SALEM FOURTH TO BE QUIET

Grounds of Catholic Church To Be Only Scene of Festivity Here

TOWNS TO CELEBRATE

Silverton, Woodburn and Mehama Will Stage Elaborate Celebrations

Fourth of July celebrations are to be held at Woodburn, Silverton, and Mehama, in Marion county. Salem will be represented in some degree at all these places. T. E. McCroskey is to be the speaking guest of the Mehama celebrants; and unformed cherries will go to both the other places, to tell 'em of Bargain day and preach the gospel of a better faith in Oregon and Webfoot resources.

A celebration is to be held here at home on the grounds of the Catholic school and church, to which all are invited. Dame Nature, the well known mother of us all, has invited a large number of the best of her children to join her out in the woods, where the fishes gambol over the grass and the birds dive gallantly across the splashing waves, where the mosquitoes sing "I Love Thee" and bite holes in one's skin to prove it; where the firecracker and the forest fire are twin brothers and the chigger is a bigger man than the grizzly bear that was killed off a generation ago.

Several hundred Salemites are accepting the invitation, many of them having started out, night before last, for Pacific City; some will go up to Silver Creek falls; some will go as far as Portland, or the Columbia highway, and the Tillamook cheerers will see not a few of the Marionettes in their midst. The streams of the Cascades that have been too high for the best trout fishing, are getting down to a normal fishing flow, so that the fly fishermen expect to find some excellent fishing. All the famous streams within reach of Salem are expected to be lined with Fourth of July visitors.

The management of the big motorcycle hill climb south of Salem have expected several thousand visitors to see this class event. They say there is room for 10,000 people to see the event with comfort and pleasure. The event is to begin at 11 o'clock.

Not everybody will celebrate riotously. Most if not all of the fruit canneries will be receiving fruit all day, and they expect the fruit pickers to be toiling in the fields to save the crop. And thousands of just common folks, neither packers nor pickers nor pikers, will just stay at home and mow the lawn and weed the garden and help to keep Salem looking like the most beautiful city in the world through their homey endeavors.

PERSONALS
Blaine McCord, Woodburn attorney, visited friends and transacted business in this city, Saturday.

W. F. Wright and J. M. Hamilton, of Cloverdale transacted business at the Marion county courthouse while in Salem, Saturday.

Allen Ballinger who operates a large farm in the Crooked Finger section was in town yesterday.

Max Gehlahar, owner a large cherry tracts in Polk county is delivering his crop to the Twelfth street cannery.

Fatigue
A Menace to Progress
In every line of human endeavor, it's the same story—the pace is getting swifter—competition fiercer. To conquer one must not only have the brains, initiative and vision but the energy and endurance to "put it over," as well. Fatigue is a merciless handicap. According to Dr. Harrington of the Massachusetts Industrial Bureau, "fatigue comes on more quickly from eye strain than from any amount of muscular work." Most of us—70%—suffer from eye strain—unknowningly. Know—don't "guess" where you stand. Consult us.

and talked with no one but his brother who sat with him. "Not in Right Mind, Claim." "I was not in my right mind," he pleaded. "You know, it is not like me to do a thing like that—I was not in my right mind," he pleaded. Upon emerging from the jail yesterday morning he announced to Chief Moffitt that he had received divine forgiveness during the night and asked that the chief also forgive him. It is not probable that a federal charge will be made.

HILL CLIMB BIG EVENT ON MONDAY

tant. Last year the machine of one rider went over backward with him, and he had to jump quick and hard to save being crushed.

There is room for 10,000 spectators to see the climb, and it's a holiday so that they're free to go. At 11 o'clock the put-puts begin to climb. There are three events for the classes of machines—the 37-inch piston capacity, the 61-inch, and the 80-inch. Every entrant has two trials, and the best trial counts.

Riders are expected from all over the state, and it looks like the biggest event of the year.

TWO FATALLY HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Those who were first on the scene of the accident say the Osborne insisted that he was alone, and that he had no one in the car with him. This statement, however, is believed to have been merely the result of shock.

STATE OF WAR RESOLUTION SIGNED

Austria, it was held here, ended today the technical state of war with those powers. The next step, it was pointed out, would be the issuing of the formal peace proclamation by the president within a few days.

A treaty of peace will then be negotiated. It was said, but the administration has not yet indicated the manner in which this will be approached. The issuing of the peace proclamation would terminate wartime laws which have not previously been repealed by congressional action, it was said. Among the more important are the trading with the enemy act and the liberty bond act.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST
The glorious ¼;
Likewise the glorious third.

Carpenter did his best, and took his licking like a man, any way.

Fred Sefton of Salem knew Dempsey well in Reno and in San Francisco, before he became a world celebrity. Mr. Sefton says Dempsey was never a slack at heart, and that he is a splendid type of American citizen. Mr. Sefton insists that a lot of American newspaper editors and others owe Mr. Dempsey an apology.

The most common remark heard on the road is the one of wonder that there are not more automobile accidents, the way so many speed fiends drive. It is so easy, it gets in the blood, and few take warning from the fatalities that happen, partly on account of the many they escape.

One man said yesterday that it is the patriotic duty of every fruit grower to keep right on saving his fruit, even on the glorious Fourth.

They may hold a good-sized Fourth of July celebration at the Salem camp ground, without any outside help.

For the little rest, the paving gangs will have to speed up from Tuesday on till the fall rains.

Legion Members Attention—The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion, Capitol post No. 9, to be held at the armory, Tuesday night, July 5, 8 p. m. Special business and refreshments.
