

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney will leave Tuesday to spend a month visiting with relatives and friends in the east. Mrs. Doney will return to Salem to Columbus, stopping off a few days in Chicago en route where she will remain until joined by her son, Paul, a student at Wesleyan college, Connecticut. After finishing his year's work Paul Doney has been invited to go to Yale for the inauguration of the new president of the representative of Williams university. He will join his mother about the 23rd of June and the two will make the trip home together.

The engagement of Miss Evelyn Delong and Loren H. Basler was announced Wednesday night at a 5 o'clock luncheon at the home of Miss Mildred Garrett. Pink La France roses centered the table, streamers of the same color extending from the centerpiece to the place marked for each guest. At the same time the engagement was announced at the Sigma Tau house, the fraternity house of Mr. Basler, and at Beta Chi, the sorority house of Miss Delong. Mr. Basler is president of Sigma Tau.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Downing of Portland arrived last night to spend the week end in the city as the guest of Mrs. Downing's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Hedges at 715 Center street.

R. Bruce Horsfall, who is spending the week in Salem in connection with the exhibit of the Anderson society of Oregon which has been on display at the public library, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. Monro Gilbert. On Monday night the Cliffords entertained W. S. Raker, one of the directors of the society, for dinner in addition to Mr. Horsfall.

The second and last of the graduation recitals of the students of the school of music at Williamette was given Tuesday night. Miss Fay Pratt and Miss Marguerite Cook, pianists, appearing. They were assisted by Misses Loriel Blatchford, Lucille Ross and Myrtle Mason and Everett Craven.

Both Miss Pratt and Miss Cook displayed remarkable musical ability, their technique having been worked to a point of mastery in each number they presented. The Polonaise op. 26 No. 1 from Chopin was the most appreciated number played by Miss Pratt, while Miss Cook's group, "Gondoliers" and "Etude Japonaise" won much applause.

The program followed: Polonaise op. 26, No. 1. Chopin. The Trout. Schubert-Heller. Marguerite Cook. Duet, "Barcarolle". Chaminade. Loriel Blatchford, Everett Craven. Elfin Dance. MacDowell. (a) "Venitienne". Godard. (b) "Bergers et Bergers". Godard. Miss Pratt. (a) Gondoliers. Liszt. (b) Etude Japonaise. Poldini. Miss Cook.

Pauline Pavlyuna. Thos. Bailey Aldrich. Myrtle Mason. Concerto in D minor, 1st movement. Mendelssohn. Marguerite Cook, Lucille Ross.

A few of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Cravatt were invited in Thursday night by Mrs. Cravatt to help in the celebration of her husband's birthday. The guests presented Mr. Cravatt with a smoking set. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Knowland, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Duce, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Vibbert, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Page, Mr. and Mrs. Cravatt.

Covers for eight were placed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Farmer Saturday night, the following being invited: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Symon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gibson, who live on the Wallace road, was celebrated recently at an afternoon reception at the Gibson home. A large number of friends called during the afternoon and many remained during the evening for the interesting program.

A wedding ceremony very much like the one of 50 years ago was performed by Rev. W. T. Miller. Ken. Mrs. H. L. Johnson and E. D. Gibson, daughter and son of the aged couple, attended them for the ceremony.

In token of the esteem with which they are held by a large number of friends Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were presented with a reading lamp, the presentation speech being made by Mrs. Ed. Loose.

Out of town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson, Dallas; Tom Faulkner, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jeff B. Kennedy, Portland; Mrs. O. C. Buchanan, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lem H. Kennedy and son, Billie, Portland; Mrs. Mary Ferguson, Newport; Mrs. Nettie Vandagriff, Chemawa; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson and sons, Richard and Marvin, Condon; Mrs. Harry Jones and daughter, Audrey, of Camas, Wash.

Salem guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bassey, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed O. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarter, Mr. and Mrs. James Imah, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Runcorn, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Great, Mr. and Mrs. A. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Belle, Mr. and Mrs. William Calder, Mr. and Mrs. William Bouffleur, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Grice, Mr. and Mrs. L. Grice, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimble, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vecler, Mr. and Mrs. William Hacker, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Canoy, Mr. and Mrs. O. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. F. Rosenquest, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Loose, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Utley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Grote, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Southwick, Mr. and Mrs. P. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mrs. E. T. Adair, Mrs. E. A. Pratt, Miss Nellie Taylor, Miss Emily Loose, Miss Carol Loose, W. F. McCall, Voorhis Loose, Albert Bouffleur, C. A. Campbell, and Sam Chapman.

