

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

School Children's—Matinee Saturday, 10:30 a. m. to see "Black Beauty" Liberty.
Macabee Social Tonight—The Women's Benefit association of the Macabees are giving an apron social and card party tonight in the lodge rooms.
Eastman Kodaks and Supplies—Commercial Book Store, 163 N. Commercial—Adv.

OREGON Theatre
Everybody's Picture
"The County Fair"
TODAY
Our glasses fit your eyes. Our bills your purse.

HARTMAN BROS.
Jewelers and Opticians
Phone 1255 Salem, Oregon

REX DRY PASTE
Max O. Baren
179 N. Com. St.

W. E. MORGAN
Better Goods For Less

JUST RECEIVED
Nations Perfect Liquid Paints
Reasonable prices

Capital Furniture & Hardware Co.
225 N. Commercial Phone 947

Wash Cleaned... $1.50
Wash Pressed... $2.00
Salem Cleaners & Dyers
1215 S. Com'l St. Phone 1868

TREES
For Spring Planting Order From THE SALEM NURSERY CO.

WOOD WOOD
Call G. H. Tracy Wood Co.
for all kinds of dry wood

Do you take TURKISH BATHS
If not, why not?
No other baths or treatments can produce the permanent relief to the person suffering from disagreeable cold or ailments of the flesh or body like the Turkish Baths will.

OREGON BATH HOUSE
Lady and Gentlemen attendants

Investigate The Mutual Life of N. Y.
Up-to-date policies. Lower net cost.

J. F. HUTCHASON, District Mgr.
271 State St. Phone 99

Special Merchants' Lunch 35c
HOURS 11 A. M. TO 8 P. M.

Dancing upstairs at Nomking Cafe, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights. American and Chinese dishes.

153 1/2 N. Commercial St.

Illaber Country Club—Members attention! Informal dance Thursday evening, 5:00 per person. "The Committee."—Adv.

Discharge Filled—Lonie Cupp filed an honorable discharge from the United States army with the county clerk yesterday. Mr. Cupp enlisted September 17, 1917, and received his discharge on August 7, 1919.

Save the Starving Chinese—By attending the concert given by Salem Symphony Orchestra, Friday evening, May 27, Price 50c. Benefit China Near East Relief.—Adv.

Title Cleared—A decree was issued in the circuit court yesterday, quieting title of J. W. McKinney to 95 acres of land near Aumsville. The land was a part of the Susan F. Smith estate.

Big Publisher Visitor—Frank W. Hoard, general manager of Hoard's Dairyman, Port Atkinson, Wis., is visiting in Oregon for three or four weeks, and he was in Salem yesterday, with Mrs. Hoard. They are taking a little vacation. Mr. Hoard is a son of former Governor Hoard of Wisconsin, and Hoard's Dairyman is one of the leading papers of its class in the United States, if not the greatest of them all.

The Importance of Being Earnest—High school auditorium, Wednesday evening, 8:15.—Adv.

Case dismissed—The case of Emma H. Beckett, et al against S. P. Kimball, having to do with a rental contract received the attention of the circuit court yesterday. A decree was issued stating that the plaintiffs were not entitled to the relief asked for, and dismissing the case.

The Importance of Being Earnest—High school auditorium, Wednesday evening, 8:15.—Adv.

Program Mailed—Memorial day programs for the rural schools are being mailed out this week from the office of the county superintendent of schools. The program includes an appropriate selection of songs and readings suitable for the day.

Two Drivers Reported—Motorman Elliott reported to the police department Monday that automobiles driven by George W. Hug, 1249 South Commercial street, and E. E. McCoy of Portland had passed a street car while it was receiving and unloading passengers. Both alleged violations took place at the corner of State and Commercial streets.

DIED
At Bremerton, Wash., Gertrude Wylant, who spent her girlhood in Salem. She leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allen, two brothers, Roy of Roseburg and William of Salem; one sister, Anna, of Seattle.

