Meeting Is Held-

The members of the Young People's Alliance of the Seventeenth and Chemeketa Street Evangelical church held their monthly business meeting last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Strausbaugh, 1030 Broadway street. As the annual conference of the Evangelical churches is to be held in Salem next month, this is the last meeting the alliance will hold during this conference year. All the business of the alliance is now being completed before the conference is held. Reports were given from the different departments of labor concerning the work which had been accomplished in the past month, and new members were also taken in. After adjournment the evening was spent in playing games. Music, rendered by Franklin Launer. planist, and Ivan Bishop, violinist, was enjoyed. Refreshments were served later in the evening by the hostess.
