

GREAT PROGRAM IN READINESS

Sale of Reserved Seats Regan Yesterday and Will Continue Tomorrow

MANAGER IS EXULTANT

High Lights of Week's Enertainment Pointed to
By Mr. Taylor

With two days remaining before the opening of Salem's 1921 Chautauqua the season ticket sale has already crept close to the $1200 point.

The reserved seats went on sale at Hartman's jewelry store yesterday and about half of the section has been sold. The sale will continue at Hartman's Monday and a number of choice seats are still procurable. According to manager Taylor some of the best seats in the section are still available.

To hear Taylor talk Chautauqua, especially as regards this year's program, is to become enthusiastic oneself and a keen desire to see the entire program is the result of a few minutes conversation with him.

In yesterday's issue was given a synopsis of some of the programs as he outlined them. Regarding the others he had this to say:

"The play which comes on Friday night is one of the cleverest of its kind it has ever been my privilege to see. 'Nothing But the Truth' features a young businessman who has $10,000 that he can tell the truth for 24 hours.
The predicaments into which he throws the entire cast singly and collectively furnish a full evening of fun and amusement."

"The sixth day brings the Sam Lewis artist. Concert company for two good precludes of high class music. Following them in the afternoon Mr. Taylor gives the second in his series of sex lectures, 'The Duty of the Parent to the Child.' In the evening Peter Clark MacFarlane. To call him a lecturer is to give him a misnomer for he is really one of the cleverest humorists and story tellers on the platform. Most of us know him through his novels of which 'Held to Answer' is one of the best, or through his magazine articles. To know him as a public speaker is to enjoy him at his best. He gives a laugh-provoking and soul-inspiring message entitled, 'An American.'"

The seventh day is the biggest day of all. Our feature music attraction the Lientance Symphony orchestra which gives a full afternoon concert and a prelude in the evening are being highly praised for their ensemble work as well as for the solos. Mrs.
Pearl Hughes, contralto soloist with the company is making a London's West End, according to Miss Justine Johnstone, stage and screen star, who ran over from England for a short sojourn here in America.

host of friends in every town visited.

In the evening Captain T. Dinsmore Upton gives the big message of the week "The Four-Square Builder." To describe either the speaker or the message is not possible until one knows "Dinny." He is one of America's big young men who is doing a big work for the boys and girls of America. He is one of the big features of Chautauqua.

Seven big evening programs and six big afternoons. And the season tickets are interchangeable in the family, so when one can't go another can use the ticket. The season tickets for adults at $2.72 amount to less than three of the evening programs. That means the other 10 programs can be seen free. These tickets will remain on sale all day Monday at the Hartman jewelry store, Paterson's book store, Commercial book store, The Spa, The Grey Bell and Will's Music store. A phone call will reserve the pat-ron's tickets until they are at leisure to call and procure them.

Everything points to a successful Chautauqua this year. The tent is already pitched, everything is in readiness for the opening program and the advance sale is the best Salem has ever enjoyed.
If you haven't secured yours do so before it is too late because the season sale closes Monday night.

BRIEF NEWS FROM SILVERTON VICINITY

SILVERTON, Ore., July 23. — (Special to The Statesman) —

York, has been a guest at the G.
B. Denton home this week. Mr.
Drugard will be remembered by Silvertown friends as a guest at the Charles Denton home before the latter moved to Montana. Mr.
Denton manages a store near Gal-ata, Mont., of which Mr. Drugard is one of the proprietors.

A. Enna of Portland spent a few days of this week at Silvertown.
Mr. Enna is a brother of Dr. Enid Enna who is well known in Salem and Portland musical circles. Dr.
Enna at one time conducted a vocal class at Silvertown. Mr. Enna was at Silvertown as a representative of the Northern.

J. M. Brown, familiarly known about Silvertown as "Mat" Brown, has been very ill recently but has recovered enough to sit up again.
The fact that Mr. Brown is quite aged makes his recovery slower.

Miss Eliza Brown is at the Willamette sanitarium at Portland.
Mrs. Connell Murray of Powers, Ore., is a guest of relatives in the Silvertown hills. Mrs. Murry will best be remembered as Miss Mary Hostettler. She was a member of the Silvertown high school class of '16.

