Breakers Ahead

If young people, particularly young women, could only see ahead and realize the things that they may have to overcome, there would be little difficulty in inducing them to take a thorough business course.

Proper business training is an anchor to windward that no young person should be without. It makes little difference what line you intend to follow, such a training will always be an aid to you, and some time it may mean the difference between success and failure.

Let us tell you how we can help you. Write or call for information.

MORE THAN 1000 AT FOUNDERS DAY

Annual Champoeg Celebration is Held in New Memorial Building

The twenty-second annual celebration of Founders day and anniversary of the meeting of May 2, 1842, when the Oregon country was secured to the United States, attracted more than 1000 pioneers and interested visitors to the annual Champoeg picnic yesterday.

Large numbers of Portland people came to the historic spot by boat and many, who wished to make the trip, were unable to attend because of the crowded condition of the boat. Other prominent pioneers, members of the Oregon Pioneer association and descendants of the early pioneers from all parts of the state were among those present.

Resolutions written and proposed by J. A. Smith, son of Sidney Smith, one of those who took part in the meeting of 1842, commending George H. Himes, T. Geer, P. H. D'Arcy, and Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weathered, for their interest in pioneer matters were passed. The resolutions further declared that the pictures of the above-named persons be placed in the memorial building.

H. D'Arcy, who has worked to secure the erection of the memorial building and who was largely instrumental in the securing of 12 acres of ground in addition to that already possessed by the state of Oregon, was the presiding officer. He addressed the crowd on commemoration of the men who met at Champoeg on May 2, 1842, by whom the decision was made over the ownership of the Oregon territory.

The men who contributed to the purchase of this additional tract of land are: A. Bush, Joseph Buchtel, P. H. D'Arcy, James Falling, M. O. George, George A. Harding, John Minto, F. X. Mathieu, W. H. Polk, Richard Williams, E. B. Williams, and F. D. Holman.

The following pioneers delivered short speeches extolling the virtues and character of the early pioneers:

Senator I. L. Patterson, Polk county; ex-Governor Geer, Portland; Edyth Tozier Weathered, Portland; Rev. Dr. Cline, Portland; J. U. Smith, Newberg; C. B. Moores, Portland; Dr. Owens Adair, Astoria; George H. Himes, Portland; Frank Branch Riley, Portland.

An original poem, a tribute to the pioneers was written and read by Rev. Dr. A. A. Waters, of Portland.