The Hollywood Ladies' Social club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Hedine. Following the regular order of business the women spent a social hour, refreshments being served by the hostess. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Gier. Those present were Mrs. Claude

Miss Vivian Browne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Browne, became the bride of Orley J. Leffingwell at a simple home ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Leffingwell, on Monday, May 24, at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Rev. C. H. Powell of St. Paul's Episcopal church officiating. The bride wore white georgette and carried a shower of sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses. Only immediate friends and relatives were present.

Both of the young people are graduates of the Salem high school. At present Mr. Leffingwell is in the automobile department at the state house, the bride also having been employed there. Mr. Leffingwell is son of Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger. After a short trip to Seattle the couple will be at home to their friends at the Court apartments.

Those present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Browne, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis of Eugene, Mrs. Kenneth Bell and Miss Blanche Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt of Salem are visiting relatives in Harriburg for a short time while Mr. Holt has a couple of weeks vacation from his duties as assistant cashier in the Ladd & Bush bank in this city.

Friends of Miss Gladys Childs a teacher at the Lincoln school will be pleased to know of her convalescent condition from a recent serious illness at the Deaconess hospital. Recently the pupils in her room at school and the teachers in the Lincoln school gave her a hospital.

About 20 members of the Past Matrons club of the Order of the Eastern Star gathered at the home of Mrs. Amos Vass on South Commercial street at the regular meeting this week. Miss Hazel Bishop being an assistant hostess. Following the regular business meeting Mrs. Mary Johnson conducted a short discussion before the club. Wild flowers and wisteria decorated the rooms.

Those present were Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. Louise Brunk, Mrs. Miriam Burnett, Mrs. Lena Cherington, Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. Marion Derby, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Mrs. Ida Godfrey, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Loretta M. Miss Hazel Bishop, Mrs. Elizabeth Schaefer, Mrs. Estella Smith, Mrs. Lettie Smith, Mrs. Josephine Vass, Mrs. Margaret Witschen, Mrs. Fay Wright, Miss Hazel Bishop.

Miss Lucile Moore, a junior in Salem high school, and Miss Martha Powell, a graduate of last year, are spending the week-end in Corvallis as the guests of Miss Amelia Babcock at Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rahn have gone to Rockaway beach to spend the week-end fishing and enjoying an outing. They will return on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. White have gone to Portland to spend the week-end. They will return Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey will be guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Davey, on a motor trip to Astoria and Seaside over Sunday and Monday. In Astoria they will visit with the Davey's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Demogalis, and at Seaside with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Babcock motored to Corvallis last Saturday to visit with their daughter, Miss Amelia Babcock, at the Alpha Chi Omega house. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. S. J. Woodruff and T. C. Smith.

Mrs. M. B. Paroungian and Mrs. George H. Alden returned Friday from Portland where they attended the conference board meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church and the Portland district meeting of the same organization. Both took part in the program of the latter meeting. The prayers during the two days were held in the Laurelswood Methodist Episcopal church.

The annual spring exhibit and program at the state institution for the feeble-minded will be held Friday night at the school, an invitation to the general public having been issued. An operetta, "On Midsummer's Day," will be given by the children. It is the story of a little girl who grows careless of flowers and plants and so the fairies undertake to punish her for her neglect. Fifty-seven children take part in the operetta.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Andrea have gone to Tillamook to spend the week-end. They will remain away over Monday.

Miss Mildred Simonton of Sauk Center, Minn., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. W. P. Babcock. Miss Simonton has been in Portland visiting during the winter, but just recently completed a tour of Washington by automobile. She will go through Canada on her return trip home.

Commencement exercises for the graduates from the eighth grade of Liberty public schools and a school picnic were held jointly Thursday at the Liberty schools. The diplomas were presented to the students at a program in the evening, the following receiving the mark of having completed their work: Mary Berndt, Ruth Emery, Louise Smith, Lillian Garnjobst, Wilda Lathrop, Mable Wolfe, Cecilia Schotthofer, Elizabeth Schmidt and Frank Hrubetz.

