

CHAMP BURNS LEADS RACES

Smith Brothers of Salem Do Well, But Bad Luck Cuts Off First

WORLD RECORD EVENED

Visitors From Here See Airplane Smash that Injures Pilot Peters

Harry Scott, Renee Smith and Hiram Smith returned last night from Portland, where they went to attend the motorcycle races of May 29 and 30.

They had entered two Harley-Davidson side-cars in the big Rose City events, which the Smith brothers hoped to drive to victory. But the fickle goddess of luck said: "Ain't satisfied with help-in' to bust up the war with a gun, but have to go into this other killin' game of track ridin'. Watch what I do to THEM!"

So the fickle jade threw a monkey wrench at Renee, just as he was heading off Burns, the Indian champion of the world, in the fourth lap of the first race in which the Smiths entered; and the monkey wrench dropped into the machine and popped out a cylinder.

Valve Goes Wrong
The second throw busted an exhaust valve in Hiram Smith's machine—and there they were, crippled over the track and they couldn't fight back. Talk about luck!

They patched up the machines, making the two into one, and by Monday afternoon had it running almost like a scared wolf—fast enough to win third place in a close contest with the same Burns whom Hiram Fortune saved a beating by here.

Burns was the rabbit's foot man of the whole meet. In one of the big races, a 10-mile open, he was twice fairly headed, and then his opponents pulled, or broke down, or something. Burns waddled away with his finger in his mouth, and the other crack riders gathered up their pieces and telephoned for the track truck to come and haul 'em in.

Smiths Ride Good Races
Salem riders who saw the events say that Renee Smith rode two great races, the first when his machine went bad, and the second when with the pieces he crowded the champion so closely for a third place. If Hiram Smith too, they say made a splendid showing. With something other than De Palma luck, they are rated to rank with the racing stars of the game.

Some remarkable time was made at the meet. Jim Davis, with a Harley-Davidson racing machine, made a mile in 46 1/2 seconds, equaling the world record for a dirt track, first made in 1916. Davis won the 10-mile northwest-ern championship race in 12:23.5, or at the rate of 74 miles an hour. The five-mile side-car race in which the two Salem entries were disabled, was made in 3:11.5 seconds, close to the world record for such a track. It should be stated that the track was very rough for such events, and the time was not nearly what might have been made with a really good track.

Burns Rides Indian
The Harley-Davidson riders were almost the whole meet. Lutz and Davis being the particular stars. Burns, however, of the Indian squad, was a cactus-like rider, and they all wanted to keep away from him and his rabbit's foot. But the best of them will need to get their records insured for next year, say the Salem observers, when the Smith brothers luck turns and they can get what they're riding out of them to. One of the thrills of the meet was an airplane wreck Monday afternoon. The machine, which mounted a rotary motor, had just started up with five passengers including the pilot and his crew, and a moving picture crew. It was only up a little way, perhaps about 100 feet, when something went wrong. Not having yet gained full speed, it could not be checked. It worked the machine beyond hope of repair, and perhaps fatally injuring the pilot, Joe Peters and injuring the passengers. They were taken to the hospital for treatment.

Rooster Is Happy
It had been planned after this first trip, to take pictures of the race, to make another trip and liberate in the air a rooster. Whoever should catch this bird was to take it to one of the motory stores in Portland and get a $100 credit on a new machine. But the second trip was never made.

FRESH EGGS

The pert proprietor of a grocery in East Twenty-fifth street, is not so good at repartee. "No runs, two hits, no errors," he said. "Salem—Holmes safe on F. Perkins' error. Holmes stole second. Berg was passed. McKenna out Krause to Moreland, advancing Holmes to third and Berg to second on the sacrifice. Rinehart safe on Felder's choice. Holmes going out at the plate. Walsh to Boland. Edwards out Boland to Moreland. No runs, no hits, one error.

Third Inning
Bears—Krause flied to Holmes. Garbarino flied to Rinehart. Riepl safe on McKenna's error. Walsh fanned. No runs, no hits, one error.

