

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Executor Reports—J. H. Miller, executor of the estate of Elizabeth J. Miller, reports cash on hand $321.45 asking permission to distribute it among the five heirs. The court has named September 19 as the date for the final hearing.

Did Not Resign, Couldn't—It is said that those who would hold public office never resign, but George F. Mason, postmaster at Jefferson, is an exception. He tried to resign last fall and there was held an examination of candidates for the office. But no successor was appointed. However there are signs that Mr. Mason will be relieved of officially by postmaster, as another examination will be held in Salem, September 10. His official term expired October 24, 1920.

Shrine Picnic at Albany—Members of the Salem Shrine club have received notice of the big Shrine picnic to be given by the Albany Shrine club, Labor day, September 5. The famous Al Kader band of Portland and its chautauques and patrol will be in attendance. George G. Brown of Salem is on the general committee. It is understood the Shrine will all the way from Portland to Eugene are arranging to attend. The Salem Shrine club has accepted as a body, the special invitation extended.

Starting Monday, Aug. 15—For one week will give from 20 to 40 per cent discount on Eastman Prema Kodaks. Also some good second hand kodaks, at a real low price. 30 days free trial on all kodaks. H. M. Sander-son, Capital Drug Store.—Adv.

Auto Home Plates Arriving—Auto home plates to be placed on both front and rear of autos have arrived at the Commercial club and those in charge say that already of the 500 expected to be placed here, fully two-thirds have been taken. It is suggested that those who have not as yet arranged for their auto plates, should telephone the Commercial club. It is now quite the proper thing to have a home plate for the car, and Salem is one of the large cities in the state to take up the idea.

Receiver's Sale—The bankrupt stock of new and second-hand furniture, beds, bedding, stoves, dishes, and household furnishings formerly belonging to H. M. Cannon & Co. will be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, at the corner of 12th and Mill streets in Salem, Oregon, Wednesday, August 24, 1921, at 10 o'clock a. m. J. H. Dunlap, receiver.—Adv.

Wood Prices Lower—Compared to one year ago, the price of wood this fall will be considerably lower. For old fir, the price yesterday was given at from $7 to $8 a cord, compared to $9 and $10 one year ago. Ash is now sold at about $8 a cord, while a year ago it was $10 a cord. Oak is now sold to be about $9 a cord, while a year ago it was pretty close to $12.

Scouts Doing Well—Miss Mina Cook, registered nurse, who returned yesterday from Camp Merrimack, reports the Boy Scouts as all doing fine and nothing worse happening to the boys than poison oak and occasional bee stings. As an appreciation of her services with the boys during their first week in camp, she presented Miss Cook with an official Scout "S" which is regarded among scout folks as a special honor.

Collision Reported—An auto driven by L. R. Oldenburg of route 8, and Dan Sherman, 1130 Pine street, were damaged in a collision at Market and Fifth streets Sunday afternoon. Oldenburg was driving west on Market street and Sherman crossing at the intersection when the cars came together.

Chinese Cause Trouble—Fear of a possible tong war, came of the Bin Sen Noodle house, to call the police station on Sunday night for assistance, when two young Chinese became troublesome while in his eating house. Bin Sen said the Chinamen were trying to create a disturbance, and apparently came for that purpose. Police officers searched the locality for offenders but they had disappeared.

Returning Today—Charles Knowland and P. E. Fullerton, are traveling today from McCredie spring to Salem. They were sort of pioneers for the Boy Scouts, having arrived at the camp several days ahead of the boys.

Eager To See Home—Elmer E. Tanner, Jr., who is serving as mechanic in the aviation corps in Honolulu, writes to his father in Elmer Tanner of South Thirteenth street, that he would give anything for a chance to see the good old United States again. He enlisted in the navy when only a corps two years ago, but has not been home since leaving here, though he expects to be able to make a visit this fall.

Visited Hillsboro—Mrs. J. B. Ulrich and daughter Maxine, Miss Helen Ingrey and Miss Florence Miller visited over Saturday and Sunday at Hillsboro, the guest of Miss Rose Caver.

Has Good Intentions—Edward Schunke, secretary of the Roth Grocery Company, says that he hopes soon to go on his vacation, but just at present he doesn't know where he's going, or exactly when, although his plans rather indicate the latter part of this week for a departure.

On Long Trip—Mrs. J. A. Carr, mother of Mrs. W. W. Cory, 365 South Seventeenth street, left on a visit to Indiana, to be gone until October 31. She is 82 years old and is making the trip alone. Mrs. Cory accompanied her as far as Portland.

DOZEN AUTOS ARE TAGGED SUNDAY

Improper Parking Found Frequent in Residence Section of City

Improper parking of automobiles has been the cause of numerous accidents in the past and in order to lessen this traffic disturbance the police officials conducted a regular automobile tag day Sunday with the result that 12 tags were placed on cars, summoning the operators to appear before Judge Earl Race at 2 o'clock yesterday.

In accordance with this request the owners appeared and while fines were not imposed, they were informed of the city ordinance regarding the parking system and were then dismissed.

Parking rules within the fire limits have been generally observed, according to Chief of Police Moffitt. It is in the residential districts that the present trouble lies, which has been the cause of a number of accidents should be parked parallel with the recently.

Cars in this district curbing. Many pull in on either side, and leave their cars standing. As a result they violate the rule twice. They drive on the wrong side of the street when they park and leave their cars headed to the left, and again when they have to drive across the street when they leave the curb to get back on the right side of the street.

Offenders in the future will be expected to pay the penalty for such violations.

Among those whose automobiles were tagged on Sunday were W. H. Darby, 481 North Winter street; C. O. Johnson, Silverton; G. F. Booth, 1720 Chemeketa street; W. R. Hampton, Gervais; J. S. Miller, 1417 North Twelfth street; Mrs. R. W. McIntire, 391 North Cottage street; Thomas A. Roberts, 205 Oregon building; Joe E. Bedient, Portland; E. C. Quinn, 230 South Twelfth street; Carl Armprest, 332 North Twenty-fourth street; Fred L. Klein, 845 Center street.

CORPORATION LICENSES DELINQUENT FROM NOW ON

The time for remitting annual license fees by corporations, both domestic and foreign, operating in Oregon expired yesterday, according to T. B. Handley, state corporation commissioner. From now on corporations that have failed to remit the license fees will be compelled to pay interest at the rate of 6 per cent. Although Mr. Handley has not yet had time to check up the applications received by his department he estimated that there would be between 6000 and 7000 corporations operating in Oregon during the next fiscal year.

OREGON SAFETY NEWS IS Name of New Publication

The first number of the Oregon Safety News, a publication issued by the national safety council, state labor bureau and state industrial accident commission made its appearance here yesterday.

The publication reviews the work of the several accident prevention bureaus, and gives a general idea of the benefits that are derived by injured workers under the Oregon compensation law. A safety directory also is one of the features of the publication.

Liquidation of Yoncalla Bank Finally Completed

Liquidation of the defunct Yoncalla State bank was completed yesterday when Frank C. Brantwell, state superintendent of banks, mailed the final dividends to the creditors of the institution. The depositors realized approximately 60 per cent of their respective claims.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat, also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy. The body is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's uric waste promptly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the juice of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in uric acid, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts' inexpensive cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Drugists here sell their lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.