Starting at 9 o'clock in the morning an exhibit of sewing drawing and industrial work was on display in the school house and at 10 o'clock on out of doors program. Folk dances, music and recitations made up this program which was followed by races and other competitive events for which the business of Salem had offered prizes. At noon a basket dinner was served and in the afternoon a ball game played between Liberty and Buena Vista. Liberty was successful by a score of 4 to 1.

The following program was given at night: Barcarolle—Glee Club. Violin solo—Mildred Pugh. Vocal solo—Gertrude Aldrich. Vocal solo—Claude Stevenson. Address—H. C. Seymour, Corvallis. Violin ensemble—Miss Elizabeth Levy's class. Presentation of diplomas—H. H. Mumford. The teachers at the Liberty school for the past year were: A. N. Arnold, principal, Grace Hastings, intermediate, Margaret Peatle, primary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Coffored of 1004 South Commercial street have visited with them this week Mrs. Coffored's brother, Alfred Andrasend of the Priorio De Lux motor ship used by the royal family of Denmark. Even now the Priorio is subject to call by the king. Mr. and Mrs. Coffored visited the ship, which is the most luxurious ever in the Portland harbor, on Wednesday.

The W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R. will serve dinner on Memorial day at McCornack hall for the benefit of the G. A. R. been requested to bring well filled dinner baskets.

Mrs. Alice Lyon, who has been in California for the past six months, stopped off in Salem for a week recently to visit with her niece, Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy. She went on to her home in Portland Thursday. While in California Mrs. Lyon spent most of the time in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner has gone to Seaside about ten days visiting with relatives.

Salem chapter of the American War Mothers will give a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. John A. Carson, 923 South High street, Wednesday of this week. A full attendance of the membership is desired. At 2:30 a short business meeting will be held and at 3 o'clock Dr. W. Carlton Smith will discuss the bonus bill. Following this a short program will be given.

The Hollywood High Five club members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher Friday night. High Five was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Victor LaDue winning first prize and Mrs. Claude Ackerman the booby prize. Wild snags were used in the decorations. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. Claude Ackerman. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Gansley, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Victor LaDue, Elvin Gansley and Aleck Munson. Mrs. Walter Davis will entertain the club at the next meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Mumeay of North Cottage street, are entertaining over the week end Mrs. Sarah Ernest Snyder of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Snyder is field secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the United Evangelical church and is visiting various points in the Oregon conference in the interest of the work. She is a woman of most charming personality, gifted with voice as well as pen, and is a magnetic speaker.

The memorial address will be given by Mrs. Snyder at the First United Evangelical church on Cottage street, and she will also give an evening address at the same church.

A very pleasant surprise party and birthday dinner was given the past week for Mrs. Mary Flynn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Shurl R. Pearson. The table was beautifully decorated, covers being laid for twelve. Following the dinner a very enjoyable evening of games and entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Pearson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel given by the children. It is the story of a little girl who grows careless of flowers and plants and so the fairies undertake to punish her for her neglect. Fifty-seven children take part in the operetta.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Andrea have gone to Tillamook to spend the week-end. They will remain away over Monday.

Miss Mildred Simonton of Sauk Center, Minn., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. W. P. Babcock. Miss Simonton has been in Portland visiting during the winter, but just recently completed a tour of Washington by automobile. She will go through Canada on her return trip home.

Commencement exercises for the graduates from the eighth grade of Liberty public schools and a school picnic were held jointly Thursday at the Liberty schools. The diplomas were presented to the students at a program in the evening, the following receiving the mark of having completed their work: Mary Berndt, Ruth Emery, Louise Smith, Lillian Garnjobst, Wilda Lathrop, Mable Wolfe, Cecilia Schotthofer, Elizabeth Schmidt and Frank Hrubetz.

Starting at 9 o'clock in the morning an exhibit of sewing drawing and industrial work was on display in the school house and at 10 o'clock on out of doors program. Folk dances, music and recitations made up this program which was followed by races and other competitive events for which the business of Salem had offered prizes. At noon a basket dinner was served and in the afternoon a ball game played between Liberty and Buena Vista. Liberty was successful by a score of 4 to 1.