Will Live at Bend—Mrs. Herman W. Barr has returned to Salem from Portland, where she underwent a surgical operation. She will rest for a

Time at the home of her sister-in-law, Dr. M. T. Schoettle, and will later go to Bend, where she will be joined by Mr. Barr. They will make their home in Bend where it is hoped Mrs. Barr's health will improve.

Mid-Season Millinery Sale—Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Trimmed hats half price. All white, sport and tailored hats a third loss. Gibson Millinery.—Adv.

Odd Fellows Observe Day—The annual memorial service of the Odd Fellows' lodge will be held this year at St. Paul's Episcopal church when on Sunday, May 29, Rev. C. H. Powell, rector of St. Paul's church, will deliver the memorial address at the hour of the regular morning service.

Cement is Poured—Pavement will be laid on the Pacific highway south of Salem this summer to the rate of 500 or 600 feet a day as long as the weather is favorable. The first concrete material on the road was poured Monday. The improvement will connect up the bituminous construction near Jefferson with the south end of Commercial street, Salem.

Couple Procures License—A marriage license was issued yesterday in the office of U. G. Boyer, county clerk, to Bertha Bauer and Leo D. Bloom of Salem.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Bag Identified—Guy Young, route 4, has identified the black leather hand bag found on State street Sunday night as one belonging to Conny Rondeau of Newport. It was taken from the Greenland rink Saturday night, Mr. Young said. The bag was left in an automobile, and the person taking it also took some oranges, a kodak and a drinking cup.

For One Week Only—5 loads of 16-inch mill wood, $18.75; prompt delivery. Spaulding Logging Co.—Adv.

Advertisers Have Program—The Seventh Day Adventists held the commencement exercises of their school last night. A program was given by the school.

Will Live at Bend—Mrs. Herman W. Barr has returned to Salem from Portland, where she underwent a surgical operation. She will rest for a

Treats 'Em Rough—After punching the bag and shadow-boxing, Dempsey took on Larry Williams, Jack Renault, Alex Trambitas and Babe Herman. Williams boxed for the first time with the champion and was roughly handled. Renault boxed the second round and then rested before coming back for another round.

MANHASSET, N. Y., May 24.—In keeping with his one day's work, one day's rest schedule, Georges Carpentier today spent ten minutes at light exercise, went for a long ramble in the woods with his dog, took a short automobile ride.

Georges did not come out for his usual lawn party, which disappointed a crowd of small boys who gathered in the road hoping to glimpse the challenger. They started yelling, whereupon Georges appeared on the porch, smiled and waved his hands. The youngsters then dispersed.

Gans Coming—Joe Gans, who has been employed as one of Georges' sparring partners, was due to arrive in time to start work tomorrow when, if the weather is favorable, the challenger will get in his first ring work. Paul Journee, the French heavyweight, also is slated to work opposite the challenger.

Play and Basket Social—Net Neat Sum at Turner

TURNER, May 24.—The Junior high play was well received by a large audience at the Turner Tabernacle Saturday night. Sale of baskets and door receipts netted about $60.

Miss Marie Durfee of Salem spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Gunning.

Thiessen brothers were in Portland the first of the week. Mrs. Sylvia Nichols, former night operator, is taking Agent Powers place at the depot for a short time. Mrs. Powers was called to Salem on account of the illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lyle have moved to Portland, their former home. Donald Steele left Thursday by auto for St. Bernardine, Calif. Earl Bear came over from Corvallis Friday evening. Beginning at 5 a. m. Saturday morning he ran the tractor and plow continuously for 23 hours except time for meals.

County Superintendent Fulkerson attended the school entertainment Saturday evening. Mrs. S. A. Baker returned Thursday from State Rebeah lodge at Albany. Miss Gay Davis spent the weekend with her uncle, Frank Harris of Dallas. She was joined Saturday by her sister, Miss Francis Davis, high school teacher of Weston. Preparation is being made to hold Chautauqua in a tent this year in the northern part of town beginning May 25. Miss Hazel A. Bear, Latin and English teacher of John Day, returned home Monday. Mrs. Barbara Snyder of Salem is visiting her parents at the Baker hotel. J. W. Duncan came up from Salem Sunday. He repeats that

JUNIORS FORM BALL LEAGUE

Churches, Schools and Y. M. C. A. Represented in Boys' Circuit

FIRST GAME IS TODAY
Youngsters Propose to Complete Schedule Before End of School Year

Sixty of the liveliest young Americans who ever squirmed and vociferated and said how they'd win if it took a leg, met at the Y. M. C. A. last night, in person or by proxy, to arrange for the big new baseball league that has grown up ready for business.

