

By MOLLY BRUNK

HERE is little of social interest today with the Matzenauer concert at the armory this evening claiming almost entire attention. Large reservations of seats have been made by out-of-town admirers of the great singer, and it is expected (at least sincerely hoped) that every music lover in Salem will take advantage of the quite unusual opportunity of hearing the world's greatest singer of the Metropolitan Opera company, in our own home town.

Assisting artists will be Frank La Forge, composer-pianist, and Charles Carver, basso.

In a long and eulogistic article in the Oregonian, following Mrs. Matzenauer's appearance in Portland Wednesday night, the following excerpts appear:

"Her voice is like the message of a finely-played cello. In vocal finish it has smooth authority and the control that comes from long practice in singing and the correct knowledge of the placing well applied."

"The 'Erkling,' by Schubert, which the singer will give tonight was a big success in Portland. 'The singer,' said Mr. MacQueen, 'sang as an actor would play the part in a tragedy and with fine skill and facial expression, and also the use of three distinct voices held her audience in a spell of ecstasy.'"

Two compositions by La Forge were also received with acclaim.

Here are the numbers to be given tonight:

O del mio dolce ardor, Gluck
Spring Night, Schumann
Sappho Ode, Brahms
Erkling, Schubert
Mme. Matzenauer
Aria from "The Magic Flute" (Qui sdego) Mozart
Mr. Carver
Before the Crucifix, La Forge
Supplication (dedicated to Mrs. Matzenauer), La Forge
Mandoline, Debussy
Aria from "Samson and Delilah" (Mon coeur s'ouvre a ta voix) Saint Saens
Mme. Matzenauer
O Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me? Handel
Des Pas des Sabots, Laparra
Mexican Folk Song
Maidens Are Like the Wind, Loewe
Mr. Carver
Wanderer's Nightsong, Rubinstein
Barcarolle (Tales of Hoffman), Offenbach
Mme. Matzenauer
Mr. Carver
Romance, La Forge
Etude de Concert, MacDowell
Mr. La Forge
Aria from "Le Prophete" (Ah! mon Ise) Meyerbeer
Mme. Matzenauer

Mrs. Frank W. Swanton, manager of the Oregon Humane society was a guest during her stay during the mid-week of Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer, the former being the newly elected president of the state humane society.

Wednesday Mrs. Swanton spoke in the interest of Humane work and Humans Sunday, at the high Grant, McKinley and Washington schools.

In Portland Mrs. Swanton is speaking before various schools and organizations each day of the week.

Mrs. O. P. Hoff went to Portland the first of the week, where on Tuesday evening she entertained with a box party at the Baker theater.

Mrs. Hoff's guests were Mrs. Anna Read, newly-elected president of the Portland Grade Teachers' association; Mrs. Jennie Richardson, retiring president of that organization; Miss Ida Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Norlyn Hoff.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kafoury plan to leave early Sunday morning for an extended eastern trip, that will cover a period of at least six weeks and will include Minneapolis, Chicago, Baltimore, Toledo, Columbus, Cleveland and of course New York. The journey is in the nature of a business trip, but Mrs. Kafoury who is an active member of the Salem Arts League, plans to find sufficient to enjoy a leisurely visit to the Metropolitan art gallery.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. Nohren and their children left Wednesday evening for San Francisco where they will spend several weeks.

Mrs. H. C. McAdams of Denver, Colo. left for that place Wednesday after a several month's sojourn in Salem as the house guest of her sister, Mrs. S. P. Kimball. Mrs. McAdams is a charming woman, and made many friends during her stay. She was accompanied by her little granddaughter, Marion McAdams. Before going on they were joined by the latter's mother, Mrs. W. B. McAdams, the two leaving with Mrs. McAdams Sr. planning, however, to go as far east as St. Louis, where they will be with relatives for some time, later returning to Los Angeles to reside.

Miss Elizabeth Putnam, of New York City, has arrived in the city and plans to spend the summer with her mother and brother. Miss Putnam has been identified with the Red Cross since the beginning of the war, her sojourn here being in the nature of a needed rest.

At the meeting of the board of the Y.W.C.A. held yesterday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. F. A. Elliott; first vice-president, Mrs. W. I. Staley; second vice-president, Mrs. William Fleming; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harry Hawkins; treasurer, Mrs. R. K. Page and Mrs. W. E. Kirk recording secretary.

This afternoon members of the board will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. I. Staley, to make certain for the living room of the association building.

An interesting announcement was made known recently, the engagement of two well-known Willamette students, Miss Emma Shanafelt of Salem to Lester Day of Bremerton, Wash. was made known at an evening party given by Miss Lorlei Blatchford.

The affair was in the form of a luncheon, lovely with its springtime decorations in motif and in significance. Covers for 13 were laid around a beautiful basket of golden daffodils. Tiny baskets were pendant from the handle which was tied with a bow of yellow material, reaching to the ribbons running out to daffodil place cards were replications of the Delta Phi and Sigma Tau pins.

Miss Shanafelt is a co-ed favorite of charm and ability. She is a member of the Philodons an Literary society and of the Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Day is a Websterian and Sigma Tau. Both are members of the class of '22. Miss Shanafelt is the newly elected president of the university Y.W.C.A. and Mr. Day is elected to the same office in the men's association.

Mrs. Ross Moores was elected as a delegate from Salem to the national convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, to be held in Denver, Colo., early in June, at the annual convocation of the organization held Wednesday in Eugene.

