THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON

BREED WERE WARE SATISFUL DEPRON

SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 24, 1921

By EDNA M. LUNDBERG .

"Sometimes the abundant beauty of the world Makes my heart tremble and ache, Sometimes when summer's ban+ ners are unfurled. Or autumn's glory to the breeze is tossed and whirled I think my heart will break."

"For loveliness is almost too much for me to bear

Trees laced in twilight, how they lift me up To the high heavens, and winds that stir At evening, bid my soul with God confer.

I drink the beauty of the world as from a cup."

* * * On coming to Oregon and ex- names are evidences of "the serclaiming at the wonderfully vitude of women to men," as the "abundant" beauty of this valley, Lucy Stone league insists, is not lady answered. "Oh, do you that true in regard to an unmarthink so? We are so used to it, ried woman's name, in at least we scarcely notice it at all." Heaven preserve us from becom- in regard to a married woman's ing so accustomed to the beauty name? When Mary Smith marof this western Oregon that "we ries John Jones, her title of Mrs. scarcely notice it at all." Yet it John Jones is an assertion of peris not uncommon to find men and sonality, proclaiming that a cerwomen who are blind to beauty, tain woman willed to be the wife even in a place so abounding in of John Jones. If she remains natural charm as this section of Mary Smith, she wears a name the state is. It is all there, for which she had nothing whatever them to appreciate, yet they never to do with choosing. It a womake it their own. We are told man "suffers a loss of identity to "Look up, not down." We under the shadow 'of her husare meant to look upward to the band's name," as the manifesto skies and onward to the hills. It is a mistake to keep our what about the shadow of her thoughts cast downward, if we father's name? Surely, if that should dwell upon the glories and league wants to be logical, it beauties of this universe our must recognize that the "right" thoughts and lives would rise ac- it asserts is one to which every cordingly. There is more truth human being is equally entitled: in that Bible quotation, "I will the only logical way in which the lift mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help" than we be carried out would be to have have realized.

It would be impossible to find man, select his, or her, name. As a land with greater natural beauty than the one in which we live, The forests, the fields, the mountains and the streams vie with each other in their appeals to the eye, and each has its own c to delight the ear. Here rdeed can we think with Byron: There is a pleasure in the pathas woods.

There is a rapture on the lonely shore.

There is society, where none intrudes. By the deep sea, and music in the roar: Llove not Man the less, but Nature more.

From these our interviews, which I steal

From all I may be, or have been before. To mingle with the universe and feel What I can ne'er express yet cannot all conceal." * *

any movement sponsoring such ful effest of the lighted garden, vapid, foolish, unnecesscary re- and the entertainment offered. form, and would put their efforts * *

The second work the second toward something of real worth, A party composed of members this world would be a better place of the writers' section of the Sato live in. There are too many lem Arts league motored to Sanworth while movements for the dy, Or, on Thursday and were benefit of mothers and children's the guests of Mrs. F. A. Eason, welfare and of a like nature that a member of the writers' section, need staunch upholding to busy who is living in Sandy at presoneself with non-essentials such ent. Mrs. Eason entertained the ladies from Salem, and additional

as this: Married Women's Names.

An organization has just been formed in the United States under the name of the Lucy Stone league, which announces that its gram was given, various members of the Salem ladies giving original work in poetry and phrase. In the evening they enjoyed a purpose is "to win for married camp fire supper on Cedar creek.

guests with an elaborate luncheon, after which a pleasing pro-women the right to use their toasted weiners, coffee and other maiden names." But are not wowell known campfire catables, bemen's maiden names the names ing cooked over the fire. The of their fathers? If existing surhusbands of the additional guests being present to enjoy this part of the entertainment. After the supper the balance of the program was given. Mrs. Edna Daily reading an original poem, "Down ag large a measure as it is true on Sandy." in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Eason has just had one of her poems accepted by The Poet and Philosopher. She read the poem at a recent meeting of the writers' section. "The guests who motored from Salem left about 9 o'clock the same evening to return to their homes. Those who went from here were Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mrs. Renska Swart, Miss Mina Harding teacher of elocution at the Willamette university; Mrs. Gustav Ebof the Lucy Stone league declares, sen, wife of the teacher of languages at Willamette university; Mrs. J. C. Nelson, wife of the high school principal; Mrs. R. Monroe Gilbert, Mrs. Edna Daily, Mrs. W. P. Fargo. Among the additional guests whom Mrs. Ealeague's proposed reform could son had invited was Mrs. Miller who does newspaper work for the Portland Journal. every man, as well as every wo-

