SALEM DEFEATS YAMHILL TEAM

Local High School Boys Win From Visitors Yesterday by 3 to 1 Score

The high school baseball team crossed bats for the first time this season on a home field yesterday when they defeated Yamhill high school by a score of 3 to 1 on the Oxford park diamond. The game was exceedingly slow and was played for the most part in a drizzling rain. Yamhill's first batter drove the ball to left field for a two-bagger. The next two men fanned but their first player reached home safely. In the last half of the first inning Salem made its three runs when Brown, Reinhart and Ashby crossed the home plate. For the remainder of the game the action was very slow, due to the muddy field and rain. Enthusiasm revived, however, when in the sixth inning Adolph did fine work for the Salem high team with all of the bases full. By errors, the Salem team failed to convert the opportunity and the inning ended without an additional score for the Salem men. This is the second time that the local team has defeated the Yamhill boys, having beaten them on their own field. Ashby and Adolph did fine work for the Salem high team and were responsible in a large measure for the stiff fight which the local team put up. Ashby did very creditable work in the pitcher's box in addition to placing several hits in the outfield.

AMNESTY ACTION NOT CONTEMPLATED YET

(Continued from page 1) arguments for granting general amnesty," he said. "I shall consider them carefully." The amnesty day program was concluded with a mass meeting to-night at which socialist and labor leaders were speakers. William Johnston, president of the International Machinists' union, urged that labor join in stopping the manufacture of munitions. John Milholland of New York praised the attitude of Attorney General Daugherty in the Debs case, and Otto Brandletter of Chicago, secretary of the socialist party, brought a message from Debs, praising the amnesty movement. The meeting was thrown into confusion when a young man in the audience asked if the amnesty plea as sponsored by the organization included cases of conscientious objectors. His question was unanswered.

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incandescent material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then carried into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body. If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach. Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, chills, shivers, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do. Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just try this for a week and notice results.

TODAY'S SHETLAND PONY STORY

A story written by a child who won a Shetland pony in a former pony contest

MY PONY, BECAUSE I WON HIM

When the result of the Second Pony Contest was announced and I learned that I had won a real Shetland pony, I think I was the happiest boy in town, or one of the happiest, for the other pony winners must have been as happy as I was; but when Admiral arrived in town I was a very proud boy indeed. He came by express, packed in a crate, and I could hardly wait until he was ready for me to ride. He was so small that at first I was afraid he could not carry me, but I was soon assured of his strength, as he did not appear to notice me on his back at all, and could travel faster than any of the other ponies owned by my companions. Very soon after I got him, my father bought me a burly and harness, and the following winter I was given a little red jumper, so now I drive him all the time. We live about two miles from the city and my sister and I drive to and from school every day. On Saturdays, however, I often go with my friends on some expedition, either riding or driving, and we enjoy ourselves immensely with Admiral as our companion. I would not part with my pony now for a great deal, as I feel he is more mine than he would have been had my father bought him for me. It is great fun teaching him my tricks, as he learns so readily.

ALEX McFADDEN.

CALLAHAN TAKES WITNESS STAND

Millionaire Mine Owner Testifies in Hough Forgery Case

SPOKANE, April 13.—James F. Callahan, millionaire Wallace Idaho, mine owner whom it is alleged, was embezzled of upwards of $100,000 by the bond firm of Milholland & Hough of Spokane took the witness stand at the trial here late today of Jay C. Hough, charged with forging bonds of the Teel irrigation district near Echo, Or. The greater part of Mr. Callahan's testimony related to the purchase of the Teel bonds for forgery of which Hough is now being tried. Other witnesses today included J. Frank Spinning of Echo, Or., secretary of the Teel irrigation project. Mr. Spinning identified as forgeries the 100 $1000 Teel bonds which were sold to Mr. Callahan. Hough, who was acquitted last month on a similar charge in connection with forgery of improvement bonds of Liberty county, Mont., maintains he committed the alleged forgery only under threats of death by his late partner, John B. Milholland. Milholland committed suicide shortly after Hough surrendered himself to authorities last January.

WALLACE FAVORS ORGANIZATION

Strong Union of Farmers to Secure Legislation is Urged

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Farmers should build up an organization, capable of presenting facts to congress on matters affecting agriculture, Secretary Wallace declared today before the conference of the American farm federation bureau. Chairman McFadden of the house banking and currency committee today announced that examination of the financial support of farm organizations, begun in the last session, would be continued. The executive committees of the National Milk Producers' association and of the National Grange met today in preparation for the meeting tomorrow of a number of farm organizations which will endeavor to agree on a legislative program.

POWER SUBJECT TO BE STUDIED

Washington Official Will Confer With Oregon Authorities Soon

Governor Louis F. Hart of Washington has accepted an invitation from Governor Olett for a conference to be held in Oregon relative to the Umatilla Rapids power development. Washington will be represented by Marvin Chase, hydraulic engineer of that state. The conference is to be under a law passed by the 1921 legislature, introduced by Senator Dennis as senate bill No. 249, providing for investigation and collection of data concerning hydro-electric resources of navigable streams in Oregon. The data to be presented to the federal power commission. The measure authorizes Oregon officials to act in conjunction with accredited officials of adjoining states in order to present the claims of any project which may be located on any navigable stream flowing between Oregon and such other state. Governor Olett, in a letter, informed Governor Hart that the people of Pendleton who are interested in power development on the Umatilla river have advised that the people of Washington, particularly of eastern Washington, have expressed interest in the development, and on the basis of this information the invitation to a conference was extended to the Washington officials. Presentation of the resulting data to the federal power commission will be accompanied by a request that the federal commission investigate the Umatilla Rapids site for possible hydro-electric development.
