handicap to the group. It is for the normal, reasoning part of society to find a way to save the race from the degeneration which will certainly follow the heretofore loose way of handling adult defectives. These unfortunates do not reason for themselves and are incapable of managing the most simple details of everyday life successfully. So far we have permitted things to drift, our humane instincts including us to save and rear and protect these helpless and unfortunate ones only to find that we have added immeasurably to the distress of the country and the people at large, by failing to wisely follow up our humane work by isolation and proper care of this class until the end of their careers. FIRST thing you do next—go get some makin' papers and some Prince Albert tobacco and puff away on a home made cigarette that will hit on all your smoke cylinders!

No use sitting-by and saying maybe you'll cash this hunch tomorrow. Do it while the going's good, for man-o-man, you can't figure out what you're passing by! Such flavor, such coolness, such more-ish-ness—well, the only way to get the words emphatic enough is to go to it and know yourself!

And, besides Prince Albert's delightful flavor, there's its freedom from bite and parch which is cut out by our exclusive patented process! Certainly—you smoke P. A. from sun up till you slip between the sheets without a comeback.

Prince Albert is the tobacco that revolutionized pipe smoking. If you never could smoke a pipe—forget it! You can—AND YOU WILL—if you use Prince Albert for packing! It's a smoke revelation in a jimmy pipe or a cigarette!

Court Street, looking toward Main Street, Pendleton, Oregon. Paved in 1912 with Asphaltic Concrete; in excellent condition and has had no maintenance cost.

What is Asphaltic Concrete Pavement?

Asphaltic concrete pavements consist of asphalt and mineral aggregate (crushed rock and sand) heated separately, mixed at a central plant and laid while still hot. When cool (within 24 hours) the pavement is ready for use. This avoids long blocking of the street with consequent public inconvenience and loss, due to detoured traffic.

Asphaltic concrete is a tough, elastic pavement well fitted to withstand the stresses caused by modern traffic.

It is durable, has negligible maintenance cost and reasonable first cost.

Your community can well adopt the asphaltic concrete type for the proposed street improvement now under discussion.

ied the question, in the light of science and sociology, and have presented various remedies for eliminating or mitigating the evil. The plan submitted by the measure under discussion seems to be the outcome of much study and serious thought on the part of the author of the bill, Dr. Owens-Adair, a physician of many years active practice, and a woman of unusually broad experience and education. All should go to the polls June 7, and vote for the measure that will hasten the day when a sane, efficient and thoughtfully humane people will spend their millions for schools, libraries, civic parks and buildings, playgrounds for the young and hospitals for curable diseases, for health measures and disease prevention instead of, as now, mostly for crime and correction, care of the insane, feeble-minded, congenitally deaf or blind.

Six Opinions Are Handed Down by Supreme Court

The following opinions were handed down by the supreme court yesterday: Julia S. Faldanius, appellant, vs. Strauss, Dean and Madison; appeal from Clatsop county; involving alleged breach of contract. Opinion by Justice Johns. Judge J. A. Eakin affirmed. W. M. Taylor vs. Fremont Fuel company, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; suit for damages. Opinion by Chief Justice Burnett. Judge W. N. Catens affirmed. Antone Rock, a minor, by Emmet Drake, his guardian ad item vs. Willamette Dairy company, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; suit for damages for personal injury. Opinion by Chief Justice Burnett. Judge W. N. Catens affirmed. W. H. Simms, appellant vs. L. J. Sullivan, appeal from Multnomah county; suit for damages. Opinion by Justice Brown. Judge W. N. Catens reversed. A. H. Emerson, appellant, vs. Lumbermen's hospital association et al; appeal from Clatsop county; action for damages on account of death of plaintiff's son. Opinion by Justice Egan. Judge J. A. Eakin affirmed. Alma Hansen vs. Incalberg Hansen, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; action to compel payment of money for support of minor children; denied in opinion by Justice Harris. Re-arrestment ordered in Palmberg vs. City of Astoria. Grant vs. State Industrial Accident Commission advanced for hearing.

Law Requires Care in Loaning School Funds

Money of the state irreducible school fund cannot be loaned on land in irrigation districts which has been bonded or which has incurred other extensive liabilities says an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle in reply to an inquiry by George G. Brown, clerk of the state land board. It is held that the bonds constitute a lien against the land in the district as well as against the district itself.

