

CITY'S BOOKS IN GOOD SHAPE Comment is Made on Low Cost of Operation in Two Salem Offices PHONE RATES DEBATED Cousins Likely to Be Employed to Represent Several Counties

WILL HE BETTER HIS HOME RUN RECORD?

"Babe" Ruth, the greatest home run hitter in baseball, says that he is going to better his previous record of fifty-four home runs this season.

After a careful audit of the books kept by the city recorder and city treasurer, G. Ed. Ross submitted to the city council last night a report in which he states that the books were found to be correct in both cases.

A lengthy discussion took place at the meeting last night regarding proper methods of graveling the city streets, several of the councilmen taking exception to the present methods as being very unsatisfactory.

Street Graveling Up. A lengthy discussion took place at the meeting last night regarding proper methods of graveling the city streets, several of the councilmen taking exception to the present methods as being very unsatisfactory.

W. K. Taylor of Corvallis appeared before the council and asked its co-operation in organizing with other counties for the purpose of gathering data to bring before the public service commission a feasible protest against the rise in the telephone rates.

"No such statement ever has been made by the telephone company," retorted Shaw.

Edward M. Cousins was present as a representative of Polk, Benton, Linn and Lane counties.
