First Time in Salem— French pastry— Fresh daily, made at the Gray Belle.—Adv.

No Fatalities Reported— No fatal accidents were reported to the state industrial accident commission for the week ending April 21, although a total of 447 industrial casualties were reported for the week. Of this total 426 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, 12 were from firms and corporations that have rejected the act, and eight were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

We Have Secured— One of the finest French pastry cooks in the east to make our pastry which we will serve daily, starting today.—The Gray Belle.—Adv.

Two Boys Held— Howard Haag and Jesse Joy, 14 and 17 respectively, were found on the streets early yesterday morning, and taken into custody. When accosted by a police officer they said they had slept all night in the Southern Pacific depot. Haag said he came to Salem to see his mother, Mrs. George Haag, and that he had been living in Kelo, Wash. Upon investigation it was learned that Mrs. Haag was last heard of in Salem in August, 1920, after which her mail was said to have been forwarded to Oregon City. The other lad claimed his mother is dead and that his father is a workman in the shingle mill at Kelo. He was just came along to see the city. They are both being held in the jail until word is received from relatives.

The orchestra. Plans are to open the season in the fall, when the orchestra will have the moral backing of a capable board of directors, composed of prominent business and professional men of the city, the organization in this way being relieved of financial worries and business matters that it has had to struggle with this year.

Salem has proved that it wants, needs and can support such a body and it is anticipated that the orchestra will be permanent. Dr. Sims has been found a director of unusual capabilities, for it is difficult to find in any place efficient leaders for similar musical bodies. Keeping in many instances, semi-trained musicians together in the remarkable way that he has is no small thing to do, when one stops to think of the quite remarkable results achieved—results that have been eulogistically commented upon by out-of-town people who have felt it a privilege to hear the orchestra.

Musicians now making up the orchestra are: Irvin A. Wroten, Viola Ash, Marion Emmons, Mary Schoettle, Iva Claire Love, Delbert Moore, Leonard Chatwick, Cyril Buell.

Second violin—C. J. Kurth, L. McKelton, John Lau, George Barr, Helen Selig, Ernest Agertner, W. T. Van Slyke, Harold Rupert.

Viola—Ruthyn Turney, Celli—George Barrett, Avery Hicks, Henry Lee, Mr. Beebe, Bass—Cruz McDaniel, R. W. Ballance.

Flute—Miller Bevier, Avis Hicks, Leonard Satchwell, Alley Anderson.

Oboe—Edgar Rowland, Clarinet—H. S. Swart, Adolph Bombeck, Roland DeSart, Walter Bush, Earl H. Anderson.

Bassoon—Frank M. Alley, George Brown.

Horns—R. Riley, Elmer McKinney, Cornet—W. H. Mills, Edwin Payne, Donald Edmondson, W. T. Tomhones—Frank Zinn, Raymond Kites.

BB Flat Bass—Joe Ruzicka, Timpani—Bruce Putnam, Percussion—George Beck, Piano—(Substitute for harp)—Mrs. Frank Zinn.

Conductor—Dr. John R. Sites. Honorary members—Miss Sally Bush, Miss Cornelia Marvin.

W. U. Student Body Nominations Made

Nominations for student body officers for next year were held at the chapel hour at Willamette university yesterday. The voting will take place next Friday.

Following are the nominees: President, Ben Pickill and Raymond Dimick; vice-president, Loriel Blatchford, Vivian Isham; secretary, Lucile Turner, Elsie Gilbert, Marie Corner, Eva Roberts; treasurer, Elmer Strey, Vern Ferguson; Collegian manager, Harold Duke, Harold Richards, Clifford Berry; Collegian editor, Sheldon Sackett.

Four of the men are members of Sigma Tau fraternity, two of Alpha Xi Delta, and one of Phi Kappa Pi. Two of the women are from Beta Chi and four from Delta Phi.

Another naval aviator has succumbed to injuries received in a flight. By and large these flyers have an opportunity to see a good deal of this world and a many of them get an opportunity to view the hereafter. There are more important things than breaking aerial records.

It is Always the Cheapest— To buy the freshest fish, Fitts Martet has them just in from Newport. Prompt delivery. Phone 211.—Adv.

"The Passion Play"— At the First Congregational church Sunday evening. You will want to see it.—Adv.

Three Couples Licensed— Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday by U. G. Boyer, county clerk to Alice Merle Gray of Salem and Howard T. Parker of Tacoma; Maxine Abbot and Lawrence Orth of Salem; Grace Hay of Silverton and Marion E. Beck of Mt. Vernon.

Suit Case Found— A suit case found some time ago at the deaf school institution and later taken to the Oregon Electric depot, where it was thought the owner might call, was finally taken to the police station yesterday and is being held awaiting identification.

G. Ed Ross, Public— Accountant, Phone 298R.—Adv.

Legal Blanks— Get them at The Statesman office, Catalog on application.—Adv.

Schools Standardized— The Brush Creek school having met all the requirements for standardization, was entered as a standard school by County Superintendent Mary L. Fulkerson, at a meeting last night in the Brush Creek school building.
