And much good matter left over. Strike up the band, here comes the June bride. Memorial day is always a sort of home-coming week in Salem. This is soldier loan week. The fruit growers are ready to meet the canners and shippers half way. So there will likely be cooperation, and perhaps all the crops saved.

Have you planted your broccoli seed? Last call. Flanders poppies at Central Pharmacy. You are supposed to wear one on Memorial day. The money goes to war orphans of France. The poppies are supplied by the American War Mothers. Congressman Hawley will not forget the cherry growers or any of the other producers of his district while the final draft of the main tariff bill is being written, which is now going on.

Begins to look and sound like a building boom in Salem. If there could be a few readjustments of costs, the real thing would be here with bells.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Motion picture producers are planning to make pictures in the future at an average cost of $50,000, according to a statement issued here today by the San Francisco federal reserve bank. A year ago the average cost was $100,000.

Reduction of admission charges to motion picture theaters, which is anticipated by the producers, has been given as the reason for the reduction in the cost of the pictures.

The bank's statement said the principal producers are increasing production.

armament expenditure, which is ever more growing. The weight is especially felt by Japan, which is by no means rich, and she will be more than glad to be able to find relief.

ONLY AN AMATEUR. The motor car was driven by a determined looking young woman who had knocked down a man without injuring him much.

She did not try to get away. Instead, she stopped the car, descended to the solid earth and faced him manfully, or, rather, womanfully.

"I am sorry it happened," she said grudgingly, "but it was all your fault. You must have been walking carelessly. I'm an experienced driver. I've been driving a car for seven years."

"Well," replied her victim airily, "I'm not a novice myself; I've been walking for 57 years."

OSTEOPATHY

The Salem Osteopathic Physicians desire to call your attention to Signaler Tom Skeyhill, a World War veteran, who will lecture in Salem on July 23, under the auspices of the Ellison-White Chautauqua. He was seriously injured and blinded in battle at Gallipoli on December 8, 1916. He was totally blind for a year and a half, when he came under the care of Drs. Moore and Kettler, Osteopathic Physicians of Washington, D. C., and was cured by Osteopathic Adjustment. He had consulted hundreds of specialists, all of whom had pronounced his case hopeless.