* *

The attendants were things are, the infant son of the A very nuetty wedding was an Jones family is destined to be a event of July 20 at Monmouth. Jones all his life; but not so his when Miss Wilda Fuller, daughinfant sister, who may grow up ter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller and become Mrs. William Smith. of Monmouth, became the bride -Western Home Monthly. of Roy Lewis of McMinnville. The ceremony was performed in tending.

Burton

Bell

daisies and sweet peas.

Quite the event of the week the First Baptist church at 9 was the garden party held Thurs- o'clock p. m., the wedding serday evening by the Salem Floral vice being read by Rev. E. Pace. society, and Civic Improvement The bride wore a gown of white league, on the spacious lawn at taffeta with a flowing veil held the nome of Mrs. Wi P. Lord, on in place by a rope of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of brides South High street. garden, one of Salem's roses, orchids and lilles of the beauty spots, was a delight to the valley. eyes, glowing with the light of Glac's Wilson of Salem, maid a hundred electric candles, and of honor, who wore white organdecorated with Japanese lanterns. dy. The bridesmaids, Josephine A pleasing program was present- Heffley of Monmouth, and Flored; Miss Elizabeth Schreiber of ence Sperry of Salem, who wore Santa Monica, giving several in- organdy dresses in pastel shades terpretative dances, representing and all carried shower bouquets the Spanish, the Egyptian and the of sweet peas. Little Inez Sacre Gypsy schools of dancing, adding was flower girl. Attending the to the beauty of the night and groom was Harry White of Mc-of the setting, the beauty of mo- Minnville, who acted as best man;

These were enthusiastically received by an appreciative audi-

A male quartet composed of

The

tion.

ence.

Following is a program given marriage. She was attended as at the University M. E. church bridesmaid by Miss Gladys Scott Friday, July 15, in Seattle, by of Newberg, a close friend, and Carl Paige Wood, associate pro- attending the groom was Altha agers. It was in the nature of a tessor of music at the University McLeod, of Salem. Mendelssohn's of Washington, assisted by Miss wedding march was played by Miss lawn A pleasant social afternoon Lena Belle Tartar, contralto, Mary Bullock of Portland and was enjoyed by the old people of prominent Salem vocal teacher, Miss Eva Miles sang, '50 Promise the home, and the additional and director of music in Salem. Me." who is doing advanced coaching acted as flower girl. The bride were served at the close of the aftand study this summer at the wore a traveling suit of navy blue, and a navy blue hat to match.

vanced coaching with Carl Paige Wood of the University of iniversity of Washington. The audience was a capacity one, and Miss Tartar was doubly Washington, in Seattle.

Gavotte from "Mignon".....

Boch day for Portland, and from there Cornelius Tuthili. minor

SOCIETY NEWS THE WEEK

tables were employed and at the F. W. Selee, Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mrs. | con guests were taken for a drive close of the afternoon, refresh- P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. M. B. Parouna- throughout the nearby orchard ments were served. The ladies gian, Mrs. E. J. Swafford, Mrs. A. present were Mrs. Lew Aldridge, A. Underhill, Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, Mrs. I. W. Needham, Mrs. O. L. Mrs. J. O. Goldsmith, Mrs. B. E.

Fisher, Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mrs. Carrier, Mrs. H. H. Vandervort, C. W. Inman, Mrs. William Cra- Mrs. C. A. Clark, Mrs. W. T. Rigvatt, Mrs. Lester Davis, Mrs. C. E. don, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. E. E. Knowland, Mrs. E. Quinn, Mrs. Upmeier, Mrs. A. C. Bornstedt, Cal Patton, Mrs. E. L.*Kapphahan Mrs. C. A. Roberts, Mr. an dMrs. Walter Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Price and Rev. E. E. Gilbert.

