the honor guests are Dorothy Livesley, Gweneth Edwards, Hans Thielsen, Carl Steiner, Tommy Edwards and Gretchen Thielsen. Honoring Miss Hazel Downing, bride-elect, Mrs. James Linn entertained with a beautifully appointed luncheon at Hotel Mar- ton yesterday afternoon. Sweet peas in pastel shades were used as an attractive centerpiece and the same dainty colors were carried out in the table appointments. Covers were laid for Miss Downing, Miss Aline Thompson, Miss Catherine Carson, Mrs. Fred-ternoon was spent merrily with games and music. A delicious luncheon was served. Those invited were Mildred Pugh, Fay Woltz, Esther Lisle, Hazel Delaplain, Helen Race, Rovena Eyre, Winifred Gamble, May Hodge, Minnie Shrode, Dagmar Calson and Miss Lillian Greene.

A bowl of yellow daffodils formed an attractive centerpiece for the handsomely appointed table over which Mrs. E. T. Barnes presided Thursday honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Warner Pitts. Places were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Uta Mey and Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Power, Miss Florence Power, Miss Ruth Barnes, Ralph Barnes and Kenneth Power.

Celebrating the twelfth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Walter F. Buckner entertained a coterie of little friends with a delightful birthday party yesterday. The table appointments were carried out in a delicate color scheme of yellow and white, accentuated by the daffodils and greenery used about the rooms. In an amusing student contest Maurine Styles won first prize. The guest list for the pleasant affair consisted of the Misses Rovena Eyre, Maurine Styles, Mildred Gilbert, Lucile Pettijohn, Violet Dusenbury, Verie Couch, Martha Hobson, Nettie Tibbets, Margaret Millard, Florence Powers, Mary Cupper.

The many friends of Lillian McElroy Hunt will be sorry to hear that she has resigned her position at the Grand theater and accepted a similar one at the Majestic in Corvallis, where she will operate the organ. Miss Way has been employed in the leading theaters of Salt Lake City and Boise and has held positions in Portland and Seattle. She has proved to be a drawing card wherever she has been featured, and will undoubtedly be a favorite in Salem.

Miss Frances Richards, dean of women at Willamette university will leave the first of the week for Spokane where she will attend the conference of Deans of Women of the Pacific Northwest which is held in that city annually. Miss Richards will address the conference on the subject: "What Standards of Chaperonage Shall be Maintained." This is a subject that has caused a great deal of comment throughout the states, and at the annual national conference in the east recently quite a furor was created by the manner in which it was handled by the speaker choosing it as a topic.

Thursday evening a group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. C. J. Greene to enjoy an evening at cards. A light luncheon was served at the close of the game to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Busselle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Harding, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills, Mrs. LeRoy Leedy, and Mrs. Will T. Neill of Portland.

Numerous Salem folk are planning to go to Portland Wednesday to attend the concert given by Charles W. Clark, baritone, who will appear under the auspices of the Rainbow district, National Federation of Musical clubs at the Hellis theater. There will be a luncheon in his honor at Multnomah hotel Tuesday noon, followed by a lecture, "Personal Reminiscences in Paris and Abroad," in the grand ball room of the hotel. He will be accompanied at the concert by Lillian Jeffreys Petri, pianist.

Among the Salem folk planning to attend are Myrtle Knowland, Lon Jennison, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Gingrich, Pauline Remington, Evelyn DeLong, Gretchen Brown, Myrtle Felcher, Hilda Amalar, Doris Allen.

The Daughters of the American Revolution met at the residence of Mrs. S. C. Dyer yesterday afternoon for one of the most enjoyable meetings of the season. Messages were received from various chapters represented at the state conference here last week, complimenting the Chemeketa chapter on their cordial and beautiful hospitality to the visitors. The meaning of Chemeketa "Our Home" had been exemplified, the messages stated in the treatment accorded the delegates during their stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Carlton were hosts for a very delightful birthday dinner party on Sunday, March 20, honoring Henry Hockett on his eightieth birthday. Inviting a number of friends who were former residents of Governor, Ia, the former home of the hosts. Yellow spring flowers were used to decorate the rooms and table; the yellow scheme being carried out in the menu. A large birthday cake bearing so many yellow candles had an important place on the table. The day was spent in recalling to mind many old time friends and events of past years. Besides the hosts those invited for this affair were the honor guest, Mr. Hockett and daughter, Miss Alita Hockett, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Elgin, Harrison Elgin, Jr., Robert Elgin, all of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Martindale, Helen Louise Martindale, Edward Martindale, Jr., Mrs. Henry Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Carlton, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peterson entertained at their home on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Noyes who are leaving soon to make an extended tour of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Illinois, New York, Colorado and California.

Mr. and Mrs. Noyes expect to be absent from their home about six months visiting friends and relatives and looking after business interests.

The guests of the evening were entertained at five hundred, Mrs. Allison Dunn and Mr. R. A. Blevins receiving the high score for the evening. A delicate luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by William Howd and Ivan Putnam.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Howd, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. H. Krattgebill, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Blevins.

Complimenting the Elks' ladies Mrs. Miller Bevier, Mrs. O. L. Fisher and Mrs. Clyde Johnson were joint hostesses at a social evening Thursday. Suggestive of the Easter season, yellow was used as a color motif in the decorations. Oregon grape being utilized extensively, and yellow shaded candles accentuating the scheme. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening, Mrs. Elmer Daus and Mrs. W. Cravatt carrying off the high honors. A two course luncheon was served by the hostesses at the close of the evening.

Heralding the advent of Easter-tide, Mrs. Walter Kirk and Mrs. Tom Galloway will be joint hostesses at a dainty Easter breakfast this morning. Gay Easter flowers and pretty seasonal favors will add a touch of charm to the delightful affair. Places will be arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dur-ton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Galloway and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk.

Miss Dollye Morell, of Vancouver, and Miss Erma Becker, of Portland are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain during the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Catherine A. Brown, is entertaining as her guests at her home on Bellevue street, Mr. and Mrs. Capthorn, of Toronto, Canada, who are en route to California for an extended sojourn. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Capthorn are old school mates.

One of the charming hostesses of the younger set who entertained during the past week was Miss Sonia Haid, a student of O. A. C., who is home for the Easter holidays. Miss Haid gave an attractive luncheon for her sorority sisters, members of the Delta Zeta sorority at the college, on Tuesday afternoon. She chose the wild red currant for her decorative motif about the rooms. Members of the sorority were Miss Dorothy Edwards, Miss Laura Garnjcher, Miss Winifred Hazen, Miss Gertrude Loinkemper and Miss Helen Moore. An additional guest was Miss Luella Patton. All the guests are college students, home for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. John Haid opened her home to members of the Monday Afternoon Bridge club last week, and presided as charming hostess over the gathering. Mrs. Arthur Moore was recipient of the honors for highest score. Members of the club are Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Frank Bowersox, Mrs. Charles Murphy, Mrs. Grace Eoff, Mrs. Ralph Glover, Mrs. Otto Brandt and Mrs. Haid. Additional guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mrs. H. S. Poisal and Mrs. W. I. Staley. The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Charles Murphy.
