

SONGBIRDS MIGRATE TO EUROPE FOR SUMMER.

Lina Cavalleri (sitting) and Frieda Hemple, noted opera stars, photographed when they left these shores for a summer abroad. Miss Hemple will make her headquarters at St. Moritz. Mme. Cavalleri will spend considerable time in Paris.

No 1. of which she was president during the year 1919. Wherever Mrs. Caldwell lived she made many enduring friendships. She delighted in thoughtful acts of kindness. And while death for a little time claims the tabernacle of clay which she has outgrown, it has no power over her spirit, nor shall it have forever. Hence we do not say farewell, but "Till we meet again."

BITS OF BUSINESS

Issuing fraudulent stocks is just as criminal as issuing fake bank notes and ought to be punished with equal severity. We are too easy-going with this stripe of wrongdoers. To be happy, be friendly. What you are is more important than what you've got. Remember, employees like to comply with requests rather than gruffly given orders.

OBITUARY

AUGUSTUS E. WATSON
Augustus E. Watson was born in Roselle, Ill., August 3, 1852. He died at his home at Fairmount, Salem, Ore., May 16, 1921. He first came to Oregon in 1875 but was soon called home by the sickness of his father. In 1883 he returned to claim in marriage Miss Mary E. Melench, a native daughter of Oregon. Later he decided to make his home here, and to this home were born one daughter, Mary Sophia, who died at the age of 11 years, and two sons, George M., now of Salem, and Lester G., living in Cleveland, O. also his deceased sister, Father Buck at 10:30. Benediction follows. Last mass.

He was loyal not only to his country but to the right and for all that stood for the upbuilding of humanity. He stood for temperance in all things and for the Christian Sabbath observance. In his early manhood he united with the Baptist church and was ever found on the right side of moral and religious questions. Some of his last written words to his family were these: "The Holy Bible is the only true guide to a right life, and he who obeys its teachings is sure of the reward."

Mrs. Emma C. Whitmore
Mrs. Emma C. Whitmore died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Haid, 529 Court street, Salem, Ore., May 29, 1921, at the age of 72 years. She was the widow of the late J. C. Whitmore who died about 14 years ago. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Clara Ferguson of Shungnak, Alaska; William Whitmore of Butte, Mont.; Mrs. Herbert Haid of Salem, and I. D. Whitmore of Los Angeles. She was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church and a devoted Christian loved by all who knew her always and generous and forgiving, and her departure will create a vacancy which will be regretted by many. Her illness was of short duration during which time she was with her daughter, Mrs. H. Haid, of 529 Court street, Salem, Ore., prior to which time she had lived in her own home at 645 South Fifteenth street, doing her own work and enjoying the best
