Man and Wife Both Plead Guilty on Murder Charge—THOMPSON FALLS, Mont., May 18.—Fred McCully, husband of Mona May McCully, convicted by a jury Sunday of the murder of her son-in-law, Leon Richardson, pleaded guilty today, also to a charge of murdering Richardson. Sentence will be passed on both McCully and his wife tomorrow. Richardson was found seated in his automobile near Plains, Mont., last November, shot dead. At the trial here last week of his mother-in-law, witnesses testified to alleged ill feeling toward him on the part of his wife's parents, and of threats they were declared to have made against him. McCully, testifying in his wife's behalf, declared that he alone was to blame for Richardson's death and his wife's attorney indicated a willingness on McCully's part to enter a plea of guilty to a charge of murder. Judge Lenz, presiding, refused to accept such a plea pending the conclusion of Mrs. McCully's trial.

Regret Expressed That America Cannot Help Settle Silesian Issue

LONDON, May 18.—The freedom with which Premier Lloyd George and Premier Briand are debating the Silesian situation through newspapers and the words they are using is creating a great stir in England. Heads of the two governments after their numerous conferences were expected to understand each other. Apparently each has chosen the plan of campaign he considers the most effective against his opponent.

Government Worried—The government is anxious to have the supreme council meet during the week-end, believing that delay in coming to some sort of an agreement over Silesia and taking action thereon will only make the situation worse.
