Kaku Tells Tokio Interviewer That Harding is Not Belligerent

FEELING LESS INTENSE

However, Japanese Official Finds Many Americans Anticipate War

TOKIO, July 6.—"It is regrettable that the real character and policy of the new American president should be misunderstood by some of the Japanese people, said Michu Kaku, secretary of the Japanese embassy in Washington who has just returned on a furlough, when interviewed by the Asahi representative. Mr. Kaku continued: "The president has often had occasion to express his conviction that an Anglo-American-Japanese entente should be made the basis of world peace. There is every reason to believe that the American president and his staff are all in favor of the maintenance of friendly relations between America and Japan.

ment limitation produced a favorable impression on American minds in general although the plan was defeated in the Japanese lower house. "On my way back, I was often asked by American friends when the American-Japanese war was going to break out, and some American women I met in the country districts assured me that they were determined to offer their services as hospital nurses upon the outbreak of American-Japanese hostilities.

NEW CITY TO BE MEMORIAL

Belleau Will Be Rebuilt By Americans As Monument To Soldiers

SOCIETY HEADS MOVE

White Crosses Mark Resting Places of Lads From Nearly Every State

WASHINGTON, July 5. — Belleau, the little French village on the edge of the foothills of Belleau wood, is to be rebuilt by Americans as a memorial to the American dead in that historic battle. There were only about 85 houses in the little place and they were destroyed in the fierce fighting which ranged from Chateau Thierry along the Marne when the American troops turned the tide of the last German drive in the summer of 1918.

Crosses Mark Graves Near the village, on a hillside, white crosses mark the graves of the heroes who fell in that battle, and as a lasting memorial to them the American committee which includes many notables is setting out to rebuild the place. The name of every American who joins in the project will be inscribed in a book to be deposited in the city hall in the new village of Belleau by the Belleau Wood Memorial association of which Mrs. James Carroll Fraser of this city is chairman.

President Harding, General Pershing, Secretary Weeks and various others have endorsed and supported the movement. The late Chief Justice White endorsed it before he died.

Priest is Member of Italian Parliament

ROME, July 25.—The new Italian parliament will have some striking characteristics. The provinces annexed to Italy in consequence of the great war are sending four Germans and five Slavs to their new capital to sit in the chamber of deputies and among the Slavs there is a priest, the Rev. Virgilio Schelz, who has been elected for the Gorizia constituency.

No priest has sat in the chamber since 1870, when the temporal power was suppressed.