PERSONALS
Mrs. Lucy Johnson and son Edwin are visiting in Roseburg, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker.

All Look Alike
There are the Richmond Tigers, of the Richmond high school in East Salem; the Trojans, of the Y. M. C. A. junior department; the Cardinals Juniors, from the matching school; the Washington 7A's, from the Washington school; the High Flyers, also of the Y. M. C. A.; and the boys from the First Methodist Sunday school.

JUST SIMPLY GOTTA BE AT RINGSIDE
(Continued from page 1.)
the championship contest, the attorney general said: "Well, I am the attorney general and I think it my duty to be there to see if the fight is on the level. Draw your own conclusions from that."

Trojans—Selmer Larsen, Frank Shafer, Eugene Chase, Howard Waters, Floyd Seamster, John Shie, Alvan Kurtz, Harry Ash, Stanley Waters, captain, John M. E. S.—Byron Clatter, Bruce Spaulding, Edwin Goodenough, Casper Tabelar, Collis Marsters, Chester Kuntz, Darwin George, Fred Godfrey, Douglas Wilkins.

Washington 7A—Alex Gaylor, Floyd Wood, James Fargo, Harold Busick, Alvin Barnes, John Nathanson, Charles Chittick, Kenneth Seely, Raphael Hall.

High Flyers—Lloyd Estes, Donald Dunnette, Paul Phillips, Paul Devers, Ivan White, Hal Lehman, Charles Hagemann, Russell Forrester, Marlon Lehman, Erskine Sargent, Lyle Shepherd.

Schedule for Season
May 25: Trojans vs. Washington 7A.
May 26: Cardinals vs. First M. E. Sunday school.
May 27: High Flyers vs. Richmond Tigers.
May 28: Trojans vs. High Flyers.
May 29: Cardinals vs. Washington 7A.
May 30: First M. E. Sunday school vs. Richmond Tigers.
May 31: Richmond Tigers vs. Cardinals.
June 1: Washington 7A vs. High Flyers.
June 2: First M. E. Sunday school vs. Trojans.
June 3: Washington 7A vs. Richmond Tigers.
June 4: First M. E. Sunday school vs. High Flyers.
June 5: Cardinals vs. Trojans.
June 6: Washington 7A vs. First M. E. Sunday school.
June 7: Cardinals vs. High Flyers.
June 8: Trojans vs. Richmond Tigers.

Older Brothers Help
The places for all the contests have not yet been arranged, but after today will be announced in time for friends to attend. Umpiring and other supervisory assistance will come from some of the older brothers, and the Y. will look after it all.

Roy Walters, formerly of Turner, now of Marshfield, was recently married at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Hazlet of Portland visited over Sunday at the home of their niece, Mrs. S. A. Riches.

Matthews Will Deliver Series of Bible Talks
Prof. J. T. Matthews has been asked to deliver a series of six lectures on The Bible, before an Epworth league institute to be held at Lake Willowa the last week in July. The students of Willamette university who for many years have been charmed by the quaint, scholarly and altogether original presentation of a million facts as they are interpreted by Professor Matthews will offer their congratulations to the Willowaters for their privilege this summer.

Professor Matthews has not yet

THE FIVE BEST CLASSIFIED ADS.

CAN YOU WRITE FACTS?
Each week The Statesman will give three cash rewards for the best "stories" of the actual result of a real Statesman classified ad May 22, 24, 25, 26. We want facts. The best story, 1st award $25.00. The best story, 2d award $15.00. The best story, 3d award $10.00.