The following program was given at night: Barcarolle—Glee Club. Violin solo—Mildred Pugh. Vocal solo—Gertrude Aldrich. Vocal solo—Claude Stevenson. Address—H. C. Seymour, Corvallis. Violin ensemble—Miss Elizabeth Levy's class. Presentation of diplomas—H. H. Mumford. The teachers at the Liberty school for the past year were: A. N. Arnold, principal, Grace Hastings, intermediate, Margaret Peatle, primary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Coffored of 1004 South Commercial street have visited with them this week Mrs. Coffored's brother, Alfred Andrasend of the Priorio De Lux motor ship used by the royal family of Denmark. Even now the Priorio is subject to call by the king. Mr. and Mrs. Coffored visited the ship, which is the most luxurious ever in the Portland harbor, on Wednesday.

The W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R. will serve dinner on Memorial day at McCornack hall for the benefit of the G. A. R. been requested to bring well filled dinner baskets.

Mrs. Alice Lyon, who has been in California for the past six months, stopped off in Salem for a week recently to visit with her niece, Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy. She went on to her home in Portland Thursday. While in California Mrs. Lyon spent most of the time in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner has gone to Seaside about ten days visiting with relatives.

Salem chapter of the American War Mothers will give a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. John A. Carson, 923 South High street, Wednesday of this week. A full attendance of the membership is desired. At 2:30 a short business meeting will be held and at 3 o'clock Dr. W. Carlton Smith will discuss the bonus bill. Following this a short program will be given.

The Hollywood High Five club members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher Friday night. High Five was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Victor LaDue winning first prize and Mrs. Claude Ackerman the booby prize. Wild snags were used in the decorations. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. Claude Ackerman. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Gansley, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Victor LaDue, Elvin Gansley and Aleck Munson. Mrs. Walter Davis will entertain the club at the next meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Mumeay of North Cottage street, are entertaining over the week end Mrs. Sarah Ernest Snyder of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Snyder is field secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the United Evangelical church and is visiting various points in the Oregon conference in the interest of the work. She is a woman of most charming personality, gifted with voice as well as pen, and is a magnetic speaker.

The memorial address will be given by Mrs. Snyder at the First United Evangelical church on Cottage street, and she will also give an evening address at the same church.

A very pleasant surprise party and birthday dinner was given the past week for Mrs. Mary Flynn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Shurl R. Pearson. The table was beautifully decorated, covers being laid for twelve. Following the dinner a very enjoyable evening of games and entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Pearson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel given by the children. It is the story of a little girl who grows careless of flowers and plants and so the fairies undertake to punish her for her neglect. Fifty-seven children take part in the operetta.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Andrea have gone to Tillamook to spend the week-end. They will remain away over Monday.

Miss Mildred Simonton of Sauk Center, Minn., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. W. P. Babcock. Miss Simonton has been in Portland visiting during the winter, but just recently completed a tour of Washington by automobile. She will go through Canada on her return trip home.

Commencement exercises for the graduates from the eighth grade of Liberty public schools and a school picnic were held jointly Thursday at the Liberty schools. The diplomas were presented to the students at a program in the evening, the following receiving the mark of having completed their work: Mary Berndt, Ruth Emery, Louise Smith, Lillian Garnjobst, Wilda Lathrop, Mable Wolfe, Cecilia Schotthofer, Elizabeth Schmidt and Frank Hrubetz.

Starting at 9 o'clock in the morning an exhibit of sewing drawing and industrial work was on display in the school house and at 10 o'clock on out of doors program. Folk dances, music and recitations made up this program which was followed by races and other competitive events for which the business of Salem had offered prizes. At noon a basket dinner was served and in the afternoon a ball game played between Liberty and Buena Vista. Liberty was successful by a score of 4 to 1.

The following program was given at night: Barcarolle—Glee Club. Violin solo—Mildred Pugh. Vocal solo—Gertrude Aldrich. Vocal solo—Claude Stevenson. Address—H. C. Seymour, Corvallis. Violin ensemble—Miss Elizabeth Levy's class. Presentation of diplomas—H. H. Mumford. The teachers at the Liberty school for the past year were: A. N. Arnold, principal, Grace Hastings, intermediate, Margaret Peatle, primary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Coffored of 1004 South Commercial street have visited with them this week Mrs. Coffored's brother, Alfred Andrasend of the Priorio De Lux motor ship used by the royal family of Denmark. Even now the Priorio is subject to call by the king. Mr. and Mrs. Coffored visited the ship, which is the most luxurious ever in the Portland harbor, on Wednesday.