Mrs. Julius Beebe, charming Sa-scheme, were presented to the suests. Mrs. Beebe was assisted appropriately decorated.

New location, 318 Court street

Mrs. F. von Eschen entertained the young ladies who have been teaching in the East Bible school, and Mrs. E. C. Cross returned and a few additional guests, at this week from a motor trip to her home on. Court street, last Bend where they spent a week at Thursday afternoon.

* *

and Mrs. L. W. Gleason.

The afternoon was pleasantly home by way of the McKenzie spent in sewing, social conversa- pass, tion and music. Miss Fay Spaulding sang several numbers, accompanied by Miss Genevieve Lindley. Spaulding and her mother Nora The home was tastefully deco-Guard Fuller of Corvallis leave rated with pink rambler roses. At this week for a trip to Crater the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served. Those Lake. They will be away two teachers present were: Miss Mary weeks. t is their plan to return home by way of Bend and the panied by Miss Genevieve Findley. Columbia River highway. Miss Pearl Eyre, Miss Josephine

Brown, Miss Esther Parounaigian, Mrs. Pearl Miller, Mrs. Kenneth lem matron. Friday afternoon en-Legg, Miss Doris Loveland, Miss tertained a few of her friends at Evelyn DeLong, Miss Grace Bayluncheon. Mrs. Beebe resides in nard, Miss Fay Spaulding, Miss Vera Wise. Additional guests the Court Apartments. The rooms were were Mrs. Orpheus Gillette, Mrs. ferns, potted plants and imported Adella Chapter, Mrs. Kenneth strawberry blossoms being used Randall and Miss Lulu Rosamond in profusion. Dainty place cards, Waiton. worked out in the general color

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gamble and family are starting Monday morn- in serving by Mrs. Fred G. Buch-ing on an extended trip east, going tel. Mrs. W. A. Pratt cut the as far as New York City. They ex- ices In the evening the lunchpect to drive through making a road book; taking pictures of the road every mile, also maping the route as they go. They are making an official road map for the General Advertising company. They have rented their home at 966 South Twelfth street and expect to be gone about four months, coming back the southern route. * *

A party for the old folks who Carlene Scott of Portland guests present.

The members of the home are: Mrs. M. A. Cunningham, Mrs. E. Following the ceremony, the F. Selleck, Mrs. Julia Hartel, Mrs. wedding luncheon was served to encored following each appear- the wedding party and a large Mary Johnson, Mrs. L. Harding, group of guests. The wedding cake Mrs. M. Harris. Mrs. F. Frelian, Military march in D. . . . Schubert was cut by the bride, assisted in Mrs. L. Hays, Mrs. W. M. Proctor. Piece Herolque .... Cesar Franck serving by the groom; Mrs. Agnes Mrs. E. Merrill, Mrs. E. L. Gil-Pearson presiding at the punch man, Mrs. Mina Hanby, J. Kiffler Ambrose Thomas bowl. The couple left the same James Weber, Nicholi Olson and Miss Alma Marle Page of Silverton, and Irving Dugan of Salem, were married Friday afterncon at the Leslie Methodist parsonage, by Rev. H. N. Aldrich. They were attended by Miss Inez Frye and George Bock. They will make their home in Salem, Mr. Dugan being a member of one of the local orchestras.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Catlin (Continued on page 3) Pilot Butte Inn. They returned

Six Week Summer Term June 20-July 29

Special

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding. Salem School of Expression Miss IIa Spaulding, Mrs. Walter

147 N. Commercial St. Phone 1484J

Let Your Next Corset Be a Nu Bone

It will give you perfect comfort, perfect fit and satisfaction. We carry a full line of Brassieres, prices 39c to $2.50. Call for the Boyishform Brassiere, price 75c Pure Silk Hosiery in Cordovan and Grey only ..... ....98c

A. E. LYONS

Phone 318

MISS LENA BELLE TARTAR, who has been doing ad-live at the Methodist Old People's home, was given Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Selee on South Commercial street, by the members of the board of manpicnic party, and was held on the following is an editorial from a western paper. writer dares to offer the on that if women would put their efforts to some movement that had some real value, instead wasting precious time, dillydallying over whether they .are "suffering a loss of identity" by using their husband's name; or