The Statesman wants your stories of the result of a classified ad. Please clip the ad and tell us about the results that it brought, and mail to the classified ad manager, Oregon Statesman, Salem, Or.

First award, Mrs. W. C. Young, 228 North Capitol street, Salem. Second award, Mae Shepherd, R. F. D. 2, McMinnville, Or. Third award, Mrs. A. V. Davidson, route 1, box 5, Brownsville, Or.

Trade Through Pacific Coast Seaports Falls Off In Month
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Imports into Pacific coast seaports during February were 62 per cent less and exports 37.1 per cent less in value than in February of one year ago, according to a statement issued here today by the San Francisco federal reserve bank.

Enjoyable Dinner Given At Methodist Church
An enjoyable dinner was given at the First Methodist church last night by naomi circle, one of the seven divisions of the Ladies Aid society of the church. The women had invited in their husbands and a few other friends, to as bountiful a banquet as was ever served in the church. Afterwards, an interesting literary program was rendered, in which Miss Louise Findley gave a piano solo, Miss Grace Smith a vocal solo, Miss Pauline Findley a reading, Mrs. Dillon a delightful contraalto solo, and Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick a brief address. The women of the circle had pledged a subscription of $50 for the dinner. The occasion was designed for a get-together meeting for all their members and connections.

Legion Entertainers Are Visitors at Shaw
A party of Salem entertainers and American legion men went to Shaw last night to put on a program as a part of the bonus bill campaign. Winston Walton and R. D. Bartor were on the committee in charge of the program. The program given included the following numbers: Vocal solo, Miss Gladys Stevenson; piano solo, Ruth Bedford; address, Robbin Day; solo, R. D. Barton; instrumental trio, Miss Viola Ash and Florence Jaeger and Avery Hicks. George Claxton, is manager of the campaign in the Shaw district. The entertainment was given in the school building.

Lewis Will Speak Before Committees in Portland
C. I. Lewis, assistant manager of the Oregon Growers' Co-operative association, will meet on Thursday of this week in Portland with the committees of the Portland Chamber of Commerce on foreign exports and trade and agriculture. He will speak on "Possibilities of Portland as a Port Outlet for Northwestern Fruits."

Ten Irish Girls Are In Jail for Political Crime
BELFAST, May 10.—Ten women and girls are at present undergoing imprisonment for Irish political offenses, their sentences ranging from three months to 10 years. The youngest prisoner, Mary Bowles, who was captured near Cork wearing armor and carrying a Lewis gun, is 15 years old and she has been ordered to be detained in a reformatory until she reaches the age of 19 years.

Los Angeles custom district was the only Pacific coast district to show an increase in both exports and imports during February, 1921, compared with February a year ago," the report said.

It is quite evident that the "mash notes" sent by Germany to Uncle Sam had no effect.

Nothing is more satisfying than the freedom of the feet from those unpleasant odors which make a person self-conscious and embarrassed. Our foot lotion banishes sweating, and repulsive odors from feet and armpits.

50c bottle
Tyler's Drug Store
157 S. Commercial St.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS LESS
Trade Through Pacific Coast Seaports Falls Off In Month

perfumed bath tablets are a very necessary addition to the bath. We have them in the following perfumes: peroxide, verbena, violet, geranium. Their rich creamy lather makes the bath a luxury. Once each year the factory allows us to sell a limited quantity at a very low price while they last, 3 for.....25c

We are now receiving Oregon strawberries every day

Wurlitzer Concerts
Sundays at
2:45 and 7:30 p. m.
At The OREGON by Mr. McDonald

LADD & BUSH, BANKERS
Established 1868.
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

For The Toilet
Cold creams, hair tonics, face lotions, shampoos, depilatories, talcums, freckle creams, sponges, manicure sets

Schaefer's Drug Store
Sole agents for Garden Court Preparations
135 N. Commercial St. Phone 197

The Big Sale Is Now On In

Electric Fixtures

New is the time to buy those fixtures and have your home modernized. Our fixtures are being sold even faster than we expected, so to have your choice you must come and buy early

Electric Fixtures and Supply Co.
222 North Liberty Phone 1934