Small Boy Painfully Hurt at Prosser, Wn.

PROSSER, Wash., May 30.—His shoulders jammed against the top of a barn door while riding horseback today, Howard Snively, 8 years old, son of H. J. Snively, Seattle physician, was being rushed from here to the coast tonight in an effort to save his life.

A playmate, who was on the horse with young Snively, managed to slip from the animal's back when the horse "bolted" for the barn door. Snively ducked but his shoulders caught, bending his spinal column nearly double. It was said.

Spanish War Veterans Honor Girod and Hibbard

Seven automobiles carried members of Hal Hibbard post, United Spanish War veterans, on Sunday to visit the graves of two of their comrades buried in outlying cemeteries near Salem.

They drove first to Pratum, where Carl Abrams delivered a memorial address for Leon Girod, one of their former comrades. From there the party went to the Warrick cemetery, beyond Macley, where Hal Hibbard for whom the camp was named was brought home for burial. Harry W. Ross gave a very beautiful tribute to the memory of a soldier who was universally loved by those who knew him. He died in the Philippine islands and the remains were shipped home to rest on untainted American soil. On Memorial day, 1920, the camp established the custom of visiting the outside burial grounds.

Woodmen of World Will Entertain Consul Boak

E. O. Royal, district manager of Salem district, W. O. W., has arranged a meeting in Silverton June 11, where the combined camps will entertain I. I. Boak, head consul of Denver. The main features of the evening will be a street parade, at which time Mayor Eastman will present the key of the city to Mr. Boak. After the initiation of a large class, Head Consul Boak will address the neighbors, after which Silverton camp will serve strawberries, cream and cake, in the banquet room of their hall.

Ten-Year-Old "Bandit" Is Captured at Oakland

OAKLAND, Cal., May 30.—A 10-year-old "bandit" passed today in jail after being caught trying to rob the First National bank last night.

The boy is deaf and dumb. The boy entered the bank by climbing up a drain pipe and through a transom. Several contribution boxes for funds for the Armenians were found open.

New York Celebrates
NEW YORK, May 30.—Thousands of veterans of the Civil, Spanish and World wars marched today in parades throughout Greater New York in honor of the dead they had left behind on the battlefields and under the sea.

Joining hands with them beneath the Stars and Stripes were allied patriots who during the recent conflict went to the front in the khaki of Canada, the kilts of Scotland and the horizon blue of France.

Nurses and welfare workers also donned their uniforms and trod along behind the countless bands. Everywhere flags flew at half mast. From each of the great forts guarding the harbor the Memorial day salute of 21 guns boomed at noon.

Roosevelt Grave Visited
Fluttering in the various parades were old war flags, some torn in the conflict between the blue and the Gray, others powder stained on Cuban soil, and still others tattered in France.

In all the parades special honors were paid gold star mothers. One of these groups—those whose sons had died at sea—cast flowers upon the waters of the Hudson, while warcraft fired a Memorial salute.

The dead of three centuries who sleep in historic Trinity church yard were not forgotten.

Ten thousand persons visited the resting place of Theodore Roosevelt at Oyster Bay and as many more filed in and out of Grant's tomb.

READ ADVERTISEMENTS

You can learn more from the advertisements in your daily newspaper than you could in weeks spent in visiting stores, shops and offices.

If you did not read the advertisements, you might go to a store and come home again and never learn about some new goods in that store that would interest you. But the storekeeper knows and he publishes the news in an advertisement for you to read.

If you did not read advertisements, you might go on purchasing one article for more when a new and better article has come to take its place.

It pays to keep in touch with the business world by reading advertisements.

It pays if you have nothing to buy but your own clothes and shoes and candy and books and other personal things.

It pays even more if you are buying for a household.

By keeping in touch through reading advertisements you can buy to more advantage, find out where and when to get the things you want, and avoid regrettable expenditures.
