Russell Says Mrs. Stillman Told Him Husband Not Child's Father

STIR CAUSED IN COURT

Whether Deposition Will Be Admitted to Be Decided After Perusal

NEW YORK, May 5.-Dr. Hugh Russell, a chiropractor of Huffalo, N. Y., testifying today at the hearing of the divorce suit brought by James A. Stillman, while under his treatment in April Columbia declared Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, 1918, told him her husband was not the father of an expected child. The child, Guy, who is named with his mother and Fred Beauvais, an Indian guide, in the divorce suit, was born the folowing November.

While the testimony was given behind closed doors, the defendant's attorneys admitted it had Lake been offered and conditionally accepted by the referee over their objections.

Ethics Involved. Dr. Russell said Miss Anne Stillman had accompanied her mother to Buffalo and that while Tillamook they were there Mr. Stillman arrived. Defendant's counsel quoted Dr. Russell as saying that the Wasco three took tea at Dr. Russell's home, and later went on an auto- Yamhill mobile ride with him to Niagara Falls.

Strenuous objections to the ctor's testimony were made by e defendant's counsel, who declared that it was not only confidential and privileged, therefore inadmissible, but also a violation of professional ethics. Stillman Absent. Mrs. Stillman was present. Mr.

Stillman was not present. Cross-examination of Dr. Rusell will be started at the next hearing, tentatively set for May Before Dr. Russell went on stand today, Charles R. Keltestified that Mrs. Stillman her daughter were guests several days in April, 1918, at the hotel where he was em-

> Two letters left by the man, each of them showing full knowledge of the act which he was about to perform, were addressed to the proprietor of the hotel and to Coroner Lloyd Rigdon. In the former he left all of the money he had to the proprietor of the hotel, to replace the damage he might cause to the room, and in the latter he implored the coroner to save his body from medical students and the press to give him a square deal.

Conflicting statements concernng relatives were made by Huntng in his letters, and in information which he offered when he came to the hotel about 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. To the hotel man he said that he was going to Grants Pass to visit a sister, but in the letter to the coroner he denies having any relatives living. Dr. G. C. Bellinger, superintendent of the hospital from which the man had just been dismissed, states that the man is survived by a mother, two brothers and a sister, however.

Hunting dealt at length on so cial, political and economic problems in his letter to the coroner, and professed his alliance with the radicals. He declared tuberculosis, from which he had been suffering, to be "an economic problem, because it is mostly an environmental disease." Dr. Bellinger describes the man as being one of culture and refinement. He often wrote poetry, according to the official.