Bidding is Very Close On Building for State

Exceedingly close bidding developed yesterday when the state board of control opened bids for the contract to construct the proposed industrial building at the Oregon School for the Deaf. The lowest combination of bids was $12,853 by Graham & Atkin for the general contract, and $1,141.92 for heating by McPherson & Urban, a total of $13,994.92. J. A. Hornard bid $1142 for heating, only 8 cents more than McPherson & Urban. The Ford Brooks company submitted a bid of $12,964 for the general contract. The bids are still under advisement.

DISABLED WILL BE REMEMBERED

Special Week is Set Aside To Benefit Men Wounded During War

In a statement issued yesterday Governor Olcott calls the attention of the people of Oregon to disabled soldiers' week, which starts May 29. "Throughout the United States plans are being perfected for observing National Disabled Soldiers' week, during the week beginning May 29," said the governor.

"According to the program which has been announced, the general plan is to have sermons for disabled soldiers on Sunday. On Memorial day efforts will be made to have them participate in Memorial day exercises. On Tuesday appeals are to be made for legislation affecting soldiers. On Wednesday plans are being made in several of the states for entertainment of the disabled soldiers, while other plans are being made for a drive on Thursday to secure employment for disabled ex-service men. On Friday it is urged that such men who are at hospitals be visited, and it is further planned to set aside Saturday as Veterans' day.

A Step In The Right Direction

In the ideal community every citizen would take sufficient interest and responsibility to thoroughly post himself on every important matter which comes up for decision before his city officials. In this way a sound public opinion would be developed which would be a real aid to our elected governing body in deciding questions of importance.

While we may fall considerably short of this ideal in practice, it is interesting to note certain steps which are being taken in the right direction. Considerable interest was aroused, for example, by an advertisement in "What Makes a Good Pavement," which appeared in last week's issue of the "Statesman." A second advertisement on the same subject appears in this issue and a third will be inserted next week. This subject is especially timely in view of the contemplated street improvements under discussion here at present.

The purpose of these advertisements is, frankly, to advocate the Asphaltic Concrete type of pavement. In addition to this, however, they give our citizens a glimpse of the factors which must be considered in building pavements, and in this way are a contribution to enlightened public opinion. It may also be said that the facts presented and the experience of Salem and the neighboring cities of Portland, Newberg, Corvallis, Albany and Ashland have convinced many of our citizens that there is merit in the Asphaltic Concrete type of pavement.

One Fishing Line is Enough, Law Declares

In reply to an inquiry by Walter H. Evans, district attorney for Multnomah county, Attorney General Van Winkle has written an opinion holding that under the fishing code it is unlawful for an angler to fish with more than one rod and line.

WORLD PEACE IS DISCUSSED

Place of United States in Calming Nations Told By Speakers

EMINENT PERSONS TALK

American Academy of Political and Social Science In Convention

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 13.—The place of the United States in a world organization for the maintenance of peace, is the general topic to be discussed at the 25th annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science in session here. The topic has been divided into six phases, and include these subjects:

League Tested The record of accomplishment of the existing league of nations; The Monroe Doctrine; effect of America's participation in a world organization on the doctrine; the possibility of disarmament by international agreement, and the effect of the participation of the United States in a world organization upon her military and naval policy; the treatment of backward peoples in a world organization, the system of mandates and the obligation of man-datories in the existing league of nations; function of international courts and means of enforcing their decisions; should such a court have a compulsory jurisdiction, and what powers, if any, should be given to the court to enforce its judgments; the essentials of an effective world organization.

Many Speakers Appear Speakers invited to discuss the several subjects include Raymond D. Fordick, New York; Hamilton Holt, New York; David Jayne Hill, Washington, D. C.; Senator T. J. Walsh, Montana; Major General Tasker H. Bullard; Representative F. W. Mondell, Wyoming; Miss Jane Addams; Herbert A. Smith, McGill University, Montreal; Former Attorney General George W. Wickersham, New York; Senator I. L. Lenroot, Wisconsin; James M. Beck, New York; Henry F. Taft, New York.