HEMSTITCHING Initials and designs a specialty

assortment of plain and fancy Embroidering for ladies' gar Pleating in all of the latest

STEPHAN'S "In the Pittock Block"

POETLAND BDWY. 1099

Buttons Covered

Extraordinary Value in Waists

$3.98

Fourteen young, women assisted in the serving of the other features of the refreshments of the evening. More than 200 guests were in attendance to enjoy the beauti-

The really wonderful values that we are giving

you, in sheer Georgette,

Crepe de Chine, and Pongee Silk Waists, will bring you down to our store early in the day.

They were bought by us

at, and under the market

price, and we will sell

them at the LOW PRICE

Popular Prices

of $3.98.

H. B. Glaisyer, first tenor; Richard Robertson, second tenor; Al-Love You Truly." and Grace Parbert H. Gille, first bass, and R. ker played the wedding march. D. Barton, second bass, added to About 150 guests gathered in the evening's enjoyment by sevthe church to witness the cereeral numbers sung from different monv parts of the garden, at different After the ceremony about 50 times, which caused it to be very guests gathered at the home of effective. the bride's parents on College Mrs. Edward Baker presided avenue for refreshments. over the coffee urn, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left saat Mrs. William Lytle. Miss Marafter for a Honeymoon trop of three weeks to northern cities. garet Rodgers had charge of the weeks to northern cities. punch bowl. Mrs. Ennis Wait, Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of Mon-Mrs. Lowell Tweedale and Mrs. mouth high school and the Ore-Mary Edmunds served the ices. gon normal school. She taught last year near Albany. Mr. Lewis is employed at the Southern Pacific depot in McMinnville, and the young_couple will make their home there.

used.

with

Miss

was used bride.

First,

in G Echo ..... Lady Henry Somerset Theodore Irvin of Salem also at-Miss Tartar.

The altar was massive-Sicilian Love Song. Mauro-Cotto ly decorated with ferns, shasta Sicilian Love Song ..... Mauro-Cottone Miss Hope McDonald sang

Humoresque "The Primitive Organ" ..... Pietro Yon

ummer sketches .... Lemare Dawn The Bee Cuekoo

Twilight Evening Melisande in the Wood...Goetz

A Summer Shower...Richardson Miss Tartar. The Girl With the Flaxen Hair Debussy Shepherd's Cradle Song ..... Finale from the First Organ Symphony ..... .. Meguaire

* * Mrs. William Babcock was hos-

ess Wednesday afternoon with a ielightful party honoring Mrs. R. B. Houston of Santa Rosa, Cal., and Mrs. Lilburn Boggs of Sacranento. The marriage of Glenn A A large number of ladies were Smith of Turner, Ore., and Mise resent to enjoy the afternoon Mary E. Pearman, of Mill City with Mrs. Houston and Mrs. took place at the home of the loggs. The house was decoratbride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B d tastefully, with pink and blue L.* Pearman of Mill City, at high ydrangeas, with pink streamers. noon, Thursday, July 7. A sister These same colors were carried of the bride, Miss Susan Pear out in the refreshments of ice man, acted as bridesmaid, and ream, cake and coffee, and nuts. Nelson J. Sanford was the groomsleed punch was also served durman. The decorations were fesng the afternoon. toons of English Ivy and a profu-Sewing and social chat passed sion of choice cut flowers. A color he afternoon. Some of the lascheme of pink and white was he shady back lawn. When the hour for the wedding Miss Ruth Johns and Miss Ad. arrived, 50 guests who had gathered for the occasion, listened to Miller sang exceptionally well, several solos each. Mrs. Babcock a solo "The Years at the Spring." ar assisted in serving by Mrs. piano accompaniment by da M. Babcock, Miss Evangeline Nina Wadsworth Kahler Then to the strains of Mendels-Powell and her daughter. Miss sohn's wedding march, the brida! melia Babcock. Guests present party descended the stairs and ere: Mr. Houston, Mrs. Boggs, and her charming little 2-yeartook their places in the archway dd daughter Gene, Mrs. E. Hofer, Rev. Charles Heath Powell of Sa liss Florence McKinney, Mrs. lem, read the marriage service. .Han Bynon, Mrs. D. C. Minto, The impressive Episcopal service Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Etizabeth Waters, Mrs Following the ceremony, Mrs Pearman, the mother of the bride George Waters, Mrs. Hom Kay was hostess to a buffet breakfast MTS. rank Speacer, Mrs. John Albert The bride has lived with her Mrs. John Scout, Mrs. Charles K parents in Mill City the past year Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and paulding, Mrs Edward Emmett Woodburn Wis. Tom Williams. Mrs. W. G. Smith of Turner and Mrs. C. B. Weld Mrs. Frank Mey has lived there for several years