The W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R. will serve dinner on Memorial day at McCornack hall for the benefit of the G. A. R. been requested to bring well filled dinner baskets.

Mrs. Alice Lyon, who has been in California for the past six months, stopped off in Salem for a week recently to visit with her niece, Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy. She went on to her home in Portland Thursday. While in California Mrs. Lyon spent most of the time in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner has gone to Seaside about ten days visiting with relatives.

Salem chapter of the American War Mothers will give a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. John A. Carson, 923 South High street, Wednesday of this week. A full attendance of the membership is desired. At 2:30 a short business meeting will be held and at 3 o'clock Dr. W. Carlton Smith will discuss the bonus bill. Following this a short program will be given.

The Hollywood High Five club members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher Friday night. High Five was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Victor LaDue winning first prize and Mrs. Claude Ackerman the booby prize. Wild snags were used in the decorations. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. Claude Ackerman. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Gansley, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Victor LaDue, Elvin Gansley and Aleck Munson. Mrs. Walter Davis will entertain the club at the next meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Mumeay of North Cottage street, are entertaining over the week end Mrs. Sarah Ernest Snyder of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Snyder is field secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the United Evangelical church and is visiting various points in the Oregon conference in the interest of the work. She is a woman of most charming personality, gifted with voice as well as pen, and is a magnetic speaker.

The memorial address will be given by Mrs. Snyder at the First United Evangelical church on Cottage street, and she will also give an evening address at the same church.

A very pleasant surprise party and birthday dinner was given the past week for Mrs. Mary Flynn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Shurl R. Pearson. The table was beautifully decorated, covers being laid for twelve. Following the dinner a very enjoyable evening of games and entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Pearson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel given by the children. It is the story of a little girl who grows careless of flowers and plants and so the fairies undertake to punish her for her neglect. Fifty-seven children take part in the operetta.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Andrea have gone to Tillamook to spend the week-end. They will remain away over Monday.

Miss Mildred Simonton of Sauk Center, Minn., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. W. P. Babcock. Miss Simonton has been in Portland visiting during the winter, but just recently completed a tour of Washington by automobile. She will go through Canada on her return trip home.

Commencement exercises for the graduates from the eighth grade of Liberty public schools and a school picnic were held jointly Thursday at the Liberty schools. The diplomas were presented to the students at a program in the evening, the following receiving the mark of having completed their work: Mary Berndt, Ruth Emery, Louise Smith, Lillian Garnjobst, Wilda Lathrop, Mable Wolfe, Cecilia Schotthofer, Elizabeth Schmidt and Frank Hrubetz.

Starting at 9 o'clock in the morning an exhibit of sewing drawing and industrial work was on display in the school house and at 10 o'clock on out of doors program. Folk dances, music and recitations made up this program which was followed by races and other competitive events for which the business of Salem had offered prizes. At noon a basket dinner was served and in the afternoon a ball game played between Liberty and Buena Vista. Liberty was successful by a score of 4 to 1.

The following program was given at night: Barcarolle—Glee Club. Violin solo—Mildred Pugh. Vocal solo—Gertrude Aldrich. Vocal solo—Claude Stevenson. Address—H. C. Seymour, Corvallis. Violin ensemble—Miss Elizabeth Levy's class. Presentation of diplomas—H. H. Mumford. The teachers at the Liberty school for the past year were: A. N. Arnold, principal, Grace Hastings, intermediate, Margaret Peatle, primary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Coffored of 1004 South Commercial street have visited with them this week Mrs. Coffored's brother, Alfred Andrasend of the Priorio De Lux motor ship used by the royal family of Denmark. Even now the Priorio is subject to call by the king. Mr. and Mrs. Coffored visited the ship, which is the most luxurious ever in the Portland harbor, on Wednesday.

The W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R. will serve dinner on Memorial day at McCornack hall for the benefit of the G. A. R. been requested to bring well filled dinner baskets.

Mrs. Alice Lyon, who has been in California for the past six months, stopped off in Salem for a week recently to visit with her niece, Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy. She went on to her home in Portland Thursday. While in California Mrs. Lyon spent most of the time in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner has gone to Seaside about ten days visiting with relatives.