Miss Faye Lavery and Harold Lee both of Silvertown were married at Portland Tuesday. Mrs.

are at Falls City where Mr. Eastman is doing work for the Silvertown Blow Pipe company.

Silvertown friends have received word from Miss Nellie Cavander that she is enjoying her vacation immensely. Miss Cavander, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Blackley is touring Yellowstone park.

Word has been received from Arthur Ransford that he is nicely located in a modern equipped studio at Portland. Mr. Ransford was formerly employed as the Drake brothers studio at Silvertown.

Mrs. Jack Forast of Portland is a guest of Mrs. Will Mount.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson are again at their home after a vacation spent at Cascadia.

Miss Virginia Smith of San Francisco is here on a three weeks vacation. She is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. I.
Smith on North Water street.
Miss Smith is studying at a San Francisco hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson of Aroville, Cal., are visiting Silvertown relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are planning to remain until September.

The Mistlead Orchestra of Salem is playing at the Lone Maple pavilion this week-end.
Titus Anderson received a broken shoulder and arm while falling trees in the lumber woods.
Mr. Anderson was brought to the Silvertown hospital.

Coolidge & McClain, bankers, have installed new safety deposit boxes in their vault.

Frank Carpenter is employed at the postoffice as clerk. Mr. Carpenter was one of the participants in the recent government postoffice examinations given at Silvertown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ghell have purchased the J. L. Meisner property on Elk street.

Bent and Kemaha Will Go To British Columbia

George Bent of the Chemawa Indian school and Thomas Kemaha, one of his Ojibwa Indian pro-tectees, will leave today for a trip into British Columbia where they will be gone about 10 days.

Kemaha, a lad of 17, one of the pluckiest Ojibwa tribe, the richest people in the world, and he has an income that would look like silk shirts and gold-plated gun-metal-hour buzz wagons to most of his white brethren. Kemaha, however, has remained at Chemawa this summer, at work in the fields until he thought that this little vacation would do him good, and so they're going.
Mr. Bent will return in time to take charge of the Boy Scout camp starting August 8.

CHAUTAUQUA

Lectures of National Importance

Stefansson, noted explorer of the far North, who brings a remarkable illustrated lecture on "My Five Years in the Arctic;" Tom Skeyhill, Anzac soldier-poet and adventurer, just back from Russia with a great story about latest developments in Bolshevik-land; Peter Clark McFarlane, prominent author and contributor to leading national magazines; Father D. J. Cronin, speaking on "The Weeds and Flowers of Literature;" and Burrell Ford, electrical scientist and inventor, demonstrating the marvels of electricity; Captain T. D. Upton, formerly superintendent of municipal recreation, Grand Rapids, Mich.

A Big Play Production

The Keithley Broadway Players, a New York company with an all-professional cast will present on the fifth night one of the greatest comedies of the present day, "Nothing but the Truth." This big farce success was first presented on Broadway by Willie Collier, achieving a record run.

Have You Bought Your Season Ticket?

It is the "Open Sesame" to a week of Genuine Entertainment Adults, $2.72; Students, $1.50; Child's, $1.00. No War Tax

A Week of Splendid Music

Two concerts will be presented by Lientance's Little Symphony, an orchestra created and coached by Thurlow Lientance, noted American composer. At the evening concert Jane Peterson, prominent Chicago contralto, will appear as soloist. Two concerts by the Jugo-Slav Tamburica Orchestra, an organization from Eastern Europe. Two concerts by the Orpheus Four, official quartet of the Orpheus Club of Los Angeles and rated as one of the foremost male quartets in the country. Two programs by the Roush-Freeman Duo and two programs of solo work and community singing directed by Walter Jenkins.

An Abundance of Entertainment

The inimitable Ada Roach is coming! Her dialect stories and character sketches are among the best being presented on the platform. Ruth Freeman too is an entertainer of note. Then there is the big play production and distinct entertainment value in over half of the lectures of the week. It is an evenly balanced program. You'll like it through and through.