The young couple are spending their honeymoon at Redona beach Cal., with a great-aunt of the Mrs. C. F. Horton and children Dorothy and Charles Floyd, Jr., o'

Fullerton, Cal., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Leisy on Locust-street.

Engraved Cards Wedding Invitations and Visiting

Cards ock Prompt, Satisfactory Service COMMERCIAL BOOK STORE 163 North Commercial

May Gibson and Klony Smith, The house was decked in quantities of pink-hued flowers, and a bower was arranged in the living room beneath which the bridal party a specialty. Second, Third and Fourth stood. The procession was led by Rev. R. L. Putnam, the officiating minister, the bride entering on the arm of her father who gave her in motored to various points north. They will reside in Salem and will be at home in a short time to their friends, at their home on Fourteenth and Leslie streets. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gibson. She was graduated from the Salem high school and for the past few years has been assistant in the city library. Mr. Smith has always lived in Salem, attending high school here, and is now employed in the Highway garage in Salem. * *

A quiet wedding was solemnized last Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, when Miss Thelma Daughtery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Daughtery of 595 North Fourteenth street became the bride of Lyle Nosler, the ceremony taking place at the parsonage of the Court street Christian church. Rev. R. L. Putpam officiating. The young couple feft the same morning for a two week's honeymoon at the coast before going to their on hme near Bridge, Ore., where Mr. Nosler has a farm. The ' night the wedding took place the bride was honor guest at a slumber party given by Miss Ruby Allen, 290 South Twentyfirst street, but the time was passed in playing the guitar and singing until the hour appointed for the wedding. Young women present at this party were Miss Beryl Marsters, Miss Dorothy Orcott. Miss Eulalie Witzel, Miss lies enjoyed the "odi comfort of Blanche Lee, Miss Ruby Allen and the bride-to-be, Miss Daughtery.

* * Mrs. L. W. Gleason invited a few ladies to her home Wednesday afternoon to a "practice" bridge party. The house was beautifully decorated with pink rambles roses, sweet peas, and ferns. Three

Enjoy Physical Comfort through perfect fitting cor-On last Sunday afternoon at The new elastic girdles he home of the bride's parents. and elastic top corsets assure Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gibson, ocevery comfort and ease in all urred the wedding of Miss Apple positions, / Models for the slender and stout figure. Van Raalte and Kayser Silk hosiery

Renska L. Swart Corset Specialist, 115 Liberty St.

Other guests Mrs. H. N. Aldrich, Rev. and Mrs. B. E. Kirkpatrick, Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Acheson, Mrs. J. B. Littler, Mrs. A. C. Bohrnstedt, Mrs. Frank Dunlap.

Members of the board who were hostesses of the affair were Mrs.

We are showing some very smart styles for women, girls and children

Prices Range from $3.98, $4.50 $4.95, $5.75, $5.90 to $6.90

Mail Orders--

sonally filled. We pay the postage or express.

Satisfaction Guaranteed--Every mail order promptly and per- Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you are not satisfied with your purchase.

Jane Jackson Corsets

Phone 877

Priced for this Sale at . The Georgette and Crepe Waists come in shades of Pink, Light Blue, Old Rose, Navy, China Blue, and high colors. Finished with pleated fronts, ruffles, and dainty lace trimmings. The materials are of good quality. All Waists are well made. You will find a full range of sizes.

Quality Merchandise

H.G. Shipley Co.

"There is a Reason to Pay as You Go"

