INFORMATION, RULES and CONDITIONS

OF THE OREGON STATESMAN AND THE PACIFIC
HOMESTEAD COMPETITION

CLARA—The Girl that won the Pony Mayflower

1. Nominations may be made at any time during the competition.
2. Nominations are free. The nomination blank properly filled out registers a candidate with 5000 free votes. Special subscription blanks and further information will be forwarded on receipt of nomination.
3. Candidates can secure subscriptions anywhere.
4. Prizes are awarded according to the votes obtained in the contest. The candidate with the highest number of votes will get the first prize and so on till all the awards have been distributed.
5. A bonus of 10'000 votes will be awarded candidates when they turn in their first subscription.
6. It is a rule of the contest that a candidate may be assisted by as many friends as it is possible to interest. It is therefore your privilege to get all the members of your family working and among you it should be very easy to win a prize pony and outfit.
7. The Statesman Publishing Co. guarantees fair treatment to all contestants and should any question arise a decision of the Pony Contest Editor will be considered final and absolute.
8. Any person interested in Shetland ponies may enter this contest (adult employees of the Statesman excepted.)
9. All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the competition and may be polled at the discretion of the candidates or the Statesman.
10. The Statesman reserves the right to alter the rules and regulations or any of the offers, everything in fact except a reduction of the prize list.

11. The Statesman reserves the right to give extra votes and to alter the vote schedules, but it guarantees the candidates that all subscriptions turned in since the beginning of the contest will receive the benefit of any such alteration in the vote schedules if such are altered or any extra votes if any other than those mentioned in the advertisement are given.

12. Votes are not transferable except under the following circumstances: If a candidate wishes to withdraw from the contest he may change his votes to a suitable substitute, but said substitute must be a new candidate who has not already been accepted in the contest.

13. The Statesman Publishing Co. reserves the right to encourage the candidates in every way possible.

14. The pony contest closes Saturday, June 25th, 1921, at 11.30 p. m.

15. Subscriptions for more than two years on the Daily or five years on the weekly or monthly publications will not be accepted.

16. A commission of 10 per cent on all money collected on subscriptions will be paid active contestants who do not win a pony. An active contestant is one that turns in $15 or more during the life of the contest.

17. Unless otherwise directed candidates should not deduct their commissions. The cash rewards will be made at the close of the contest.

18. Winners of grand prizes do not get a cash commission.

19. Pony contestant may be credited with the votes for subscriptions paid in the office, mailed in or paid to a traveler or other authorized representative of this company at the request of person making payment.

20. In the event of a candidate who is a pony winner preferring a cash prize to a pony prize, it is understood that The Statesman Publishing Co. agrees to pay the winner of the first prize pony and outfit $250 cash, the winner of the second prize pony and outfit $200 cash, the winner of the third prize pony and outfit $140 cash and the winner of the fourth prize pony and outfit $100 in lieu of the pony prizes.

CHAMPION

THE PONY FRISKY

The Ponies

Grandee—First Prize

Grandee, harness and buggy is a very unique combination. He is a handsome dark bay in color. Early in life he gave evidence of being a pony of exceptional merit and was put in training for show purposes. He was taught to go high and fast and being an adept to tuition he soon became one of the most graceful performers ever seen in Shetland harness. Grandee is perfectly broken to ride and drive, and although a keen actor is safe for a baby. No hackney ever entered the show ring with more style or better manners than Grandee and he has speed enough to go to the races. Just four years old, he is at his best and being in the pink of condition he will go to his winner in form that he will maintain with but little care, for he is as tough a piece of condensed horseflesh as ever stood on iron. He stands 40 inches at the shoulder and weighs 350 lbs. The buggy is a first class vehicle, rubber tires, good material and workmanship and classy appearance.

Grandee, harness and buggy is a combination swell enough for the son of a millionaire. He is known as the picture pony and wherever he stops on the street he is instantly surrounded by a group of admirers. The contestant who finishes first will be the owner of the monarch of all the Shetlands of the West.

Cindirella—Second Prize

Cindirella, harness and buggy, is a very swell combination. She is a handsome dark bay, weight 400 lbs., height 42 inches. Cindirella is perfectly broken to ride and drive. She will be a great companion for any child, who like most children love those faithful members of the pony race. This pony is good natured and playful and can be taught many tricks when she goes to the home of her new owner at the close of the contest. She has already acquired the candy habit and will eat all the candy she can get. This pony wore the ribbons at the stock show last fall. Cindirella is a perfect companion for any boy or girl and has style and manners that provide a miniature horse show.

Madame Trixy—Third Prize

Madame Trixy, harness and cart, the third prize, is a bright bay pony of exceptional style and manners, especially adapted for a companion of the family. She has a perfect disposition and being of grand conformation and weighing nearly 375 lbs., is big enough for any member of the family, yet safe enough for a companion for a child. She shows exceptional intelligence and it will be great amusement for her winner to teach her tricks.

Of the many ponies the Pony Contest Editor has awarded to boys and girls in the West none is superior to Madame Trixy, and the child that wants the nicest pony in the West for their own should start after Madame Trixy at once.

Sparkle—Fourth Prize

This pony is a perfect companion for any boy or girl in the west. He is well broken, kind and gentle. For a pony he has wonderful life and action and will be found very serviceable. A saddle and bridle will accompany Sparkle when he is awarded to his winner and when he arrives at his new home his owner will wonder that such a pony was so easy to win.