Salem chapter of the American War Mothers will give a silver tea at the home of the president, Mrs. John A. Carson, 923 South High street, Wednesday of this week. A full attendance of the membership is desired. At 2:30 a short business meeting will be held and at 3 o'clock Dr. W. Carlton Smith will discuss the bonus bill. Following this a short program will be given.

The Hollywood High Five club members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher Friday night. High Five was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Victor LaDue winning first prize and Mrs. Claude Ackerman the booby prize. Wild snags were used in the decorations. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. Claude Ackerman. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Gansley, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Victor LaDue, Elvin Gansley and Aleck Munson. Mrs. Walter Davis will entertain the club at the next meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Mumeay of North Cottage street, are entertaining over the week end Mrs. Sarah Ernest Snyder of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Snyder is field secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the United Evangelical church and is visiting various points in the Oregon conference in the interest of the work. She is a woman of most charming personality, gifted with voice as well as pen, and is a magnetic speaker.

The memorial address will be given by Mrs. Snyder at the First United Evangelical church on Cottage street, and she will also give an evening address at the same church.

A very pleasant surprise party and birthday dinner was given the past week for Mrs. Mary Flynn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Shurl R. Pearson. The table was beautifully decorated, covers being laid for twelve. Following the dinner a very enjoyable evening of games and entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Pearson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel ive in Salem June 12, and will spend the summer visiting her parents.

In some parts of Africa the high cost of things generally has increased the price of wives and some of the more handsome now bring eight cows. It strikes some people that it would require an African wife of some class to be worth eight real cows.

Graduation Gifts

Our stock is brimful of appropriate gifts for the graduate; for example—

- Eversharp Pencils
Eastman Kodaks
Roycroft Ware
Gift Books
Desk Sets
School Memory Books
Music Rolls
Classy Stationery
Waterman Fountain Pens

COMMERCIAL BOOK STORE

163 N. Commercial St.

Make Your Vacation The Perfect One
'See America First'
A glorious never-to-be-forgotten eight day personally conducted, all expense tour through Glacier National Park, Mont.
America's Scenic Wonderland
Tours of Comfort, Pleasure and Education
Leave Portland on Oriental Limited, Standard Pullman, June 15—July 1—July 15—August 1—August 15 and September 1. For itinerary, rates, etc., address
WARNER & CLARKE
Multnomah Hotel, Portland, Oregon

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of our patriot dead, the doors of this establishment will be closed tomorrow, Memorial Day. Requiessat in pace

ARE HERE
A Special Lucky Purchase of Newest Sport Skirts Sport Coats and Silk Dresses

A SPECIAL LUCKY PURCHASE SALE TUESDAY
Purchased from a well known New York manufacturer. This big lot of newest Taffeta Silk and Messaline Dresses—New All Wool Jersey Sport Coats in a handsome array of colors—All wool sport skirts including the newest Plaids and Stripes, Knife, Accordeon and Box Pleats—all go on sale at a very great reduction.

Regular values to $10.00 All Wool Jersey Sport Coats $5.98
Regular values to $12.50 New All Wool Pleated Sport Skirts $4.98 and $6.98
Values to $19.50 Pretty Taffeta Dresses $9.85

Silk Blouses
Newest Silk Blouses on special sale at $2.98; former values to $6.00. The women who have been delaying the purchase of their new summer blouse will be happy to know of this timely offering. Including georgettes, crepe de chine and other silks.
Millinery
New smart summer Hats at special reductions for Tuesday $3.75. A special lot of Hats values to $12.50, go at the above price for Tuesday only. This selection includes many Lace and Novelty trimmed shapes. It will be to your advantage to make an early morning selection.

SHOP WITH THE CROWDS
THE PEOPLES CASH STORE
The Grocery Department Will Have Many Special Offerings Tuesday

Jewelry for the June Bride
A wealth of splendid offerings to be found here in all their exquisite charm.
Lustrously beautiful Silver pieces in flatware and hollowware. The kind that lasts for years. Beautiful carved engagement and wedding rings and many other dainty articles are ready for your choosing.
GIFTS THAT LAST
GRADUATION GIFTS in Large Variety
Our stocks of watches, rings, silverware are priced to please you. Careful study of your type and contour of your face is made by our optical department, when your glasses are fitted here.
Quality—Service—Price
HARTMAN BROS.
Jewelers and Opticians
Salem, Ore.