Mrs. Moores attended as a delegate from here, others going with her in the same capacity being Mrs. O. L. Davis and Mrs. Nellie Varley. A splendid program of music and entertainment, with much that was of interest coming up for discussion in the business sessions.

Another announcement that pertains to honors shown Salem at the session is that of the Capital City being chosen as the place of the next meeting four years hence.

The regular monthly "coffee" of the Jason Lee Methodist church will be held at the home of Mrs. A. T. Anderson, 1100 North Summer street, this afternoon, the following serving as assistant hostesses: Mrs. P. L. Frazier and Mrs. Thomas C. Anderson.

Transforming her spacious residence into a floral bower with apple blossoms and tulips predominating, Mrs. W. F. Buckner entertained a group of close friends Monday night in celebration of Mr. Buckner's birthday. Five hundred filled the earlier hours, with prizes going to Mrs. S. S. East and O. P. Hoff.

The Virginia reel was a feature later with the participants culminating the evening with a light repast.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kellogg and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Miller have returned from Corvallis where they enjoyed a short visit with friends.

Mrs. Robert S. Hall returned to her home in Portland Thursday morning, after spending two days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Hall.

Mrs. S. S. East went to Portland the first of the week, where she is being entertained as the guests of friends.

Mrs. Frank Peyton was a charming hostess on Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Polly Anna club at their regular meeting, at her home on South Commercial street. A luncheon was served at the two o'clock hour, the hostess being assisted by her attractive daughter, Ruth.

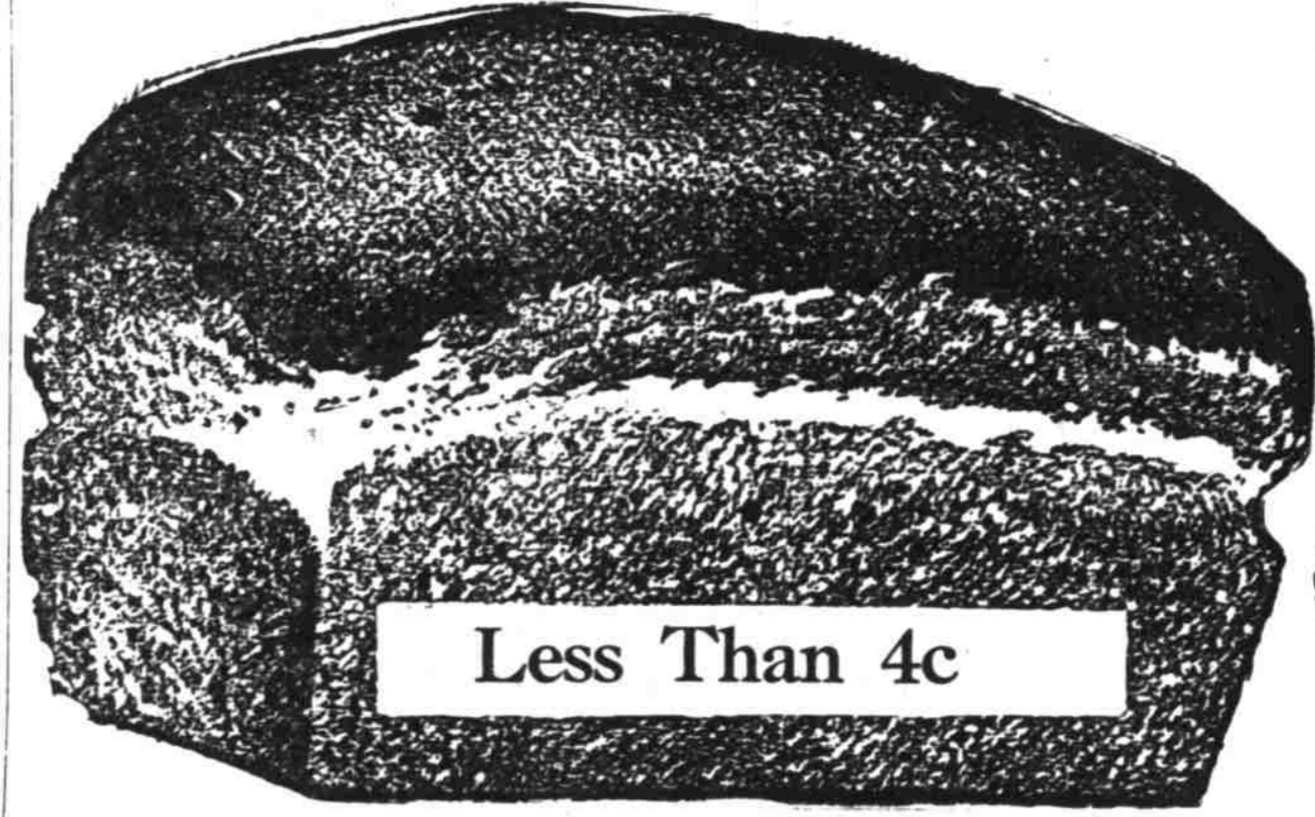

Mrs. M. Lacey of Pollock visited Wednesday and Thursday with her daughter Miss Florence Lacey and her niece, Mrs. Effie M. Savage, at the home of the latter on South Winter street, who also is entertaining Mrs. John I. Savage of Portland over the week-end.
